A WORD FROM FR. LEVI

Grace and peace to you in Christ! I pray you are doing well! The book of proverbs 29:18 says, "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Vision is so important! Once a vision is established, then a strategic plan can be put into place to lead us toward that vision! Our parish vision statement, which can be found on the website, is: "To joyfully build bridges of hope through the Catholic faith, with prayer and sacraments, to bring all souls to the love and mercy of Jesus Christ!" That being said, how do we joyfully build bridges of hope for people so that they can encounter the love and mercy of God more easily and more fully? That is what this edition of the bulletin is all about!

Since December the Pastoral Staff has been praying, thinking, and working on this year's strategic priorities. It is exciting when we think about all that the Lord has done through this parish over the last year and how he is moving us forward this year. As we thought and prayed through the Parish priorities, the following five rose to top: hospitality, Liturgy, formation, Works of Mercy, and sustainment. Each of these priorities are not just for a few people to do, they are what our pastoral staff believes God is asking all of us to walk in this year as a parish.

This past year, our October count, which is the average Mass attendance for the whole month, increased from 776(2024) to 840 (2025) people. The weekend of the Feb 15th 2026 we had 900 in attendance! My brother and sisters, this is wonderful news! This means that our vision of joyfully building bridges to Christ is happening! Many people are coming to the Church for the first time! Many are coming back to Church! Many in Church are growing closer to Jesus! We praise God for leading each and every one of us closer to him!

Thank you for all of the ways that you have joyfully built bridges to Christ for those around you! Thank you for all of the "yesses" that you give to our Lord each day! If I may ask, please read all of the articles in this week's bulletin and reflect on how the Lord is calling you to respond to them! I believe that you are made in the image and likeness of God and that you are valuable and loved because you are a son or daughter of God! I also believe that you are a gift from God to the Church and to the world! As Pastor, I believe that it is my job to empower you to use your gifts and talents for the building up of Christ and His Church, so don't hesitate to ask any of the pastoral staff how you can get involved! May His Kingdom Come!!!

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil;
may God rebuke him we humbly
pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

PRAYER TO SAINT ANDREW THE APOSTLE

O Glorious Saint Andrew,
you were the first to recognize and follow the Lamb of God.
With your friend Saint John,
you remained with Jesus for that day,
for your entire life,
and now throughout eternity.
As you led your brother Saint Peter to Christ and many others after Him,
draw us also to Him.
Teach us to lead others to Christ
solely out of love for Him
and dedication in His service.
Help us to learn the lesson of the cross and to carry our daily crosses without complaint so that they may carry us to Jesus. Amen.

EXODUS 17:3-7

In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?" So Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do with this people? a little more and they will stone me!" The LORD answered Moses, "Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink." This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD in our midst or not?"

SECOND READING

ROMANS 5:1-2, 5-8

Brothers and sisters: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Lord, you are truly the Savior of the world; give me living water, that I may never thirst again.

GOSPEL

JOHN 4:5-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.— Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, 'you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.'" The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Jesus said to her, "Go call your husband and come back." The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus answered her, "You are right in saying, 'I do not have a husband.' For you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true." The woman said to him, "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one speaking with you."

At that moment his disciples returned, and were amazed that he was talking with a woman, but still no one said, "What are you looking for?" or "Why are you talking with her?" The woman left her water jar and went into the town and said to the people, "Come see a man who told me everything I have done. Could he possibly be the Christ?" They went out of the town and came to him. Meanwhile, the disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know." So the disciples said to one another, "Could someone have brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work. Do you not say, 'In four months the harvest will be here'? I tell you, look up and see the fields ripe for the harvest. The reaper is already receiving payment and gathering crops for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper can rejoice together. For here the saying is verified that 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap what you have not worked for; others have done the work, and you are sharing the fruits of their work."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I have done." When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

2026 STRATEGIC PLAN

The Pastoral Staff has established a five-pillar framework to guide our parish's mission. Those five pillars are: Welcome & Hospitality, Liturgy, Formation, Works of Mercy, and Sustainment. Below you'll find a clear purpose, strategic priorities, and a proposal for each pillar. Together, these pillars form a cohesive roadmap for a parish that is spiritually grounded, outward-facing, and sustainable to ensure long-term vitality.

