O Felix Culpa

BY FR. MATT O'TOOLE

The XXXII Olympiad in Tokyo, delayed a year due to the pandemic, soon approaches. With its roots in ancient times, the modern Olympics has the power to almost deify those athletes who have reached physical perfection, proving themselves through competition to be without equal. For those of us in the stands or at home watching, we are enthralled by the discipline of these athletes and with excitement we cheer on our respective nations, knowing that a victory will be a boast not only for the individual but the flag we wave as well.

Carl Ludwig "Lutz" Long and James Cleveland "Jesse" Owens at the 1936 Olympics

We like to think that athletic competition is about more than records and medals. When our faith in the human condition starts to fumble, there comes a story of the triumph of human goodness. Genuine sportsmanship proves itself in episodes when an athlete seeks not his or her own greatness but the elevation of humanity. One such moment happened at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin. Jesse Owens was watching his dream slipping away. He had fouled his first two attempts at the long jump. His blond German opponent Ludwig "Lutz" Long explained to him how he could avoid a final foul by using a simple strategy. Owens took his advice and went on to win the gold medal with a final leap of 9.06 meters. And Adolf Hitler stormed out of the stadium. Moved by the spontaneous graciousness of his closest opponent, Jesse Owens later said, "It took a lot of courage for him to befriend me in front of Hitler. You can melt down all the medals and cups I have and they wouldn't be a plating on the twenty-four carat friendship that I felt for Lutz Long at that moment." The aggrandizement was not for the individual self but a greater good.

When the apostle Paul was carrying out his missionary work, he preached in many Greek communities where the athleticism of mortals could put one in league with the gods. His audience, not unlike ours today, recognized that an athlete's perfection in strength, skill and stamina leads to victory in the arena. In his first letter to the church in Corinth Paul likened the Christian's need to instill discipline in the spiritual life so as to achieve the ultimate glory: "Do you not know that the runners in the stadium all run in the race, but only one wins the prize? Run so as to win. Every athlete exercises discipline in every way. They do it to win a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one. Thus I do not run aimlessly; I do not fight as if I were shadowboxing. No, I drive my body and train it, for fear that, after having preached to others, I myself should be disqualified." (9:24-27)

The Olympians gathering in Tokyo have invested many years and strained many muscles to reach this competition. They will inspire us, and remind us to direct our own energies to those pursuits in life that are noble and good. As Christians we would do well to imitate their examples of endurance and dedication to the arenas of our everyday life. When we carry out the regimen of our faith with charity and devotion we raise the spirits of humanity. St. Paul did this when he wrote his second letter to the young disciple Timothy: "I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance." (4:7-8)

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CORNER

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs “two by two”, our neighbors in need in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

The number to call for information about our St Peter conference or to direct brothers and sisters in need of help with utility, rent or food assistance is (314) 289 6101 ext. 2220.

The Welcoming Committee would like to announce the “New Arrivals to our Parish Family” for June 2021.

Let us remember them in our prayers and aid them in catching that great St. Peter spirit we all know and love.

Please welcome:

Adoration of Our Lord

Time waits for no one!
But the Lord Jesus is waiting for you!

(1Samuel 3:10)

It is hard to believe, but it's true. God, who loves us more than we can comprehend desires personal time with you. Don't keep Him waiting.

“Then he returned to His disciples and found them sleeping. ‘Couldn't you men keep watch with me for one hour?’ He asked Peter”
Matthew 26:40

If you are considering making a commitment or have already committed to a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration please rest assured that the “We Adore Him” site is easy to use to find a substitute. If for any reason you are unable to make your Holy Hour and cannot find someone to cover your hour at your request it will find a substitute for you.

“Heaven for me is hidden in a little Host where Jesus, my Spouse, is veiled for love. I go to that Divine Furnace to draw out life, and there my Sweet Savior listens to me night and day.”

— St. Therese of Lisieux

At present, Exposition is held on Wednesday's from 6:00AM to Friday's 3:00 PM. The worship of the Real Presence of our Lord in Eucharistic Adoration is being expanded to include hours from Monday 6:00AM and Tuesday through Wednesday 6:00AM with a future start date of July 12, 2021. Please note that when you sign up for hours on these days only your commitment will not start until July 12th, 2021. LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are just simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and construct buildings where people could come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked.

*Hear, O Lord, have mercy on me;
Lord be my helper.*

— PSALM 30:11 —

Sunday, July 25th will be the celebration of the first World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. The Vatican's Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life has today announced the theme chosen by Pope Francis for this year's celebration, which is 'I am with you always' (Mt 28:20). This theme has been chosen as a way of expressing the closeness of the Lord and the Church to every older person, especially in these challenging pandemic times.

'I am with you always' is also a promise of closeness and hope that young and old can mutually share. Not only are grandchildren and young people called upon to be present in the lives of older people, but older people and grandparents also have a mission of evangelization, proclamation and prayer, and of encouraging young people in their faith.

The Dicastery also announced its intention to offer some resources for the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly from mid-June. These will be available on the website for the Amoris Laetitia Family Year – www.amorislaetitia.va – which the World Day is part of.

The Catholic Grandparents Association of St. Peter Parish invites you to join in this celebration at Mass by saving the dates of July 24/25, 2021 on your calendar. More information to follow in the upcoming bulletins.

THANK YOU ST. PETER!

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." MARK 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

FIAT WOMEN'S GROUP
