Indoor (in-person) Masses are suspended until further notice.

Content Submission Deadline

Dec. 6 Bulletin:

Due Monday, Nov. 30

Please deliver submissions to the Pastoral Office or send to bulletineditor@stluketemplecity.org.

Please submit information by the Monday before the publication date; printed as space allows.

COVID-19 PHASED REOPENING UPDATES

Per state guidance, the following is currently in effect:

- In-person Masses are suspended until further notice.
- Sunday Virtual Mass will continue to be available online.

'Drive-thru' Communion Reception Line

A "drive thru" communion line is offered each Sunday from 10:00-10:45 am. Please line up going south on Cloverly Avenue by car and turn into the church parking lot. PLEASE DO NOT PARK. We will stand and distribute communion to people in the car in the hand. Please wear a mask as we approach your car. Drive off safely through exit on Broadway.

'Drive-thru' Confessions

'Drive-thru' Confessions are offered at 1:00 pm on Saturdays. Please wear a mask and drive through the church parking lot where you will be directed through the back alley to approach one of the priests who will hear your brief confession from outside the passenger side of the car.

If there are multiple people in the car, the passenger/s may exit and stand at a safe distance and we will come to them after hearing the driver's confession. This is not a prolonged counseling moment: we want anybody who wants a brief confession following these months of lockdown to have the opportunity, so please be prepared and expedient. Please drive out safely the rear gate onto Live Oak Avenue.

Pastoral Office Hours

The Pastoral Office is now closed to the public until further notice; however, the office will continue to be staffed to receive phone calls, e-mails, and conduct parish business Monday-Friday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.

- Items can left in office mailbox; it's checked regularly.
- Please be reminded that the Chapel is still closed and no parish-related meetings, events or activities are being conducted on or off property at this time (Room reservations for activities are not being accepted at this time as well.).
- Parish buildings and grounds are closed to the public (staff and vendors excluded).
- There are no other sacraments that are being scheduled or performed at this time.
- Eucharistic Ministers should not visit the sick.

Thank you for your patience and understanding during this difficult time.
Remember, while the doors of the church may be closed, our Church is never closed.

Father Mark's Corner

We enter the season of Advent being encouraged to be watchful in prayer. We are keeping watch not just for the news of the day but the spiritual discoveries that are taking place in our own journey. I have found that if there is anything to be harvested from this time of pandemic, it's the precious journey we have been given into our spiritual being.

God has given us the silence surrounding us to dim the noise of our typical, everyday lives. Unfortunately, we can find ourselves wasting this wonderful invitation to commune with the Divine, especially when our selfishness or anger gets in the way because things are not predictable or going our way.

In these difficult times, I try to remind myself to do more reflection. Advent will give us this opportunity, too, as we respond by being more watchful as we prepare our hearts with hopeful expectation. May God bless this precious time given us even though it is not what we prefer in terms of how we have always experienced this time of year.

Perhaps the greatest gift to ourselves this pandemic year is to prepare ourselves for what we have not experienced and to be open to something new and unpredictable. Grow in the Spirit may be the mantra of the faithful this year. Christ came into the world in an unexpected way, so may he come into your heart in an unpredictable and unexpected way this season.

Happy Advent!

The journey continues...wide awake.... keeping watch!

Join the Knights in Supporting Life

Knights of Columbus St. Luke Council 9128 has been awarded two Matching Grants toward the purchase of a state-of-the-art Ultrasound system for the Pregnancy Help Center of San Gabriel Valley. These Grants will essentially match three times the amount that we raise. For example, for every $100 that is donated, the leveraged amount gained will be $400.

As you know, both the Knights and St. Luke Parish have been supporting the Pregnancy Help Center for many years. Not only does the Center provide Ultrasounds to preserve life, it also provides many supplies to new families.

If you would like to make a donation toward the Ultrasound purchase, please make your check payable to "Knights of Columbus Council 9128" and mail to: St. Luke Council 9128, Knights of Columbus, PO Box 93, Temple City, CA 91780-0093.

