ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Sunday, May 17th – 12:00 Noon Mass

St. Charles Parish with the assistance of our Worship Commission are planning a Mass of Anointing on Sunday, May 17th at the 12:00 Noon Mass. Who do we anoint in this Sacrament? The anointing of the sick is used in three types of situations: 1) For people who are going in for surgery. 2) For people who are suffering from chronic pain or illness. 3) The person who is near death or the person who is about to die at any moment. As we have in the past, we ask that anyone who wishes to attend this celebration call the Parish Office (440)884-3030.

Last week, Kevin Klonowski, a lifelong member of St Charles Parish, was officially called to ordination by Bishop Lennon in an Admission to Candidacy Ceremony at St Mary Seminary. I was privileged to attend that ceremony, along with Kevin's family. Kevin is on schedule to be ordained a deacon in October with ordination to the priesthood and then a First Mass at St Charles in May of 2016.

Speaking of vocations, one of the priestly responsibilities that I particularly enjoy is serving as a field education supervisor for seminarians assigned to the parish. I was first asked to do this work in 1981. For thirty-four years, it has been my privilege to minister with a number of outstanding young men on their way to the priesthood. St Charles Parish has benefitted as well from the seminarians' time with us. I remain in contact with those who were ordained, many of whom are now pastors! They serve the Diocese of Cleveland faithfully and honorably.

Seminarians in their third year of theology studies at Cleveland St Mary Seminary are expected to spend eight months in a parish. This is called their internship year. From September of 2015 until the end of April 2016, we will host Matthew Cortnick for his year of internship. Matt is from St John Vianney Parish in Mentor. I have asked three couples from the parish to serve as a Laity Formation Board for Matt: Adam & Melissa Gecewich, Tom & Linda Michalakes, Rich & Diane Liptak. That Board will give Matt honest feedback on his ministry here and they will also report their observations and opinions to the Seminary officials.

You will hear more about Matthew Cortnick—and what he will be doing—as the day of his September arrival draws near.

Today is Polish Constitution Day. There will be a day-long celebration here in Parma's "Polish Village." The festivities begin with our Sunday 10:30am Mass. Father Gary Chmura--born, raised, and educated at St John Cantius Parish in the Tremont area--will be our celebrant and homilist.

Four parishioners were nominated for the four open seats on Parish Council for the 2015-2018 term, so no election is required this year. Thank you and welcome to our new Parish Council members: Ed Ibos, Ken Jakubowski, Michael Mallis, Rich Swaggard.

Ninety second graders received their First Communion at the 10:00am and 12Noon Masses on Saturday morning. Six more students--in our Special Education Program--will receive First Communion on Wednesday, May 6, at the 7:00pm Mass. My mother never tired of reminding me that "If you have the First Communion Class praying for you, you will have no troubles." My Mom was right. Congratulations to this year's First Communicants and thank you to the teachers and to the administrators in our education programs.

Some weeks back I asked if there were any parishioners interested in helping to provide a Thanksgiving Day Meal for the lonely, the homeless, and the needy. Thus far I have heard from sixty parishioners! (Thank you!) This Thanksgiving Meal would be a cooperative effort among the Parma Catholic parishes. The Meal site would be at St John Bosco Parish on Pearl Road in Parma Heights. Interested in helping? Leave your name at our Parish Office (440-884-3030) or "stop by" the Office and "sign in, please!"

Another Word from Father Carlin:

The Second Vatican Council, held from 1962 to 1965, called for a restoration of the permanent diaconate. Prior to the Council--for many centuries--the order of deacon had been one step on the road to the priesthood. The Second Vatican Council called for a return to the early practice of the Church: the diaconate would stand as a separate order and it would be open to married men.

Each diocese introduced the permanent diaconate in its own way. Some dioceses quickly ordained dozens of deacons; other dioceses proceeded at a slower rate. The first deacon in Cleveland was an African-American, Joseph Newman, around 1970.

The Cleveland Permanent Diaconate Program was established in the early 1970's. When I was in the seminary, those studying for the diaconate took classes on Wednesday evenings and on Saturday mornings. After three years of training and education, the Diocese began ordaining--about six deacons per year. A few years back, Bishop Lennon revamped the diaconate program and it now calls for five years of study and formation.

