For those of us living in a consumer environment, in which the emphasis is on acquisition rather than giving things up, Lent seems strangely counter-cultural. Yet there has always been those, who in the midst of plenty, chose a simpler lifestyle. It is a voluntary choice, the path of virtue. During an economic downturn, we may be obliged to reduce our consumption. In these times, downsizing one's carbon footprint, for instance, may be done not for love of the planet or all things green, but out of necessity. Still, does that invalidate the spiritual meaning of sacrifice in such situations? Is it possible to see necessity as still the mother of virtue?

Fr. Matt O'Toole

The fact that Lent comes in early spring may help provide an answer. In the pre-modern era, in the northern hemisphere at least, the season arrived at a time when the stock of food stored for winter began to run low, with springtime replenishment still some way off. So in mainly rural economies, Lenten fasting had a certain economic and agricultural logic to it: necessity gave birth to virtue.

It was also a reminder of our state of ecological dependence, that is, the change of seasons and availability of farm workers – which today's urban living almost completely has lost sight. Tomatoes from Mexico, strawberries from California, lamb from New Zealand, are shipped to keep the supermarket shelves stocked regardless that the calendar reads winter. One form of Lenten observance would be to refuse to eat anything that had travelled more than 50 miles to reach the dinner table. That at least would reacquaint the menu with the seasons.

Lent is not mere misery for the sake of it, but a time of preparation. The spiritual exercises associated with it are focused on the events in Jesus' earthly ministry as it drew to a close, heading to a culmination in Holy Week and then Easter morning. The physical deprivations of Lent, mild though many of us make them, nevertheless represent also a physical preparation: the soul has its sins to lose, the body its fat – all of this making straight the way of the Lord. If it is a time to repent and visit the confessional, it's also a time to repair our bodies and make for the gym. The idea of sin as dross to be burnt away by penance is not unlike a good physical work-out, burning off the calories.

Lent was also a time for almsgiving, and the modern equivalent is to do something for those less fortunate than oneself. The government may lower its investment in public works or reduce support for assistance programs. There are those for whom loss of employment or the inability to advance in their field has had a catastrophic impact, reducing their total income to a small fraction of what it was. To tell them fiscal austerity is good for them would be to add insult to injury. They do not just need philanthropy. They need an economic recovery and greater opportunity. One of the faults to be confessed these days must surely be the way the few – and indeed the not-so-few – are having to suffer for the sins of the many. There is penance to be done for that, too.

HOW DO I OFFER A MASS FOR SOMEONE?

During each Mass, we hear, "This Mass is being offered for the intention of [someone]." You might be wondering what this means and how you can offer a Mass for a friend or family member. Any individual may request a Mass intention for a special occasion (such as on a birthday), in thanksgiving, or most commonly, for a deceased loved one.

Contact Julie Carlson, jcarlson@stpeterkirkwood.org or 314.966.8600 to assist you with the availability of specific dates and times. If you are able, a $10 offering is requested.

“WHAT DOES LENT MEAN TO YOU?”

Last Sunday, I had the great joy of witnessing the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion at the Cathedral Basilica, during which our RCIA Candidates were formally welcomed by Archbishop Rozanski — along with all the Catechumens and Candidates across the Archdiocese — to enter into the “Period of Purification and Enlightenment.” It is during this period, which customarily coincides with Lent, that our Candidates will begin their final preparations so they may be ready to receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist during the Easter Vigil.

*John Livingston
Director of Evangelization*

And what does that mean exactly? What does it mean to “be ready” to receive these great sacraments of initiation? While, yes, it is important to have a certain understanding of the teachings of the Church and, yes, it is important to be properly predisposed to receive the grace of these sacraments, I think that to “be ready” goes a little deeper. These Candidates (like all of us!) are being invited to come face-to-face with the Risen Christ at the Easter Vigil. The graces that began to unfold at their Baptisms will be confirmed and sealed by the Holy Spirit, and they will be incorporated into the Body of Christ, the Church. And they, for the very first time, will encounter the One-who-is-Love-incarnate in the most intimate encounter of all: the Eucharist.

So what does it mean to “be ready” for this? Perhaps it means to be ready to receive this all-embracing love. Perhaps it means to be purified of anything that might stand in the way of coming face-to-face and nose-to-nose with Jesus and being truly seen by him. Perhaps it means to be cleaned of the pain and brokenness and struggle we all tend to carry throughout our lives. Perhaps it means to be filled with the illuminating light that shines the truth of who we are: loved, chosen, called-by-name children of God.

So what does Lent mean for me? This year, my first year as the director of RCIA here at St. Peter, Lent is all about becoming ready. Ready to encounter the living God once again, ready to be infinitely loved by Him, and ready to overflow with His love throughout the Easter season and beyond. And I invite you to join me as we pray that our Candidates may become ready, too.

ST. PETERFEST 2023

Friday, June 2, and Saturday, June 3

Come experience the joy of our vibrant parish while enjoying rides, games, food, beverage, music and more.

Many hands make light work!