This is a charitable donation, so you will receive a confirmation letter from the Center. Note: One of the requirements for the Grant is that the money needs to flow through the Council, this is why the checks need to be made payable to the council. If you have any questions, just drop us a letter to the above address and we will get back to you. -Fraternally, St. Luke Council 9128, Knights of Columbus

STEWARDSHIP NEWS

Continuing Your Weekly Offering

As we navigate through these unprecedented times we appreciate your continued support with your weekly offering for our parish operations. Please know your contribution is vital to our mission as a church. We have a small budget and need to continue paying our bills.

Contributions can be mailed to the Pastoral Office, dropped in the office mailbox, or contributed through our online giving program. Visit www.stluketemplecity.org for details.

You can call Vanco at 1-800-675-7430 Monday-Friday between 6:00 am and 4:00 pm to make your contribution as well (Our parish client ID is ES11182).

Please help spread the word to fellow parishioners who don't have Internet access about the options of mailing/dropping off contributions to the office or calling Vanco.

Thank you for your generous support!

Sunday Readings

First Sunday of Advent

Reading 1

IS 63:16B-17, 19B; 64:2-7

You, LORD, are our father, our redeemer you are named forever.
Why do you let us wander, O LORD, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not?

Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage.
Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before you, while you wrought awesome deeds we could not hope for, such as they had not heard of from of old.

No ear has ever heard, no eye ever seen, any God but you doing such deeds for those who wait for him. Would that you might meet us doing right, that we were mindful of you in our ways!

Behold, you are angry, and we are sinful; all of us have become like unclean people, all our good deeds are like polluted rags;
we have all withered like leaves, and our guilt carries us away like the wind.

There is none who calls upon your name, who rouses himself to cling to you; for you have hidden your face from us and have delivered us up to our guilt.

Yet, O LORD, you are our father; we are the clay and you the potter: we are all the work of your hands.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

PS 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19

Response: (4) Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved.

O shepherd of Israel, hearken, from your throne upon the cherubim, shine forth. Rouse your power, and come to save us.

Response: *Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and
we shall be saved.*

Once again, O LORD of hosts, look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine, and protect what your right hand has planted the son of man whom you yourself made strong.

Response: *Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and
we shall be saved.*

May your help be with the man of your right hand, with the son of man whom you yourself made strong. Then we will no more withdraw from you; give us new life, and we will call upon your name.

Response: Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved.

Reading II

1 COR 1:3-9

Brothers and sisters: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always on your account for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way, with all discourse and all knowledge, as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you, so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He will keep you firm to the end, irreproachable on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Gospel

MK 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples: "Be watchful! Be alert!
You do not know when the time will come.

It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch.

Watch, therefore; you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning.

May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'"

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hymn Number Changes

Dear Parishioners: As we continue our worship from the safety of home, we also continue to encourage you to join with us in song responsibly! As we are switching hymnals for the New calendar year (Music Issue 2021) and Missalettes for the New Liturgical season (Today's Missal), please be advised the change in numbers will also be reflected with the numbers for each hymn presented on the screen during virtual Mass! -Justin Senneff, Organist/Choir Director Lightshine Choir Hosts Weekly Virtual Scripture Study – Join Us!

The Lightshine Choir welcomes all parishioners to join the group for a weekly virtual scripture study on Thursdays, 7:00-8:30 pm. We will discuss the scriptures for the coming weekend via Zoom. If you would like to join the group, contact Choir Director Justin Senneff at senneffj@yahoo.com. We'll help you get set up with Zoom technology – it's easy! For those without computer cameras, Zoom also allows for anyone to "call" into the meeting via their regular telephone or cell phone.

Winter Warmth Project 2020

St. Luke Conference of St. Vincent de Paul will again provide hats, scarves, gloves, and socks to homeless and other needy recipients. Although this year's event will not be a fundraiser, parishioners will be given the opportunity to participate by writing messages of kind words.

YOUR WORDS OF KINDNESS WILL ALSO WARM THEIR HEARTS AND SOULS. These messages will be attached to the items as we have done in the past. Please email messages to svdpstluke@icloud.com. Or, written notes can be mailed to the Pastoral Office or dropped in the office mailbox by Monday, Nov. 30. Please make sure that you write "Winter Warmth" on the card /envelope and in the e-mail subject line.

