

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

June 3, 2023

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Exodus 4: 4-9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets.

Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, "LORD."

Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity."

Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company.

This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own." The Word of the Lord. . .

Thanks be to God!

Responsorial Psalm Daniel 3

Response: Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever; And blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages. R.

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory, praiseworthy and glorious above all forever. R.

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever. R.

Blessed are you who look into the depths from your throne upon the cherubim, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever. R.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13: 11-13

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The Word of the Lord. . . Thanks be to God!

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: John 3: 16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. The Gospel of the Lord. . . Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ!

Some Parish News and Improvements:

Home Improvements:

Insurance Status on School building: Since all building project are on hold until the close of the Seek the City Process, Fr. Paul has asked the archdiocese to change the assessment for the insurance on the school building. Currently we are insured to replace and Fr. Paul has changed the status to demolition. This simply means if a fire or any other catastrophic damage would be done to the school the insurance company would only provide for the demolition of the building. This change will save the parish $17,000.00 a year in insurance. This change takes effect August 1st.

- Thanks to your generosity Fr. Paul was able to install new flooring in the hallway outside the St. Augustine Room. ($850.00)
- Did you notice the new lighting in the sanctuary? Two spotlights we installed in the church to brighten up the sanctuary. ($1,500.00)
- Fr. Paul is looking into renovating the St. Augustine room with new wall paper, flooring and ceiling fans. Looking for a reasonable estimate. The St. Augustine Room is the only gathering space we have at this time and other than replacing the carpet every few years and a little painting nothing has been done.
- Another project down the pike is the side doors of the church going into the school parking lot. Those door are in need of replacement or some type of improvement.

A few improvements in the Sanctuary

Would anyone like to donate to add a few new sacred items to the sanctuary.

1. Two more large candle sticks (shown to the right) to add to the six that are used on the back altar for solemn celebrations. Each candle stick is $330.00 each.

2. A Brass Missal Stand (shown to the left) to hold the Missal off the Altar during the mass.

If you would like to help with the donation for any of these items please call Fr. Paul at 410-367-9918 or email at pastor@saintambrose.com. We will memorialize them if you would like?

Apology, Healing & Action

In response to the release of the Attorney General's report listing all the priests in the archdiocese over the past 80 years who have inflicted harm on our children Archbishop Lori has written a Pastoral Letter. The letter is entitled; Apology, Healing and Action: The Church's Work to Repair Sacred Trust. Fr. Paul has received 10 copies of the letter and they are available on the information table for those interested in the Archbishop's response.

Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. JUNE 11th, 2023

To celebrate the Feast of the Body & Blood (Corpus Christi) we have planned a few events to celebrate the day:

1. Holy Hour for Peace in our City and World at 8:45am to 9:45am with Rosary at 9:30am

2. Procession of the Blessed Sacrament after mass through the neighborhood. Weather permitting we will process out the front doors, then over Sumter, right on Pimlico, right on Wylie and right on Park Heights Ave. With all the violence in our city, all the death, drugs and violence we need to bring Jesus to the STREETS!

If not able to walk, please remain in church in prayer until the procession returns.

Mass Intentions

June 4, Mrs. Theresa Bayless, on her birthday, requested by her beloved daughter, Mrs. Norma Brooks-Perry.

June 11, Ms. Stephanie K. Augins, on the 11th anniversary of her passing, requested by her beloved aunts Ms. Faye Augins and Mrs. Shelley Tyler.

June 18, Mr. George Burris, on the 24th anniversary of his passing, requested by his beloved daughter, Mrs. Reva Stephens.

Friary Chapel: If you would like the friars to remember one of your intention at daily mass please use the envelopes on the info table and drop in the collection basket.

Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord and let your perpetual light shine upon them, may their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace, Amen