So the "permanent diaconate," as we know it now, is less than fifty years old. That's not so long in a two thousand year old Church! It is fair to say that today's permanent deacons are true pioneers. They are staking out new territory in the Church; who knows what they will eventually be called upon to do.

Deacons are ordained, just like priests and bishops. By virtue of their office, deacons can preach, assist at the altar, perform baptisms, and witness marriages. Beyond that, a deacon's ministry is what he makes of it. In the Cleveland Diocese, there are deacons who are chaplains, who serve in prisons, and some run large social service organizations. Permanent deacons come from all walks of life: business men, police officers, construction workers—with both blue collar and white collar backgrounds.

At St Charles, we have been blessed for thirty-two years with the diaconal ministry of John Talerico. Deacon John's "day job" is serving as a surgical assistant. He is a family man: a husband, father, and grandfather. He is frequently seen at the Sunday 12:00Noon Mass. Deacon John also conducts our Pre-baptism parent class on the first Wednesday of the month. He is available for all major liturgical ceremonies, baptizes on the regular schedule, and preaches when called upon. He brings a unique vision—given his background—to his diaconal work. We are all richer because of him.

Dan Galla also serves us as a permanent deacon. He and his classmates will celebrate the tenth anniversary of their ordination this Tuesday, May 5, with a 7:00pm Mass at St Basil the Great Church on Route 21 in Brecksville. Deacon Dan is a married man. His "regular job?" He is a theology teacher at St Ignatius High School. Deacon Dan is most often seen at the Sunday 9:00am Mass. He also works closely with the RCIA program. Like Deacon John, he is called upon for marriage, to preach, and to baptize. Deacon Dan also has some diocesan responsibilities.

This tribute has been long time coming. Thank you Deacon John and happy tenth anniversary to Deacon Dan.

33 DAYS TO MORNING GLORY

Over 50 parishioners made the Marian Consecration on the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord on March 25, 2015. We continue to pray for their self-giving of themselves to Jesus through Mary by their daily surrender to God and His Will. The second parish-wide consecration will be on the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Saturday, June 13, 2015. The beginning date for this Marian Consecration begins on Monday,

May 11, 2015. Come and join over twenty fellow parishioners who have already pledged to participate in the parish-wide consecration. The 33 Days to Morning Glory books are available in the Parish Office, at $5.00 a book, for you to begin this consecration. For those who have chosen to consecrate themselves on Wednesday, May 13, 2015, Our Lady of Fatima, you may pick up your consecration certificate in the parish office and make your consecration anytime during the day. Some have chosen to make their consecration after attending a Mass on the day of consecration. Whatever you chose, make sure to pick-up your consecration certificate in the parish office.

FIRST STEP PROGRAM

Continuing education regarding marriage and divorce in the Catholic Church

Do you want to:

- Deepen your knowledge of the Church's teaching on marriage?
- Learn about ministry to the divorced/separated in the Diocese of Cleveland?
- Hear the true facts about the annulment process and how to submit a case?
- Discover a path to healing after divorce?

The schedule for the general meetings in 2015 is:

Tuesday, May 12	7:00pm	St. Gabriel Parish, Concord
Tuesday, Sept 15	7:00pm	Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, Cuyahoga Falls
Tuesday, Oct 13	7:00pm	St. Ambrose Parish, Brunswick

In any endeavor, taking the "first step" is always the most difficult. The First Step Program helps individuals to navigate the path of healing and closure, of which the annulment process is an important aspect. Please refer to the Tribunal website (www.dioceseofcleveland.org/tribunal) for testimonials about the program from past participants.

Note that the Diocese of Cleveland no longer requires any fees for this process.

We encourage everyone to....Come to heal...Come to learn...Come open to the spirit... For more information, check our website: www.dioceseofcleveland.org — or call the Tribunal: (216)696-6525/800-869-6525, ext. 4000.

GUIDE BOOK & DIRECTORY ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the Parish. This book will be the Who, What, Where, When, Why and How of our Congregation. The book is being provided at no cost to our Church, including the mailing to each family, and again is being subsidized by local businesses that advertise in it. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Parish Office (440)884-3030.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.
