Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom

We consider wisdom today. The first reading from the book of Wisdom presents this precious gift as a feminine spirit, a very desirable virtue sought by many and graciously present to all who seek her. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to illustrate wisdom in a practical, measurable way. The wise will conserve their resources, use them prudently, and mark the passing of time. The foolish, on the other hand, not planning ahead, will be in the dark. Both of these readings tell us how accessible wisdom is to all who simply and honestly seek it.

Paul's words to the Thessalonians are not about wisdom, but describe one result of true wisdom: To the wise person of faith even death holds no terror. Our faith in Jesus' resurrection tells us we will all one day rise to new life in Christ.

Trigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La Sabidura

Nuestra tema de hoy es la sabiduría. La primera lectura del Libro de la Sabiduría presenta este valioso regalo como un espíritu femenino, una virtud muy deseable buscada por muchos y posible, por la gracia de Dios, para todos los que la buscan. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús relata una parábola para ilustrar de una manera práctica y concreta qué es la sabiduría. Los sabios conservan sus recursos, los usan prudentemente, con atención al paso del tiempo. Los tontos, por otro lado, por no planear su futuro, quedarán en la oscuridad. Las dos lecturas indican lo accesible que es la sabiduría a todos los que la buscan de manera sencilla y sincera. Las palabras de Pablo no tocan directamente el tema de la sabiduría, pero describen un resultado de la verdadera sabiduría: A la persona sabia de fe ni la muerte le asusta, porque nuestra fe en la resurrección de Jesús nos dice que todos vamos a despertar a una vida nueva en Cristo.

Safeguarding the Children

Did you know?

What happens if an adult fails to report abuse?

A child's disclosure of abuse must always be taken seriously and handled properly by mandated reporters, teachers, and all trusted adults. The duty to report abuse is the ethically responsible action to take.

Failure to report could result in repeated offenses, more severe abuse, and other victims being exposed to a predator. For more information on the importance of reporting abuse, read the VIRTUS® article "The Consequences of Failing to Report Child Maltreatment: The Impact of All of Us" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

¿Qué sucede si un adulto no denuncia un abuso?

La revelación de abuso por parte de un niño siempre debe tomarse en serio y ser manejado apropiadamente por los informantes obligatorios, los maestros y todos los adultos de confianza. El deber de denunciar abusos es la acción éticamente responsable que se debe tomar.

No informar podría resultar en delitos repetidos, abusos más severos y otras víctimas expuestas a un depredador. Para obtener más información sobre la importancia de denunciar el abuso, lea el artículo en inglés de VIRTUS®, "The Consequences of Failing to Report Child Maltreatment: The Impact of All of Us" (Las consecuencias de no denunciar el maltrato infantil: El impacto de todos nosotros) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Treasures from our Tradition

We had sixteen hundred years' experience with one Eucharistic Prayer in our repertoire, and the liturgical reforms of the Council of Trent shaped the way we worshiped for four hundred years. In the last years of the Tridentine Mass, the early 1960s, we tended to see children as miniature adults. Fully rooted in the Sunday assembly by the decision of Pope Saint Pius X to push Communion back to the age of seven or so from the standard age of twelve to fourteen years during the early 1900s, children were still more tolerated than acknowledged. The Mass was in Latin, and by the 1960s the people had begun to regain their voices in the "dialogue Mass," so the focus was on training little children to recite or sing in Latin.

The new attention to the experience of children, their ability to enter into ritual, their spontaneity, their ability to grasp key concepts in faith, felt "untraditional." Yet we can trace in our tradition the ways in which children have long been given a special place in the assembly. From earliest times, boys have served in choirs and certain ministries in monasteries and in parish churches. Girls were sometimes entrusted to nuns, learning liturgical chants and the arts. Yet, in our day, the formation of a Lectionary for children and Eucharistic Prayers suited to them are truly tremendous breakthroughs in our treasury of prayer.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

En 1682 unos negociantes encontraron una caja abandonada en una playa al sur de El Salvador. Como no pudieron abrirla decidieron llevársela al pueblito de San Miguel para conseguir con qué abrirla. Montaron la caja en un burrito y comenzaron su camino. Al pasar por la iglesia parroquial, el burrito se sentó y la caja se abrió revelando una bella imagen de la Virgen.

En aquel entonces el pueblo de El Salvador estaba dividido por la guerra pero con la llegada de esta imagen milagrosa el pueblo buscó reconciliarse. En 1833 hubo otra guerra en El Salvador y los que salieron victoriosos prometieron a María no vengarse en contra de los perdedores. Por estos hechos se le concedió a la imagen el nombre Nuestra Señora de la Paz. Su imagen de madera tallada y vestida lleva una palma en la mano recordando un milagro donde por la intercesión de la Virgen de la Paz, Dios salvó al pueblo de la explosión de un volcán. La palma recuerda que el humo que salía del volcán formaba una palma en el cielo.

Dear Savio Family,

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to each one of you for your presence and support at our Pop Up on November 5th. The event was a tremendous success, featuring an array of food, clothing, jewelry, plants, and more. I trust that the parking experience was smoother this time, thanks to the increased number of volunteers directing traffic and the addition of three extra handicap parking spaces next to the church.

Our next gathering is scheduled for March 10th, and your input is highly valued. If you have any suggestions to enhance our events, please don't hesitate to reach out to me at 562-708-0517.

The funds generated from the Pop Up will be invested in organizing exciting events for the local youth. Among these initiatives is a course with local high school counselors who will share insights on preparing your children for Honors and AP classes in high school, ensuring they are well-equipped for college. Collaborating with the Salesian family, we are also planning a delightful Christmas Posada. Stay tuned for details on upcoming events in the church bulletin.

Thank you for being an integral part of our community.

Sincerely,

Armando M Gonzalez
