The two sacraments of healing are especially meant to bring restoration and wholeness to body and soul: Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick. These can be especially timely when death is imminent. A good Confession is a blessed opportunity to purge our sins and hear the comforting words of absolution. Confession can be for the soul what morphine does for the body tormented by pain. I recall medals of the Virgin Mary or saints would often have stamped on the back, "I am a Catholic. Please call a priest." This was a message for those responding to someone stricken by a life-threatening injury or unconscious. It was like saying, "Call 9-1-1 and my spiritual doctor!" Each of us should not hesitate to seek out a priest for the medicinal aid of the sacraments when hospitalized or declining seriously in health.

By Fr. Matt O'Toole

For a long time, the Catholic Church referred to the Sacrament of the Sick as "Extreme Unction," a term meant to reinforce the notion that this would be the last blessing of your life just before you die. It was intended to be celebrated only once and at the hour of your death. I recall coming to the hospital room of an older Catholic and offering to him the Sacrament of the Sick. His eyes widened and in a panicked voice he asked, "What did the doctor tell you?"

As Pope Paul VI explained in his introduction to the ritual for this sacrament, "[The Second Vatican Council document the Constitution on the Liturgy says]: 'Extreme unction,' which may also and more properly be called 'anointing of the sick,' is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as any one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for that person to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived."

Thus, for the celebration of this sacrament there should be the real and present danger of death, if not immediate at least approximate. For many who are elderly or critically ill, this is a greater reality to their conscious. For persons in these circumstances, the Sacrament of the Sick can be a welcome balm and an appropriate preparation for the inevitable. Here at St. Peter we offer this sacrament on the third Sunday of the month following the 8:00 a.m. Mass.

November:

The Month of the Faithful Departed

If a loved one is near death, would we think to secure for them the Sacraments of Healing?

Do we not only hope for a peaceful death but also plan for it?

Integral to this ritual is the laying on of hands. When celebrating this sacrament in a hospital or nursing home or with someone in hospice care, I always invite those gathered around to join me in this gesture. Touch – from the laying on of hands and the application of the Oil of the Sick to the person's body – is a powerfully comforting experience. It fulfills what the ritual intends to accomplish: the assurance in a physical way that God is with us in our need.

When death is imminent Viaticum – the reception of the Body and Blood of Christ – is included with Anointing of the Sick. Literally, Viaticum means "food for the journey." In Viaticum the dying person is united with Christ in his or her passage out of this world to the Father. It is ideal that reception of the Eucharist in this situation be joined by others who gather with the dying person so as to reinforce the communal experience of care and solidarity in the Body of Christ.

We are in the final month of the Church's observance of the Year of St. Joseph. He is the patron of a happy, or peaceful, death. God and loved ones at our side in the passage from one life to the next is a grace we may each hope to have. To make such an experience our own, make intercession to St. Joseph. Also, make known to those who will care for you when dying your desire to call on the ministers of the Church for the promises provided by Christ's sacraments.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Have you ever wondered what you should do during your holy hour? I have, so I started looking for videos that could give me some guidance on how to make a holy hour. I found a video from Ascension Presents that I really liked, and would like to share it with everyone who has also wondered what to do during their holy hour. You can watch the video here: youtu.be/NRhI5Q0vT5A

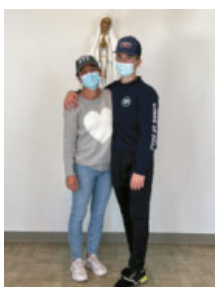

I hope this video provides all of you with some new ideas to explore during adoration that will deepen your relationship with Jesus. Enjoy the video!

"I am" Stewardship Prayer

My parish is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.

It will be holy, if I am.

Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work.

It will be prayerful, if I pray.

It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver.

It will bring others into worship,

if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity and mercy, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.

Amen.

ADVENT EVENING OF REFLECTION

Guest Speaker: Virginia Herbers

Wednesday, December 15

7:00 pm

St. Peter Church

Even when we are deliberate about celebrating Advent; even when we pay attention to the Scriptures and the season and our prayer; even then, it is easy to overlook some people and aspects who show up in our Advent readings year after year. This evening of reflection will invite us to stop and notice, engage and receive, that we might be more committed Advent people—waiting in hope for the coming Christ. Please watch the bulletin and Flocknotes for registration information.

STS. PETER AND PAUL MEALS PROGRAM

The volunteers for the Sts. Peter and Paul Meals Program in Soulard served 120 hungry diners on Wednesday November 3. The meal continues to be a covid friendly "eat in the dining hall with social distance" or carryout meal whichever the diners prefer.

We had 8 adult volunteers as well as 2 third graders who volunteered as part of the St. Peter school "Faith in Action" program. The third grade's focus is on feeding the hungry this year as it has been in the past few years. The two boys who helped this month were very engaged with the diners and served the cold drinks like pros! Our guests as well as the St. Peter adult volunteers are so glad the students can again help out monthly.

If you would like to volunteer with us, we serve our meal on the third of each month. If that date falls on a M-F, we serve at 4:30. If it falls on a Sat-Sun we serve at noon. Volunteers do not need to help each month, just on the months they are available to do so. Please contact Mary Raizman at mraizman@lauramccarthy.com if you would like to become involved.

YOUTH MINISTRY EXPLORES NEW WAYS TO PRAY

This month for our Sunday youth meetings we will be taking time to learn new ways of praying. Different members of the core team will speak with the teens and give them an opportunity to pray in a way that may be new to them. Each night will begin with dinner and games, followed by two talks on different ways of praying and social time. We are hoping that the teens will use this time as a way to expand their opportunities for a rich interior life. We will conclude the third Sunday of our prayer series with a night in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. On the final Sunday of the month, we will be discussing Advent, as that will be the first Sunday of this Church season. To accompany this, we will give each of our teens a copy of Katie and Tommy McGrady's guiding booklet "Advent and Christmas: One Day at a Time for Catholic Teens." We hope to see more in attendance as our meetings continue and to grow in fellowship and community with one another as we progress throughout the year together. I look forward to seeing you this month and the months to come! You can reach me at skheyman@stpeterkirkwood.org with any questions about Youth Ministry!
