18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

SUMMER THANK YOUS

During these very warm days of summer we often think of slower days with less activities but the summers here at the parish are often filled with tasks put off during the year like construction and deferred maintenance projects, deep cleaning projects, waxing, repairs and preparing for the new program and school year. I am very grateful to our facility team who are working under difficult conditions to get it all done.

Last weekend, Fr. Tony mentioned how impressed he was with our Vacation Bible Camp and I echo those sentiments. It is a monumental (pun intended) effort to put on this Bible/Faith Formation Camp for kids in a quality way and especially since we did not have a year to plan. Due to the pandemic, we were uncertain if VBC would be possible but in addition, we were still under some restrictions that impacted volunteers. So a very big thank you to our student volunteers, who were amazing leaders for our campers, to our adult volunteers for their tireless preparation, and to our staff especially Maggie Rader who pulled off a miracle to say the least. We have been receiving wonderful feedback from parents about how this camp impacted their children in such a positive way.

Thank you to all our parishioners for your never ending support of this parish with your time, talent and treasure including smiles and the wonderful greetings before and after Mass. We are indeed a very special community!

GIFT BEARERS

The Liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the preparation of the gifts and the altar. As the ministers prepare the altar, representatives of the people bring forward the bread and wine that will become the Body and Blood of Christ. At least two people are needed for each Mass and families are welcome to bring up the gifts together. However, it doesn't need to be a special occasion. Representing the entire community as we come together to worship Eucharist is an honor and is open to anyone.

Gospel Reading

Luke 12:13-21

A person's life does not consist of possessions.

Family Connection

Family life helps us learn about the values of solidarity and the common good. As a family, we strive to respect the rights of each family member and make decisions that promote the common good of the family. Talk about what it would be like if the family ordered a pizza and then divided it unevenly, with some members getting as many pieces as they wanted while others got only a half slice. Talk about how you work to make sure that everyone in the family has his or her fair share.

Talk about how your family is also a member of the human family, called to share the goods of creation fairly and justly. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to remember that the goods of the world are intended to be shared by all. Read aloud Luke 12:13-21. Talk about the parable of the rich fool and ask family members to describe what they think he did wrong. Emphasize that although the man in the story doesn't seem bad, Jesus points out that this man's flaw was that he was thinking only about himself and his own comfort and security. Emphasize that when we fail to think about the needs of others, we call that a sin of omission.

Remind your children that each time we go to Mass, we ask forgiveness for what we have done and for what we have failed to do. We call this prayer the Confiteor. End this time together by praying the Confiteor ("I confess to almighty God...").

Youth and Campus Ministry

Danny Bailey 747-6770 Ext. 100

WELCOME DANNY BAILEY

We are happy to announce that Danny Bailey has accepted the position of Youth and Campus Minister at St. Madeleine Sophie.

As we noted at the beginning of the year, our long time youth minister, Ann LaBeck is stepping back from that ministry while continue to serve the parish as the Pastoral Assistant for Outreach and Social Justice and as the Contemporary Choir Director.

We are so very grateful to Ann for her 40+ years of service in the Archdiocese of Seattle, most of which she served here at this parish. We will have time to say thank you to Ann for her work in youth ministry sometime later this summer.

In the meantime, we welcome Danny who is an experienced youth minister, young adult minister and middle school teacher in the Archdiocese. Danny has most recently been a 7th grade math and religion teacher in a Catholic school and has helped form the Eastside Disciples group of young adults. Danny is also an accomplished musician and loves activities, sports, and most especially teaching our faith to young people.

Danny will take the month of July off to transition but will be on board in August. Danny is usually at all the Masses on Sunday so please stop and introduce yourself!

Question of the Week

July 31

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme: Faith helps us set Godly priorities.

Question for Children: What is the most important thing in your life?

Question for Youth: It is easy to get self-centered and greedy. What do you have in your life that is unnecessary? In your life, what keeps you close to God? What distracts you from your relationship with God?

Question for Adults: What wisdom do you pull out of this reading to help you set priorities in your life?

General Intercession for the parish: Let us pray that we may open our hearts to the Gospel today, allowing our faith to set the priorities of our lives.

Reflection for July 31, 2022

By: Ron Czarney — Whole Community Catechesis

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.”

Yes, I’m just like you. I get taken in by some of the headlines on the internet. The other day one of these headlines stated, “The richest billionaire in each state.” I couldn’t help myself, so I clicked on the headline to see who has all that money. We know, of course, who happens to be the richest person in the world (currently). It’s our neighbor right here in the Seattle area — Jeff Bezos — owner of Amazon. He’s worth — are you ready for this? — $172 billion dollars! That’s downright silly, isn’t it? What is Mr. Bezos going to do with all those billions of dollars? Hopefully — and I believe he is — he is using a lot of his fortune to help others in our world, just like Bill Gates and others American billionaires. But, that’s not my point. Let’s read today’s gospel to get Jesus’ point of view on the subject of worldly possessions.

Gospel Lk 12:13-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me.” He replied to him, “Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?”

Then he said to the crowd, “Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Then he told them a parable.

“There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, ‘What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?’ And he said, ‘This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, “Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!”’

But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.”

So, what about us mere mortals? What’s our story? To what extent are we influenced by greed for more material possessions? In our capitalistic society, we are focused on acquiring more wealth, more possessions, more status. In today’s gospel, Jesus reminds us that when we leave all of these things behind, we will be asked what spiritual riches we have accumulated. Yes, this parable is told as a warning against greed. But Luke’s theme carries a much deeper meaning, and that meaning is this: What are the ways in which we are “rich towards God?” How about you? Are you a billionaire in the spiritual aspect of focusing on God? There’s some food for thought. AMEN!

safeTALK: A Suicide Prevention Workshop for High School Youth

(Facilitated by high school youth)

Wednesday, August 10 | 9:30am – 1:30pm

Holy Family Parish, Kirkland

Please join us for safeTALK, a suicide intervention workshop led by high school youth who are part of the Archdiocese of Seattle's Catholic Lifesaver Corps.

How safeTALK works

Most people with thoughts of suicide don't want to die — instead, they are looking for a way to work through the pain in their lives. Through their words and actions, they usually invite others to help them in making a choice for life.

Who can attend?

For high school youth ages 14+

Goals and objectives

This four-hour suicide alertness training helps participants recognize a person with thoughts of suicide and connects them with resources to help them choose to live. Participants don't need any formal preparation to attend the training—anyone who wants to make a difference can learn the safeTALK steps. There will be scheduled breaks and opportunities to practice the skills built in the workshop, including practice on how to talk about this subject with others.
