Father Mark's Corner

This has been an upsetting week for all of us. Just as we were beginning to emerge from our pandemic shutdown our country was thrown into tremendous civil unrest and rioting in response to the horrific death of George Floyd at the hands of peace officers.

These tough images were an ignition point for many who have experienced judgment, prejudice and racism perpetrated by those in positions of authority. Racism and prejudices are not something we are born with, but something learned. Racism and prejudice do not affect one color, but ALL colors.

As Christians we must do our own part to bring an end to the unjust treatment of anyone at the hands of another. As the saying goes: "There is ONLY one race, the HUMAN RACE." God is the Creator of all.

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, which points to the divine qualities that have been revealed by our Triune God: mercy, fidelity, love, grace and fellowship. These are qualities that are needed right now in our nation and across the globe.

These qualities of our God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit are to be emulated in our own relationship with one another as members of humanity and the Body of Christ since we come from God and are made His children. The hatred and violence we have witnessed this week has scared our spiritual soul. In the days and weeks ahead, there will be much rebuilding in our relationships with one another, just as we are able to repair our broken relationships with God.

May we have the courage to move away from the ugliness of hatred to the beauty of recognizing God calling us into an eternal love story as witnessed in the life of the Trinity. May we pray for those who have lost their lives and livelihoods in this past week of unrest. May we work to rid hatred and prejudice from our own hearts which weighs heavy upon our land. May Father, Son and Spirit embrace us in our journey and bring healing upon our human spirits and upon our beautiful country that offers so much.

We can all do better so let the Holy Trinity be our inspiration, hope and strength.

Sunday Readings

The Most Holy Trinity

Reading 1

Ex 34:4b–6, 8–9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets.

Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, “LORD.” Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, “The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.”

Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, “If I find favor with you, O LORD, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own.”

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Dn 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56

Response: (52b) Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever;
And blessed is your holy and glorious name,
praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

Response:. Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory,
praiseworthy and glorious above all forever.

Response: Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Response: Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you who look into the depths
from your throne upon the cherubim,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Response: Glory and praise for ever!

Reading 2

2 Cor 13:11–13

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel

Jn 3:16–18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass
© 2001, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970, CCO.

At moments in our lives we may wonder how we know who God is or what God is like. Today's readings help us to feel secure in placing our faith in God and being assured of God's unfailing love. When Moses went up the mountain as the Lord had commanded him, God powerfully described himself, "The Lord, the Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Jesus shows us the depths of this life of God. He came not to condemn the world but to save it. As people in relationship with God, we often fail. We walk away from God's ways, fall into sinfulness, and then, with the Lord's grace, come to our senses and return. God's words to Moses and the very life of Jesus show us that when we do so, we can still rely on God's mercy and kindness, because love is God's very nature.

CALLED TO BE LIKE GOD

We might consider this testimony to the life and love of God and think to ourselves, so what? Knowing that God loves us is reassuring, and may help us place our faith and trust in the Lord, but something more naturally follows—as followers of Jesus, we are called to become more like him. When others look at us, they should be able to say that we are "merciful and gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." This gets at the heart of what it means to be a Christian. Our daily decisions, words, and actions are to reflect the merciful graciousness of God. We are able to do this through the indwelling power and presence of the Holy Spirit. In what ways are you becoming more Christ-like? May the grace of the Lord, love of God, and fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you as you renew your commitment to show and share God's kindness to others!

• SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN • DID YOU KNOW...

Don't be afraid to talk about COVID-19 with your children

If possible, choose a time when your children are likely to want to talk, perhaps at dinner. Ask what they already know and what questions and concerns they have about COVID-19. Everyone reacts differently, but your children's questions can guide your discussion. Listen and answer their questions with facts in a way that they can understand. If you don't know the answer to a question, be honest. Let them know that there are a lot of rumors and false information and that you'll help them learn the facts.

Best places to learn about COVID-19 are the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO). For more tips, read "How to talk to your kids about COVID-19," at <https://www.mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/coronavirus/in-depth/kids-covid-19/art-20482508>.