1) Welcome & Hospitality

Leader: Kathy Costantino

The virtue of hospitality is characterized by kindness and welcome, particularly to those who are strangers. Since the stranger, by nature, has no particular claim on our affections, the love we extend to him is true Christian love — love purely for the sake of the one “who loved us first.” (1 John 4:19)

To welcome the stranger is a daily work of discipleship. For a parish to really thrive and grow the faith of its followers, it needs to be a welcoming environment. If we are truly to be Jesus in the world, it necessitates that we foster a sense of solidarity with one another. After all, no man is an island.

Our Lord teaches us to love our neighbors as ourselves. Hospitality is not just polite, it involves caring for each other as families do, and since we are a parish family, our lives must make positive impacts on the lives around us. Our mission is to create a benevolent Catholic culture that welcomes all persons. It is our goal to strengthen our hospitality to ensure every person - new or old, young or elderly - feels like, “You belong. God is here. And, it is good that you are here too!”

We need to be proactive in bringing about a spirit of welcome where all feel the warmth of Christ radiating from our hearts and spiritual home - our parish. To achieve a “Spirit of Welcoming,” our parish will embark on the following:

- Be the face of Jesus to all who enter our doors because Jesus dwells in them too. We want to be a place of unity, love and acceptance of all the children of God.
- Our parish will form a Hospitality Committee who will be involved in providing the most welcoming environment for every new member who registers with our parish.
- We will encourage our parish family to live with purposeful intention by continuing to engage these new parishioners fully with our various ministries and opportunities offered at our parish.
- Create an atmosphere of warmth and friendliness within our ministries and small groups where new volunteers and members are valued for their presence.
- We will continue with outreach efforts to re-engage fallen away Catholics and those who are initially interested in what the Catholic Church stands for.

Lord, shape our parish into a place where every person can say, “it is good that we are here.” (Matthew 17:4)

2) Liturgy

Leader: Clergy and Amanda Nicholson

Going to Mass is one of the most important things we'll do during our lifetime. The Mass is the highest form of prayer where we join the heavenly hosts in worship of our creator. The Mass is the point where “heaven and earth kiss,” the human and divine meet, and is a small foretaste of eternity to come. It seems to follow, then, that since the Mass is absolutely central to our Catholic faith, we as worshippers should pour our all into each mass.

In order to do that, we have to come to Mass with intention, purpose, and preparation. We have to choose to be actively engaged, as is our right and duty. Sacrosanctum Concilium, a constitution from Vatican II, beautifully outlines this by stating: “Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people...is their right and duty by reason of their baptism.” To that end, the enlivened worship of the parish people is the central goal of the liturgy category.

In order to elevate the beauty of our liturgies, our liturgical ministers who assist at Mass will receive ongoing training and formation in their specific roles in order to gain a deeper knowledge and understanding of what it means to serve at Mass, as well as practical training in their roles. With that formation, they can fully and consciously engage in their ministry, which in turn assists the assembly to worship better.

Each worshipper may find that they connect to the Mass in a more active way based on the liturgical style of the Mass being offered, so we will continue to offer that liturgical variety in order to assist our parishioners in finding how they can worship best.

- For every parishioner and liturgical minister to be engaged in full, active, and conscious participation at Mass.
- To ensure each liturgy reflects the sacred tradition and high liturgical standards of the Church by providing catechetical and practical training for all liturgical ministers.
- Continue to offer a range of liturgical variety at our Masses, including traditional, contemporary, quiet, and outdoor masses.

3) Formation

Leader: Formation Team

The Formation Team includes Father Levi Hartle, our Pastor; Kathy Miller, Director of Religious Education; Mark Littlefield, Seminarian; Philip Pierangeli, Director of Youth and Social Minister; and Diane Kooser, Human Formation Coordinator.

Our goal is to cultivate lifelong discipleship by offering rich, accessible, and engaging opportunities for learning, spiritual growth, and sacramental preparation. When Jesus gave the Great Commission, He did not say, “Go make parishioners.” He said, “Go, therefore, and make disciples... teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” (Matthew 28:19-20) Challenged by that Great Commission, our goal is to form disciples.

1) Strengthening Catechesis Across All Age Groups

St. Paul reminds us that Christ gives teachers “to equip the holy ones... so that we may no longer be infants” (Ephesians 4:11-14). We don’t “graduate” from learning and growing in our faith. Spiritual development occurs over all the seasons and stages of life and provides richness and depth to our relationship with the Lord and each other.

