The love of Christ is not passive. It is living and breathing. That's why it is so important that we go to great lengths to share it with our brothers and sisters in need. This Sunday, we hear in Luke's gospel that Jesus came to walk with two of His disciples on the road from Jerusalem to Emmaus and they discussed His crucifixion. Although the two disciples did not recognize Jesus at the time, He recalled the scriptures and brought them assurance that His death and suffering were necessary: the ultimate act of love that the prophets had spoken of. Similarly, this week's Gospel reminds us of the importance of the Eucharist, our devotion to the Lord and His will, and our duty as Catholics to proclaim the good news to all others.

Fr. Matt O'Toole

When Jesus later joined the two disciples at their table and broke bread with them, they were finally able to see Him and recognize His holiness.

And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning [within us] while he spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

(Luke 24:30-35)

In the same manner, we must Reach out in Love to those who seek the Bread of Life. It is only then that the world can know the Lord and His limitless love as we do. The Annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to do this as one Church, filling every heart with hope. By acting with Christ in our hearts, His grace and mercy will abound.

This week, we are launching the Annual Catholic Appeal in our parish. The Appeal provides us an opportunity to allow the Lord to work through our hands as one Church, sharing His grace with those who need it most. Here at St. Peter, I am grateful for our parishioner, Kent Knickmeyer, who is leading our efforts with this worthy fundraiser. Please consider supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal this year. Many St. Peter parishioners have already made their pledge. Thank you! If you have not, Please consider supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal this year. You can use one of the pledge cards available in the pews, make your gift online at aca.archstl.org or use Text-to-Give by texting "ACA" to 243725.

WALK Week Of April 23, 2023

“Evangelization” is a big word, and it seems to be even bigger nowadays. The Church in St. Louis has been changing for decades, and we are on the cusp on an even more dramatic change, with the release of the All Things New plan on Pentecost Sunday. But more than implementing the structural changes facing parishes and pastorates across the Archdiocese, this all-encompassing initiative calls us to do something even bigger: to evangelize.

So where do we start? How do we begin to engage in the work of evangelization? The answer is simple: we start the exact same way Jesus did. We walk with the people in our lives. We notice the ones who are downcast, and we simply journey with them. We listen, we seek to understand, and we keep walking with them — wherever they are on their journey.

You may not know the exact words to say. You might not be an expert in theology or catechesis. You might even find it difficult to defend the institution of the Church sometimes! But you can surely walk with the people you love. You can surely listen. And you can surely lift up the downcast with your presence — after all, this Easter season is all about the reality that Jesus is alive and that he lives in you! So this week, let's share his presence by sharing our presence with others. Let's go out and let's walk with the people God has placed in our lives.

Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, “What are you discussing as you walk along?” They stopped, looking downcast.

Luke 24:15–17

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What details grab your attention the most when reading the Gospel account of Jesus and the two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13–35)?
2. Why do you think Jesus took the time to walk with the two disciples, even when they didn't recognize him?
3. What does the word “walk” mean to you when thinking about evangelization?
4. Who are the people in your life that you can “walk” with, maybe starting this week?
5. How does it feel to think about evangelization as simply being present to people?

2023 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

God's grace is within us, and we should share it with others as Jesus did when he helped his followers understand his resurrection. We, as Catholics, should reach out in love to those who seek spiritual nourishment. The Annual Catholic Appeal is launching in our parish, offering us a chance to share God's grace with those in need. Please support the appeal by picking up a pledge card after Mass, donating online at aca.archstl.org, or using Text-to-Give by texting "ACA" to 243725.

Scripture Reflection

Believers must share Christ's love with those in need. In Luke 24:13-27, Jesus used scripture to show the necessity of His suffering and death. This week's Gospel emphasizes the Eucharist, our devotion to the Lord, and our responsibility to proclaim the good news. The Annual Catholic Appeal is a tangible way to act on this duty and help those in need.

To learn more about how you can contribute to the Appeal and help make a difference in the world, visit aca.archstl.org. You can also Text-to-Give by texting "ACA" to 243725. Together, as one Church, let us act with Christ in our hearts and make a positive impact on the world.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Third Sunday of Easter, April 23, 2023

"Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?" Luke 24:32

Do you discern Jesus' call for your life or just ask Him to do things for you? A one-sided relationship won't help you develop a personal relationship with Jesus. A true friendship requires give-and-take, with both sides listening and helping each other. Spend some silent time to hear what Jesus wants from you today.

San Antonio, TX 78216

We are celebrating 36 years of ACTS Retreats! Join us Saturday, July 22nd, at the Whitley Theological Center on the Oblate School campus. Tickets are $50 each, which includes all you can eat buffet, adult beverages, dancing, and raffle. We will begin with Mass at the Immaculate Conception Chapel then walk to the Whitley.

Live out of town? Make it a weekend and see the sights of San Antonio. We hope we can count on your support to reach our fundraising goal- even if you cannot attend. Every donation helps. Sponsor or donate now.

Visit <https://app.donorview.com/4y7VJ> for more information. Thank you and may God bless you.
