COVID-19 PHASED REOPENING UPDATES

Per state guidance, the following is currently in effect:

- In-person Masses are suspended until further notice.
- Sunday Virtual Mass will continue to be available online.

'Drive-thru' Communion Reception Line

A "drive thru" communion line is offered each Sunday from 10:00-10:45 am. Please line up going south on Cloverly Avenue by car and turn into the church parking lot. PLEASE DO NOT PARK. We will stand and distribute communion to people in the car in the hand. Please wear a mask as we approach your car. Drive off safely through exit on Broadway.

'Drive-thru' Confessions

'Drive-thru' Confessions are offered at 1:00 pm on Saturdays. Please wear a mask and drive through the church parking lot where you will be directed through the back alley to approach one of the priests who will hear your brief confession from outside the passenger side of the car.

If there are multiple people in the car, the passenger/s may exit and stand at a safe distance and we will come to them after hearing the driver's confession. This is not a prolonged counseling moment: we want anybody who wants a brief confession following these months of lockdown to have the opportunity, so please be prepared and expedient. Please drive out safely the rear gate onto Live Oak Avenue.

Confessions will not be held on Saturday, Nov. 28.

Pastoral Office Hours

The Pastoral Office is now closed to the public until further notice; however, the office will continue to be staffed to receive phone calls, e-mails, and conduct parish business Monday-Friday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.

- Items can left in office mailbox; it's checked regularly.
- Please be reminded that the Chapel is still closed and no parish-related meetings, events or activities are being conducted on or off property at this time (Room reservations for activities are not being accepted at this time as well.).
- Parish buildings and grounds are closed to the public (staff and vendors excluded).
- There are no other sacraments that are being scheduled or performed at this time.
- Eucharistic Ministers should not visit the sick.

Thank you for your patience and understanding during this difficult time. Remember, while the doors of the church may be closed, our Church is never closed.

Join the Knights in Supporting Life

Knights of Columbus St. Luke Council 9128 has been awarded two Matching Grants toward the purchase of a state-of-the-art Ultrasound system for the Pregnancy Help Center of San Gabriel Valley. These Grants will essentially match three times the amount that we raise. For example, for every $100 that is donated, the leveraged amount gained will be $400.

As you know, both the Knights and St. Luke Parish have been supporting the Pregnancy Help Center for many years. Not only does the Center provide Ultrasounds to preserve life, it also provides many supplies to new families.

If you would like to make a donation toward the Ultrasound purchase, please make your check payable to "Knights of Columbus Council 9128" and mail to: St. Luke Council 9128, Knights of Columbus, PO Box 93, Temple City, CA 91780-0093.

This is a charitable donation, so you will receive a confirmation letter from the Center. Note: One of the requirements for the Grant is that the money needs to flow through the Council, this is why the checks need to be made payable to the council. If you have any questions, just drop us a letter to the above address and we will get back to you. -Fraternally, St. Luke Council 9128, Knights of Columbus

Father Mark's Corner

Today is the final Sunday of this liturgical year and next Sunday we begin the season of Advent. It will be different not being together; however, as we set up our parish Advent wreath this week, we encourage you to keep the liturgical season and celebration in your home church with family.

But today we celebrate the Solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. We celebrate a Lord of love who beckons us into this relationship and to go forth living lives of loving action.

We celebrate our shepherd king. His flock includes everyone, and his requirement of response is the simplest of services toward others: food and water, clothing and shelter, and care for the vulnerable. Our Christian journey is the sacrifice of our lives united in love with Christ in the service of our fellow journeyers.

We can focus on "end times" or we can focus on the here and now. Well, the here and now is HERE NOW...what are we doing with this time? Let it count!

The journey continues...on our final journey toward God.

Sunday Readings

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reading 1

Ez 34:11–12, 15–17

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly. As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 23:1–2, 2–3, 5–6

Response: (1) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reading 2

1 Cor 15:20–26, 28

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man.

For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mt 25:31–46

Jesus said to his disciples: “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.’

Then the righteous will answer him and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?’

And the king will say to them in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.’ Then he will say to those on his left, ‘Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.’

Then they will answer and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?’

He will answer them, ‘Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.’ And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.”

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Perhaps it is important to remember that while the image of Christ as King has been known throughout Christianity, this feast was founded in 1925 as a reaction and a response to growing secularism, communism, and atheism that were becoming prevalent after World War I. If we pull back the lens even further, we will remember that throughout history there has seldom been a peaceful time in the Christian world. The Holy Land itself has frequently been a battle ground. There have been schisms and divisions in the history of the church itself, and every church council was convened to try to correct some mistaken notion, world event, or church heresy. Nor has church leadership always had clean hands, and there have been wars, genocides, and insurrections “in the name of Christ.” Today, when more and more people are leaving organized religion altogether, and people identify themselves as “spiritual but not religious” or “nones,” the need for Christ as leader and ruler and guide is more pressing than ever.

INHERIT THE KINGDOM

The world in which we live is complex. We are a diverse, global society and there are many issues and opinions ranging from climate change to politics to creed. Sometimes we try and sort it all out, and it is hard to know who and what to believe. One can find multiple takes on the same news story, and social media can easily sway us. Yet when we focus on the Gospel story, it seems very simple indeed. We do not have to know it all or figure it all out. We are not the one on the throne during the Last Judgment. When God starts separating the sheep from the goats, the formula is a simple rule of thumb. “When did you see Christ in others? When did you respond accordingly?” It does not ask if you are Catholic or even Christian; whether you had a police record or an incurable disease; whether you had a PhD or a fifth-grade education, or what languages you spoke. The call is to remember that “Whatever you did to the least you did for me.” And then there will be the invitation, “Come you who are blessed. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.”

• SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN • DID YOU KNOW...

Keeping children safer online

While we continue to develop our understanding of the impact of Covid-19 and social distancing on child safety, we also know that more time online means increased risk of more direct access to children for those intending to harm them. From online enticement to sexting and sextortion, it is critical that we combine efforts to protect children from online risks.

The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children in partnership with the White House have launched a new campaign to raise awareness about safeguarding children online. Visit <https://safetypledge.org/> for more information and to learn about the tools available to help parents and other trusted adults keep children safer online.

VIRTUS REMINDER: If you have taken a VIRTUS class, a copy of the certificate needs to be turned in to the Pastoral Office so that your attendance is recorded. Classes are only good for four years. You must take a recertification class before the four years expire. If you know that you are not current in VIRTUS, the Pastoral Office has a list of classes being held in the area.
