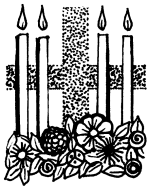
MONTH OF NOVEMBER

Book of the Dead — Feast of All Souls



As has become our tradition at Saint Charles, throughout the month of November, we will be displaying the Book of the Names of the Dead in the area of the Holy Family Shrine in the church. Following the 8:00 AM All Saints Day Mass *(*not a holy day of obligation this year), you are invited to begin inscribing within the book, names of any and all deceased loved ones you wish others to remember in prayer. Because November 2*, the* Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed *(All Souls' Day) falls on a Sunday this year, a separate celebration commemorating the deceased buried from the parish within the past year does not occur. Their names, however, will be prominently displayed in the area of the Holy Family Shrine.*

Daylight Savings Time 2014 ends next Saturday, November 2*, in the wee hours of the morning. So turn your clocks and watches* BACK one hour before you go to bed next Saturday. If not, you will be in for a big surprise when you come to Mass on Sunday morning!

Because November 1, the Solemnity of All Saints*, falls on a Saturday this year, there is* no holyday obligation to attend Mass. However, for those who wish to mark the day in a special way, there will be an All Saints Day Mass on Saturday, November 1, at 8:00am.

November 2, All Souls Day, falls on next Sunday. There will be an All Souls Day Evening Prayer Service at 4:00pm in church next Sunday. Please remember to enroll the names of your beloved deceased in the "Book of the Dead" by the Holy Family Shrine in church. The Poor Souls are remembered at Mass each day during November. A weekly Poor Souls Mass is offered during all the other months of the year.

The Youth Group will sponsor a Pancake Breakfast in the Lower Parish Hall next Sunday, November 2, after the 7:30, 9:00, and 10:30am Masses. The Youth Group is planning to attend 2016 World Youth Day scheduled for Krakow in Poland.

St Charles Day, Tuesday, November 4, is also Election Day this year. Educate yourself on the candidates and their positions and remember to vote!

I have long made it a parish custom to invite trick-or-treaters to stop by the Parish Office on Halloween. We will all be there this Friday, October 31*, from* 6:00 until 8:00pm. We have quite a store of goodies and we want to give them all away. Father Terry is in charge of this year's "Halloween theme." We are all anxious to see what he comes up with! See you on Halloween!

St Charles Annual Canned Food Drive begins next week and continues through November until Thanksgiving Day. Not only does this Canned Food Drive provide for our St Vincent de Paul Emergency Food Cupboard here at St Charles, but we also stock Our Lady's Kitchen at our sister parish, Our Lady of Peace in inner-city Cleveland. Last year we also helped some local Parma food pantries, thanks to your generosity. The last six years have been a particularly difficult time for so many. A large number of people depend upon your help. Remember the Lord's words in the Gospel, "when you feed the hungry, you feed Me!"

As in years past, please bring your canned goods and paper products to Mass on the weekend or at any time during the week. Leave your items in the church/hall lobbies. However, on Thanksgiving Day at the 9:00am Mass, bring your gifts forward at Offertory time. If your place of employment, or groups to which you or your children belong, collect canned goods at this time of year, we would be happy to receive them and get them to where they are needed.

Here are the items we need to feed the families who depend on us: canned dinners, canned meats, corn, green beans, canned fruits, baked beans, soups, peanut butter/jellies, rice, spaghetti sauce, pasta, macaroni/cheese, gravy, ketchup, sugar, cake mixes, frosting, cereals, pancake mix/syrup. We also need toothpaste, shampoo, bar soaps, Kleenex, toilet paper, paper towels, laundry detergent.