An event this big is no small task! In fact, it takes close to 1,000 volunteer hours over the course of the weekend to make St. Peterfest a success. Be on the lookout for volunteer sign-ups later this spring so you can grab a shift in your favorite booth.

We would love to have a few more people on the St. Peterfest leadership team! One of the best ways to experience St. Peterfest is by getting involved. Planning and coordinating this event connects you with old and new friends and gives you a sense of fulfillment and joy in contributing to a good cause. Not to mention it is also a whole lot of fun! This is a multi-year commitment that would involve assisting the chairs with the logistics and promotion of the event this year and moving into other responsibilities in the following year. Contact Rita Schuman at rita.schuman@gmail.com for more details.

Sponsorship Opportunities

We invite local businesses, individual families, teams, or organizations to sponsor a booth or tent at the event. This is an opportunity to contribute to the continued success of a parish whose mission is to serve, educate and care for those in our community. For more information or to secure a sponsorship, go to bit.ly/STPfestspponsors or scan the QR code.

Kirkwood Council 2117

LEAD, THEY'LL FOLLOW

We are looking for new members searching for a way to put their Catholic faith to work by joining the ranks of the Knights of Columbus Kirkwood Council 2117.

We promote service to our church, our families, and our community. We engage in numerous acts of charity like supporting the Special Olympics, ensuring children have warm coats, and helping local food banks to name a few.

We expect many of you would like to help, but you're concerned you just don't have the time. We understand. Between family obligations and work, we can feel like we have no time or energy left to give. However, the great thing about the Knights is that you can volunteer around your schedule. We aren't looking for a specific monthly time commitment. Just pick a few activities and make them yours. Put on a yellow vest for a few hours in October for the annual Tootsie Roll Drive. Help set up, cook, or serve food and drinks at our annual Summer BBQ. Or work a shift at Greentree, St. Peterfest, or St. Gerard Majella's Fallfest.

Lead, they'll follow.

To learn more about Kirkwood Council 2117 please contact: Keith Beardslee, Keith.Beardslee@gmail.com or Tony Jarboe, tonyjarboe@wustl.edu

GUIDE BOOK & DIRECTORY ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office.

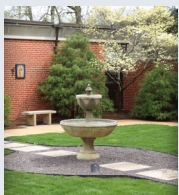

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It pays to advertise in our Guide Book & Directory!

HONORING MSGR. JACK COSTELLO

A GIFT TO HIS HONOR

Prayer Garden Dedication

Sunday, March 26, following 10:00 am Mass

We are proud to announce the dedication of our prayer garden to Msgr. Jack to honor his legacy and express our gratitude for his passion, dedication and loyalty to St. Peter Parish.

Anyone who knew Msgr. Jack, knew his love of St. Peter Parish, its people, its history, and its campus. The prayer garden was one of his favorite places on campus, and we felt it would be a fitting tribute to dedicate it in his honor. It is a serene and peaceful place that offers respite and reflection to all who visit. This dedication was a gift originally given to Msgr. Jack upon his retirement in 2021, and now we will honor his years at St. Peter with this memorial on the first anniversary of his death.

All are welcome to join us for the dedication ceremony, which will take place on Sunday, March 26, immediately following 10:00am Mass.

MSGR. JACK'S GIFT TO US

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace. Whoever preaches, let it be with the words of God; whoever serves, let it be with the strength that God supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen."

While Msgr. Jack shared many gifts with our parish, he may be remembered best by his gift of preaching. He had a unique ability to connect with parishioners of all ages and left you feeling like he was speaking only to you. His passionate delivery along with his infectious enthusiasm and great sense of humor made his homilies truly unforgettable. His words continue to inspire, teach and comfort us. Our livestream Masses that began as a way to keep us connected in 2020 during the pandemic now serve as an archive of recorded homilies. In addition to his homilies, Msgr. Jack recorded several teaching videos that have been archived as well.

A "Msgr. Jack" playlist can be found on the St. Peter Youtube channel that includes these archived videos. Go to: youtube.com/@StPeterKirkwood/playlists or scan the QR code to view the videos.

We are grateful that Msgr. Jack's legacy will live on through his words and these recorded homilies!

Amen, St. Peter?
AMEN!

Lacrosse Registration is now open.

Since CYC no longer sponsors lacrosse, several parishes including St. Peter have moved their teams to the Arch Catholic Lacrosse League. We look forward to a fun season playing against similar teams to last year in an environment that is committed to promoting, organizing, and advancing the sport of lacrosse through collaboration with our Catholic school community. The players will still be provided St. Peter uniforms and will be coached by parent volunteers.

Lacrosse is offered to boys and girls in 5th through 8th grade. Players will be required to have a USA Lacrosse membership which costs $30 and provides the necessary insurance coverage to participate in the Arch Catholic Lacrosse League among other benefits. Many players may already have USA Lacrosse memberships since many camps also require them. The USA Lacrosse membership is in addition to the $90 player cost. Please click the link and sign up/renew your youth player membership id: usalacrosse.com/membership.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

2nd Sunday of Lent

"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you." Genesis 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet, God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."
