School is Beginning!

...and some of you are exclaiming, "yay!", and some, "oh, no!" Whichever the case may be, you will have an opportunity for learning. Take advantage of it! The things you learn now, and the way you study, will make a difference in your future. For those who already study well, congrats! For those who could do better, make the effort! (Or get any help you may need.) Your parents, other loved ones, and I want the very best for you in your lives. May school time help you reach this goal.

And don't forget to learn about your loving God, from church, the Bible, and people who are close to Him!

A request: would you (if you are over 18), or a parent or guardian, please email me with the correct grade your Server will be in this school year (2025-2026). Thanks. fatherfrank-oll@ourladyofthelakes.org.
