Daily Mass is expected to resume on Monday, June 8, and Sunday Mass is expected to resume on Sunday, June 14. Other details to come on additional reopening plans.

Father Mark's Corner

Veni Creator Spiritus or Come, Holy Spirit is the “golden sequence” of prayer that precedes the Gospel today for the Feast of Pentecost. Pentecost, the Greek word for “fifty,” originally began as a celebration in thanksgiving for the first fruits when winter grains and vegetables were harvested and enjoyed. In the same way, Jesus Christ is the “first fruit” of those who have died even as His Resurrection heralds our own at the end of time. Until that time, we are gifted and empowered with the hope and promise found in the Holy Spirit, our Advocate.

We continue our journey of hope knowing that the Spirit transforms our anxieties and hopelessness into empowerment and action. The Spirit unifies us as the Body of Christ as we continue to be open to transformation in ourselves and others. The Spirit makes it possible to do the will of Christ in serving one another through forgiving, reconciliation and extending God’s loving care toward others. The daily crosses that seem so daunting when walking alone become possible through the unity of the Body of Christ working together to accomplish all in the name of Christ.

Today, we would have celebrated with our bishop the sacrament of Confirmation. Obviously, this did not occur. Our First Communions and Confirmations will take place sometime in the future. But, let us continue to pray for our young people who seek Christ in their lives, and may they be inspired by our faith and NOT condemned by it or oppressed by our teaching of it.

Faith is a journey and so we accompany those seeking by walking not ahead nor behind; but we walk by becoming the living example for others to be taught by. We do not brag by our actions nor draw attention to ourselves but to point to Christ. In so doing, we become less, and HE becomes more, and the lesson is conveyed that it is not about us...it is about HIM.

May the Holy Spirit continue to lead us who are humble enough to hear “his voice” and continue the journey by always pointing in His direction. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love.

PARISH COMMUNITY NEWS

Flat Luke Travels with Family Catechesis/Home Church

Our Family Catechesis/Home Church families were joined by a special guest during their Camino of Masses last year. Families had fun bringing Flat Luke to Mass with them as well as on family outings and after-school activities. As our families learned in their last lesson, we can be Jesus to everyone we meet. By our actions and our words, we can “put skin on” Jesus. Flat Luke encourages our Family Catechesis/Home Church families to reach out to their faith community during this time of COVID-19. Just as we wear a mask when in public, Flat Luke is wearing his mask.

These families wrote letters, drew pictures, and created collages to share with parishioners. If you would like to receive one of these creations, or know someone who would, please e-mail barbara@stluketemplecity.org or call (626) 291-5900 ext. 227.

Parishioners are invited to place Flat Luke (See p. 8) in their windows for your neighbors to see. You may have heard of similar gestures of community spirit, such as placing a teddy bear or rainbow in your window. Flat Luke reminds us, and your neighbors, that our St. Luke Community is praying for us all. Flat Luke says, "We're here. We're all connected. We're all going to get through this together. Even if, for the moment, we are apart." The journey continues...

Sunday Readings

Pentecost Sunday – Mass During the Day

Reading 1

Acts 2:1–11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, “Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God.”

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 104:1, 24, 29–30, 31, 34

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O LORD!
the earth is full of your creatures;

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme;

I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading 2

1 Cor 12:3b–7, 12–13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel

Jn 20:19–23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

St. Luke

When we put the Gospel in its context, John 20 starts with the empty tomb and the appearance to Mary Magdalene. Still, the disciples were scared and confused. They gathered together to regroup. They locked the door for fear of the Jews, whom they had just experienced as an angry mob, whom they had just seen crucify their friend Jesus. These disciples were afraid of the Jews, but they may also have been feeling guilty and confused for running away from Jesus at the cross, for hiding, for trying to protect themselves.

Now the risen Jesus comes to them saying, "Peace be with you," showing them his wounds, and greeting them again. Jesus is modeling something very powerful here. Most of us hate to be vulnerable. We try to hide our wounds and scars. We try to protect ourselves and show everybody that we have it together. In order to be healed, to receive the Spirit, to move on in our lives, we need to unlock our internal doors. We need to let Jesus into our house, into our hearts, and into those darkened corners of ourselves. It might be frightening. It might mean going to the sacrament of reconciliation or speaking with a spiritual director or even with a therapist.

RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

We often worry about how others will respond if we are less than perfect. Jesus knew the disciples were flawed humans. He did not get angry or give them a guilt trip. He said, "Peace be with you." He was gentle. Jesus gave them the gift of new life through a simple gesture. He breathed the Spirit into them. This is reminiscent of Genesis, when God breathed life into Adam, and Ezekiel, when God breathed life back into the dry bones. Jesus concluded with, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." So not only did Jesus entrust them with this role, this power, he first showed them how it is done. How do we in turn breathe life into our families and friends? Our coworkers? The stranger we meet?

• SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN • DID YOU KNOW...

Teach children how to explain inappropriate behavior

Statistics show that children may tell their story of abuse to adults as many as nine times before someone recognizes what is being disclosed and takes action. An important part of empowering children to protect themselves from abuse is giving them the right language to explain inappropriate or uncomfortable behaviors they may encounter.

A child who can describe what happened to make him feel violated or uneasy can much more easily communicate with trusted adults to stop a predator, or end a potentially dangerous situation.