Food Assistance Available for Parishioners in Need

Our St. Luke Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference wants our parishioners to know that food is available in our St. Luke Food Pantry if you are in need because of your inability to access food during the Covid-19 crisis.

Please call (626) 684-2914 and one of our SVdP members will make arrangements to deliver or have you safely pick up the food at the Pantry. In keeping with our Vincentian mission to assist those in need in our local community, our conference continues to provide financial assistance for rent, utilities, food and household items during the Covid-19 crisis. Thank you!

Mass and Prayer Intention Requests

Sunday Virtual Mass Intention requests can be made by calling the Pastoral Office at (626) 291-5900 or e-mail kerrin@stluketemplecity.org. Offerings greatly appreciated. Names also listed in the bulletin. If you would like to make a Sunday Prayer Intention for someone, you may do so online at www.stluketemplecity.org. These individuals will be remembered during the Virtual Mass and listed in the Parish Bulletin (Names will not be said during the Mass). Requests made by Wednesday of each week will be a part of the upcoming Sunday Virtual Mass, offered during the Prayer of the Faithful. A card is available at www.stluketemplecity.org for you to send to the person for whom you have requested a Mass or Prayer Intention.

Light a Devotional Prayer Candle Virtually

Parishioners are invited to have a candle lit in our church for someone for whom they would like to pray. The candles will be shown after our Virtual Sunday Mass each week so you may pray and reflect, just as you would do when you come to church. Offerings greatly appreciated. Candle requests by Wednesday will be lit for the upcoming Sunday Mass. Visit www.stluketemplecity.org to submit a request.

Advent Prayer

All-knowing God,
You know my inmost thoughts,
with all my ways you are familiar.
Give me a share of your wisdom, show me the truth of my being,
reveal to me the secrets of my own heart.
May I have the courage to look,
honestly and deeply,
at my efforts to control the direction of my life.
Help me to uncover both my strengths and weaknesses, to know and follow your will for me
each and every day of my life.

Amen.

First SUNDAY of Advent

November 29, 2020

Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before you, while you wrought awesome deeds we could not hope for, such as they had not heard of from of old.

Isaiah 63:19b; 64:2-3

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass © 2001, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970, CCB.

When Jesus does not speak in eloquent sentences, but barks out imperative statements such as in our Gospel reading today, one can understand the urgency. There is no place for flowery language. “Be watchful! Be alert!” One has a sense that these should be written in bold or all caps! He tells the parable of the homeowner leaving his workers at home, with no knowledge of when he would return. Without phones and texts and travel schedules it could have meant the homeowner was returning sometime in the day, or sometime in the coming month or year. So Jesus is not telling us, “You have to behave for a little bit,” but rather, “You must live your life and work like the homeowner is always here. You must always be prepared.”

WATCH!

This author was very aware of the language of “master/servant” in the Gospel today and is reading it and praying it in light of discussions on racism in recent months. Perhaps this goes with the last imperative at the end of the parable to “Watch!” This year has taught us to be alert in our actions such as social distancing, masks, and sanitizing, as well as in our language and even our thoughts. Now how do we apply that to our spirituality, to our faith? For many, due to restrictions on numbers in church, singing, and choirs, this has meant learning to pray in a whole different way. The celebration of liturgy is the same as ever, with its focus always on the Word and the Eucharist, but for those in the pew, or still watching on livestream, the sense of active participation has taken on a very different meaning from how most of us have experienced liturgy in our lifetime. It feels like we have become spectators rather than participants. Perhaps this challenge can move us from complacency in our faith, to rediscover and relate to God in new ways, and call us to be even stronger in our personal faith. We must remain diligent. We must “watch.” We must hope. We must love. We must pray.

• SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN • DID YOU KNOW...

The devastating effects of verbal abuse

A study by Florida State University found that children who were verbally abused are more likely to experience depression and anxiety. They are also twice as likely to suffer with mood and anxiety disorders throughout their lifetime.

Children who suffer such abuse can go on to repeat the same parenting styles they experienced thereby continuing the cycle of abuse. Pay attention to the language you and others use with your children. Breaking the chain of negative behaviors starts with positive, healthy parent-child relationships.