THE SERRA WEST CLUB IS SEEKING NEW MEMBERS

For over sixty years, the Serra Clubs of the Diocese of Cleveland have promoted and affirmed religious and priestly vocations as have approximately 20,000 other lay Catholic women and men worldwide in 1100 Serra Clubs in 37 countries. Serra West, under the patronage of the 18th century Franciscan missionary, Blessed Juniper Serra, has expanded to the southwest suburbs of greater Cleveland and will hold a Mass at 5:30 p.m. at St. Basil the Great Church on Tuesday, November 4th. The Mass will be followed by a meeting including an outstanding speaker. Typically, Serrans meet once a month for a total of two hours. All are welcome on November 4th. Further information can be obtained by calling a Serran at 216-291-2319 or 216-561-3087, or by contacting Fr. Michael P. McCandless or Mary Avenoso in the Diocesan Vocation Office at 440-943-7600.

What's the Smoke For? and other burning questions about the liturgy

The Reception of Holy Communion

PART 1 of 2

Fr. Terry Grachanin

Back in August, after several comments were noted from parishioners regarding the use of incense at particular liturgies, I offered a column of catechesis, indicating reasons for the Church's use and its regard for this ancient liturgical action and sign. Whether or not you prefer the use of incense, the column was very well received (by each opposing side). In that same spirit, given a concentrated background in liturgy, I hope to offer similar catechesis on several aspects of our faith and worship — "why we do, what we do."

Human nature has proven, as creatures of habit, we can, at times, lose a sense of intentionality concerning anything we do with great repetition, and our reception of Holy Communion is no exception.

A Muslim man, struck by the seeming indifference he witnessed Catholics receive Holy Communion, once approached a Catholic friend, asking him if he really believed that the Host was God Himself. The Catholic responded, "yes, of course." The Muslim paused for a moment, thinking it over. "If I believed that was truly Allah, then I would crawl up on my hands and knees, bowing my head to receive Him."

This "outsider's" observation is remarkable, and should cause each of us to reown a sense of attentiveness as to what, and how, and Whom we are receiving.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal asks each country's Conference of Bishops to determine the posture to be used for the reception of Communion and the act of reverence to be made by each person as he or she receives Communion. In the United States, the body of Bishops determined that Communion should be received standing, and that a bow of the head is the act of reverence made by those receiving. These norms may require some adjustment on the part of those who have been used to other practices; however, the significance of unity in posture and gesture as a symbol of our unity as members of the one body of Christ should be the governing factor in our own actions.

Those who receive Communion may receive either in the hand or on the tongue, and the decision should be that of the individual receiving, not of the person distributing Communion.

If Communion is received in the hand, the hands should, first of all, be clean. If one is right-handed the left hand should rest upon the right so that the communicant receives with his or her dominant hand. The Host will then be laid in the open palm of the left hand and then taken by the right hand to the mouth. If one is left-handed, this is reversed. It is not appropriate to reach out with the fingers and take the host from the person distributing. We do not take gifts when they are offered, we receive them. Flat and open hands should be presented, and raised (to the degree that one is able) and not deliberately lowered, cupped, and half-closed. A communicant's intention as to how they wish to receive, whether on the hand or upon the tongue, ought to be made plainly known.

To each person approaching, the minister distributing Communion says, "The Body of Christ," nothing more and nothing less. This formula should not be altered, as it is a proclamation which calls for a response of faith on the part of the one who receives. The communicant should audibly respond, "Amen," and not before the minister has finished the proclamation, "The Body of Christ." The communicant's "Amen" not only indicates his or her belief that this small wafer of bread and the wine in this chalice are in reality the Body and Blood of Christ, but that they themselves are a member of the body of Christ.

When one receives from the chalice, the same proclamation is made by the minister distributing Communion, "The Blood of Christ." Again, the response is given: "Amen." It is never permissible for a person to dip the Host he or she has received into the chalice (intinction). If, for some reason, the communicant is not able or willing to drink from the cup, then that person should receive only under the form of bread. Whether or not a communicant receives only the Host or only the Precious Blood, he or she has fully received the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Christ. However, just as it would be rare not to be offered something to drink at a formal meal in someone's home, Holy Communion received under both forms remains a fuller sign.
