The Most Holy Trinity

Biblical Roots of the Trinity

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

La Santísima Trinidad

Raíces Bíblicas de la Trinidad

Las lecturas de hoy muestran algunas raíces bíblicas de lo que los cristianos llamarían más adelante la Trinidad. El libro de los Proverbios muestra el papel de la Sabiduría en la obra de la creación, descrita como una realidad ajena a Dios, pero integrada en la obra de Dios de formar los cielos y la tierra. Nos unimos al salmista para compartir el deleite de la Sabiduría en la obra de Dios: "Oh Señor, nuestro Dios, qué maravilloso es tu nombre en toda la tierra" (Salmo 8:2). En su carta a los romanos, Pablo escribe sobre la paz con Dios por medio de Jesús, y el amor de Dios que se recibe por medio del Espíritu Santo, lo que distingue a Dios, a Jesús y al Espíritu Santo, aunque también muestran su permanente unidad. Por último, en el discurso de despedida del Evangelio de Juan, Jesús -que antes había hablado de sí mismo como el Hijo del Padre- promete a sus amigos que recibirán el Espíritu de la verdad que les enseñará y guiará después de que él se vaya.

The Pontifical Mission Societies will be celebrating big in 2022

This year marks the 100 anniversary that the four societies; The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, The Missionary Childhood Association, The Society of St. Peter Apostle, and The Missionary Union of Priests and Religious each received their title of “Pontifical.” In 1922, their central administration was transferred to Rome to assist the Pope in his outreach to the missions.

In addition, 2022, marks the 150 year anniversary of the birth of blessed Paolo Manna, founder of the Missionary Union of Priests and Religious, who was born on January 16, 1872 in Avellino, Italy. The spiritual apostolate that he founded continues to address itself today to those called to bring Catholics to a better understanding of their baptismal responsibility for the church’s missionary work.

Most notably, 2022 is a huge year for Pauline Jaricot, the foundress of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. In 1822, Pauline initiated efforts for the very first collection which supported the vast diocese of Louisiana, encompassing Florida Keys to Canada, as well as the missions of Kentucky and China. Pauline will be beatified in Lyon, France on May 22, 2022.

The poster is for Camp Savio, featuring a bright blue sky with white clouds and colorful triangular bunting flags. A large yellow sun is in the center. On the left, there's a cartoon illustration of a giraffe, a toucan, and an elephant on a log, with a dolphin and a seahorse in the water below. The text 'Camp Savio 2022' and 'Wildin' Out' is integrated into the illustration. A compass rose is on the right. The main title 'Camp Savio' is in large orange letters, and 'Registration Available' is in white letters on the yellow sun. A text box in the middle provides details about the camp. Below this, a list of activities is shown. At the bottom, there are illustrations of children painting, jumping rope, and sitting in a circle, with a green speech bubble indicating the age group. The bottom right corner repeats the contact information.

Safeguarding the Children

Did you know?

Review boating safety measures before going on family vacation

If your family is planning a beach or lake vacation, it is time to review a few simple boating safety measures. Discuss these rules with your family before you go out on the water so everyone knows what is expected. Everyone should wear life jackets that fit them safely. Children should also be monitored for any signs of hypothermia, especially after playing in the water. Keep dry blankets, towels, and extra clothes on hand to change into if children are too cold. Parents should learn or refresh basic CPR and water rescue skills before vacation. For more tips, visit https://www.safekids.org/safetytips/field_risks/boating.

Revise medidas de seguridad de navegación en barco antes de ir de vacaciones en familia

Si su familia está planeando unas vacaciones en la playa o en un lago, es hora de revisar algunas medidas simples de seguridad para navegar en barco. Discuta estas reglas con su familia antes de salir al agua para que todos sepan lo que se espera. Todos deben usar chalecos salvavidas que les queden bien ajustadas. Los niños también deben ser monitoreados por cualquier signo de hipotermia, especialmente después de jugar en el agua. Tenga a mano mantas secas, toallas y ropa adicional para cambiarse si los niños tienen demasiado frío. Los padres de familia deben aprender o refrescar las habilidades básicas de resucitación cardiopulmonar y rescate acuático antes de las vacaciones. Para obtener más consejos, visite https://www.safekids.org/safetytips/field_risks/boating.
