School has started and students from elementary grades to college are getting back into the groove of classroom procedures and course expectations. I thought this would be a good time at St. Peter for us to do the same with church. I think it helps to refresh our memories and revisit some principles about our worship that we may have forgotten, as well as deal with a few things that may be awkward to address but should be said. These “pointers” are aimed at no persons in particular. They are simply gentle reminders that can enhance our experience of sacred worship and help clear up confusion about what is the best thing to do. I hope they help all of us.

Fr. Matt O'Toole

Make Yourself Hungry to Receive Jesus

The Eucharistic fast is something that has been slipping the attention of many Catholics. The practice is meant to intensify our spiritual and physical hunger for the Lord at Mass. In earlier times, the faithful were not allowed to consume anything from midnight prior to receiving Holy Communion. Today, as the Code of Canon Law teaches, “A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before Holy Communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine.” (919.1) I would note that this hour of abstinence includes coffee, chewing gum and breath mints. (I’ve seen people finishing off their Starbucks in the car before stepping into church!) All this may seem scrupulous, but I believe such discipline increases our awareness of how sacred reception of the Eucharist is. There are exceptions to this obligation for the elderly and the infirmed as well as those who care for them.

“St. Peter People Are Late with Everything”

That’s a boast I’ve heard some parishioners make. I have lived in a number of parishes, however, and I don’t know one where the same couldn’t be said about their habits of punctuality. But it’s not going to stop me from trying to encourage everyone to be prompt for church! So, for the record, weekend Masses at St. Peter begin at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, and 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Remember, it’s good to arrive a little early so you can practice stillness and have some time for contemplation with God. You deserve that.

Communion Etiquette

When receiving the Blessed Sacrament in the hand, the communicant should be guided by the words of St. Cyril of Jerusalem who wrote in the 4th century: “When you approach, take care not to do so with your hand stretched out and your fingers open or apart, but rather place your left hand as a throne beneath your right, as befits one who is about to receive the King. Then receive him, taking care that nothing is lost.” Remember, it’s rude to grab. Nor should we be in a hurry to receive our Lord and move on. (This isn’t fast food!) Reverence and carefulness will prevent the Eucharist from falling to the floor. And don’t forget to make a reverent bow before receiving and to pronounce a strong, “Amen!” when hearing, “The Body of Christ.”

Blessed Are the Little Ones

At the time of the Communion procession we are happy to extend a blessing to children who have not yet made their First Holy Communion. It is not always easy for the Eucharistic minister (or me) to know whether or not the Host should be offered when a child comes forward. To help amend this confusion, teach your little one to make a distinct gesture of arms crossed over his/her chest. Come closely to the minister of Communion and pause to receive the blessing. Adults who are not Catholic are asked to do the same if they choose to come forward.

REENGAGE REFRESH REJUVENATE

For those that are not familiar, ACTS stands for Adoration, Community, Theology and Service. Over 700 men and women from St. Peter have attended an ACTS retreat over the last ten years. Almost all will tell you that there is no “perfect time” to get away but nearly all will share that the weekend surpassed all their expectations, enriched their faith and deepened their relationships across the St. Peter community.

If you are new to the parish or have been interested in attending in the past but schedules have not worked out, this is your time. This is a wonderful opportunity to meaningfully connect with others and to reengage, recharge, and rejuvenate your faith in a profound way!

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church?

- Are you un-baptized but are beginning to feel a need to develop a relationship with God in your life?
- Are you baptized in another faith tradition or baptized Catholic but never received any formal religious education or additional sacraments?
- Are you married to a Catholic and attend Mass but just don't know what the next step is to become one of the Catholic faithful?
- Are you yearning for something more in your life?

If you have answered "Yes" to any of these questions, we would like to invite you to join the RCIA process this year.

Adult Bible Study

Dr. Brant Pitre, Scripture scholar and bestselling author, uses biblical and historical evidence to bolster the "case for Jesus" by exposing the problems with the many false theories that have been introduced over the past hundred years, resulting in widespread skepticism about the reliability of Christian Faith. He tackles head-on questions like: Can we trust the Gospels? Do we really know who wrote them? Do the Gospels communicate truth – or fabricated fables? Who is Jesus? Who did Jesus claim to be?

What: 10-week program. Cost for workbook is $22.
