LADIES GUILD DAY OF RECOLLECTION

Monday, February 16th

(President's Day)

WOW! Something free and yet very rewarding...

Our Day of Recollection will be Monday, February 16th. The day begins with 8:30am Mass, then over to the Lower Parish Hall for a complimentary continental breakfast. Please bring a brown bag lunch. Father Ed Suszynski, Jr., will be our speaker for this event. His topic will be "Let Yourself Be Seen & Your Light Shine" Vulnerability: Our Greatest Strength.

We are so lucky to have Fr. Ed back with us to speak at our Day of Recollection. Please ask your friends, relatives and neighbors to come and hear him. The day will end with Benediction at 2:30pm in the church.

What a way to start and end the day by praying with our friends! And, yes, it is FREE!

St Charles Borromeo School invites you to the Open House this Sunday, January 25, from 11:30am to 1:30pm. This activity will inaugurate Catholic Schools Week 2015. Although all are welcome, consider this a special invitation to parents of pre-schoolers, kindergarteners, or children in grades one through six. Please share this Open House information with family, friends, or neighbors.

Here's a unique way to look at it: What's the cost of a St Charles School education? Just $2.50 per hour! That's a great deal! Re-registration forms for those currently enrolled at St Charles must be returned by the end of the week.

Let me put in a final plug for next Saturday's Polish Dinner. Our Youth Group invites you to share an excellent meal at a reasonable price. Let's make this a great success:

Polish Dinner

Saturday, January 31

5:00 till 8:00pm

Corrigan Gym

Proceeds will send our teens to 2016 World Day

Check the ad in this bulletin for details. Advance tickets are a must, so stop at the Parish Office after Mass today or early this week.

Our Parish Pastoral Staff meets together on the first and third Monday of the month. We try to coordinate various parish ministries and activities and keep each other up-to-date on what is happening and what is planned.

Last week, after consultations and discussion, the Staff agreed to contract for two apps: one for the parish and one for the school. Those two apps are now being "put together." The work is estimated to take about six weeks. So expect to welcome a new step forward for St Charles based on the latest technology. More on this as the "inaugural date" approaches.

What's in the mail bag? Here are some nice words from Maggie's Place—Zechariah House, the Parma shelter for pregnant women, new moms, and infants, thanking you for your Advent Tree gifts:

"We are so thankful for your generosity this Christmas. St Charles Parish has a huge heart. It was an overwhelming experience of joy at the House when we received your abundance of gifts. We are so grateful!"

--The Women and Babies of Zechariah House

The Parish Business Office is preparing 2014 end-of-the-year contribution statements. Those should be on their way to you within the next few days.

“NO COST” ANNULMENTS

Older folks remember that once a couple married in the Catholic Church and lived together, the marital bond was in place "till death we do part." In the last forty years, the Church has come to recognize that some marriages were just "not right" from the beginning. When a marriage breaks up and the civil divorce is final, marriages can be considered for a church annulment.

Unfortunately, there are lots of rumors and poor information when it comes to annulments: "it takes years" or "thousands of dollars" are required. In truth, most cases are decided within a year and the suggested marriage tribunal fee was $450; and that fee could be waived for those in financial difficulty. That tribunal fee did not "buy an annulment" but it did help to pay for tribunal salaries and expenses.

On May 30th, Bishop Lennon announced a new policy for the Diocese of Cleveland: all annulment cases will now be accepted and processed free of any charge. The Diocese of Cleveland will fully subsidize the work of the diocesan marriage tribunal. This new policy is effective immediately.

The form of Catholic marriage is free consent given before a priest/deacon and two witnesses. For those who require an annulment from a former marriage, please contact the priest/deacon of your choice and he will help you prepare and file your case—now free of charge!

Yes... we do ABC's and numbers, Religion and Science, but we believe in teaching the WHOLE child, so there's always room for art, music, large and small muscle activities, snack, story, and most especially... FUN!

We'd love to share our program with you! Join us for Open House on Sunday, January 25th, 2015 from 11:30 am- 1:30. Take a look at our classroom and meet the teachers. We can't wait to meet you! Applications are available in our school office and on our parish website.
