The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of The Blessed Virgin Mary

(A Holy Day of Obligation)

HOLY DAY MASSES

Monday, December 9

7:00am, 10:00am, 7:00pm

In addition to Thanksgiving weekend, this is also the First Sunday of Advent, the number-one day of a New Year in the Church's liturgical life. So we will light the first candle on our Advent wreath.

To assist you in your Christmas preparations, we will offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confessions) after all Advent weekend Masses and on all Mondays of Advent 7:30pm to 8:30pm.

December 8 is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. However, December 8 this year falls on the Second Sunday of Advent. Therefore, the Holyday of Obligation is transferred to Monday,

December 9. For your convenience, we will offer three Masses on that "December 9 holyday" a week from this Monday:

7:00am 10:00am 7:00pm

Under the title of the Immaculate Conception, the Blessed Mother is the patroness of the United States. The first "ceiling saint" in our church, on the left, nearest the sanctuary, honors Mary under that title. And what are the colors of that painting? Why, our national colors: "red, white, and blue" of course!

At this time of the year, many parishioners contact me and ask what they can do to "make it a good Christmas" for someone or for a family in need. Many years ago, we developed the Advent Giving Tree and we annually select four organizations that honor the sanctity of life from cradle to grave.

This Advent 2024, we will help Providence House (crisis and emergency shelter for newborns to five-year-olds), Edna House (assists women recovering from addictions), West Side Catholic Center (food, clothing, advocacy for the poor and homeless), Malachi House (for the dying homeless).

You are asked to make all donations in the form of Gift Cards. Please leave those cards at the Parish Office and NOT in the church or lobbies.

Please check the detailed information on the St. Charles Borromeo 2024 Advent Giving Tree article found in this bulletin.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was our nation's President during the Second World War. He proclaimed that the war aims of the United States were four in number. Our country was committed to fighting for the Four Freedoms: Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Worship, Freedom from Want, and Freedom from Fear.

The great American painter and illustrator of American culture, Norman Rockwell, portrayed each freedom in his unique style. Those Four Freedoms posters were symbolic of our nation's great struggle eighty years ago. November's Veterans' Day reminds us that the Greatest Generation, who brought us through those war years, is quickly disappearing. Of the 16,000,000 who served our nation in uniform during World War II, 15,760,00 have already heard Taps for the final time. Only 240,000 World War II veterans are still living—none of them younger than their late nineties. But those Four Freedoms—and the hope for their fulfillment in our time and place—should not be forgotten.

This Thanksgiving weekend 2024 as well as a new year in the Church's life reminds us there is much work yet to be done: those in want must be fed, those oppressed must be freed to speak out, all should be permitted to worship in their own way, and those who live in fear should be consoled. The Four Freedoms might be called a modern-day Four Beatitudes.

This Wednesday, December 4 from 7:30 till 8:15pm, join parish artist Sarah Liptak in church for a detailed explanation of the symbolism and meaning of our newly renovated Blessed Mother and Holy Family shrines.

Please remember to purchase your weekly "gas and groceries" and do your holiday shopping with St. Charles Gift Cards. Just stop by the Parish Office after Mass or during the week on your way to the store.

You will find a December Parish Activities Calendar included in this bulletin. Please keep it for handy reference about the many good things happening here at St. Charles during the upcoming month. Make a note of the special schedules for Immaculate Conception, Christmas, and New Year's Day Masses.

P.S. Those St. Charles 2025 Calendars, a Christmas gift to you, should soon reach your home in the mail. Let me know what you think!

COUNSELING

A REFLECTION FROM LUKE BROWN, LPCC

Here we are, the first Sunday of Advent! In the past, I have written about treating Advent like Lent in that it is good to participate in fasting and thanksgiving as we prepare for the birth of Christ. This week, I thought it would be good to reflect on why we participate in these practices as Catholics. In the Gospel this weekend, Jesus tells us to beware of our hearts becoming drowsy and getting caught up in the anxieties of life. The etymology of the word vigilance is "keeping awake" and is a difficult discipline to keep every day. When Easter comes, I often feel closer to the Lord because of the sacrifices and prayer practices I dedicated myself to during the season of Lent. As the months go on, I find myself slipping back into old habits and getting caught up in daily worries about when the grass needs mowed, how much is in my retirement account, and how little I have been exercising. While these things are important, they can cloud our highest calling and priority as Catholics which is to pray and "keep awake" for Christ. I will be the first to say that this is a difficult task—there are countless distractions in the world right now. Peter fell asleep in the garden with Jesus—we are going to fail at keeping awake too. Frequently revisiting these parts of our life helps us to balance our focus between serving God, others, and ourselves, which is a great tool for improving our mental health. If this resonates with you, consider making a habit out of revisiting your prayer routine regularly to remain vigilant in your pursuit of Heaven and of Christ.