Our team is committed to continued catechesis for children, teens, young adults, and adults. We recently extended our Faith Formation program for our young people to include Family Catechesis and Lectio Divina. Last year, we expanded our catechesis for adults with Formation Thursdays. Our Formation Thursday programming included a “Life in the Spirit” Seminar, a four-part series on prayer, a “Stump the Seminarian” night with Mark, & a teaching on the Mass. We also hosted a Pentecost Retreat.

We began this year with a “Be Healed” faith-sharing series, Eucharistic Adoration 101, and our Lenten Mission talks on the Mass. We are planning another “Life in the Spirit” Seminar and an Unbound faith-sharing group. Our OCIA program continues to thrive and support adults on their path to the Sacraments of Initiation. Whether someone is preparing for First Communion, Confirmation, marriage, or simply seeking to grow deeper in prayer and understanding of the Church and her teachings, we want to provide opportunities that are substantial and life-giving. If you have ideas about programming you’d like to see, please share them with our team.

... reflect on how all baptized people share in the call to help the world know Jesus.

Formation continued...

2) Integrating Formation into the Rhythms of Parish Life

St. Paul writes, “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as you teach and admonish one another.” (Colossians 3:16) While formation happens in Bible studies, sacramental preparation, youth ministry, and small groups, it also happens in our homes, personal and professional relationships, and informal conversations. Our goal is to weave formation into every aspect of our parish life so that learning and growing in faith becomes a natural rhythm rather than a course or event.

3) Building a Unified Curriculum and Shared Language of Faith

St. Paul urges the Corinthians “that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose.” (1 Corinthians 1:10) A unified curriculum, grounded in the Gospel and teachings of the Church, helps ensure that, whether you are 8 or 80, you are hearing the same core truths expressed clearly and consistently in a manner that is relevant to your stage and state in life. A shared faith language increases our ability to communicate with clarity.

Unity includes inclusivity. We want to reduce barriers for parishioners to access our programming. In addition to the expanded parking in Donora, we began to offer a virtual and in-person hybrid model for people to access our formation programming. We will continue to keep inclusivity and accessibility in mind when scheduling and planning formation events.

4) Fostering Ongoing Discipleship — Not Episodic Faith

Jesus says, “Remain in me” (John 15:4). If we are to remain in Jesus, we need Him at our center as we journey in faith together. This is ongoing discipleship. It is continual development and learning.

We want to move from a checklist of Sacraments and obligations to complete to a lifelong journey of conversion. We invite you to take one concrete step this year. Attend one formation event you would not normally attend. Try a new study. Come to an evening of praise and worship. Try our men’s or women’s groups. If you are already involved, invite a friend to join you. If there is a topic, speaker, or format you would like to see offered, please share your ideas with our team. “May the Word of Christ dwell richly in us (Col 3:16), forming us as disciples.”

4) Works of Mercy

Leader: Joe Caruso

One of the clearest signs of a healthy parish is how it cares for those who are struggling. As we continue shaping our parish mission around five core pillars, the Works of Mercy stand at the heart of who we are and who we are called to be. Christ’s command to feed the hungry, visit the sick, comfort the sorrowful, and welcome the stranger is not optional—it is the daily work of discipleship.

Over the past several years, our parish has witnessed extraordinary growth in our Works of Mercy, especially through our Food Bank ministry. What began as a small, quiet effort has become one of the most impactful outreach ministries in the Mon Valley. Today, our operations serve well over a thousand neighbors each month, offering not only food, but dignity, stability, and hope. Through partnerships with the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank, Catholic Charities, 412 Food Rescue, the Washington Area Humane Society, and Hunters Share the Harvest, our reach now extends to families, seniors, veterans, children, and even beloved pets through our Pet Food Pantry.

This commitment to dignity has also shaped another beautiful ministry: Dignity Robes. What started as a simple idea—to provide clean, comfortable robes for neighbors undergoing medical treatments, recovering from surgery, or facing housing insecurity—has grown into a quiet but powerful expression of mercy. These robes are offered without fanfare, without questions, and without judgment. They remind each recipient that they are seen, valued, and worthy of comfort. For many, a robe becomes more than clothing; it becomes a sign of warmth, safety, and the compassion of a parish that refuses to let anyone feel forgotten.

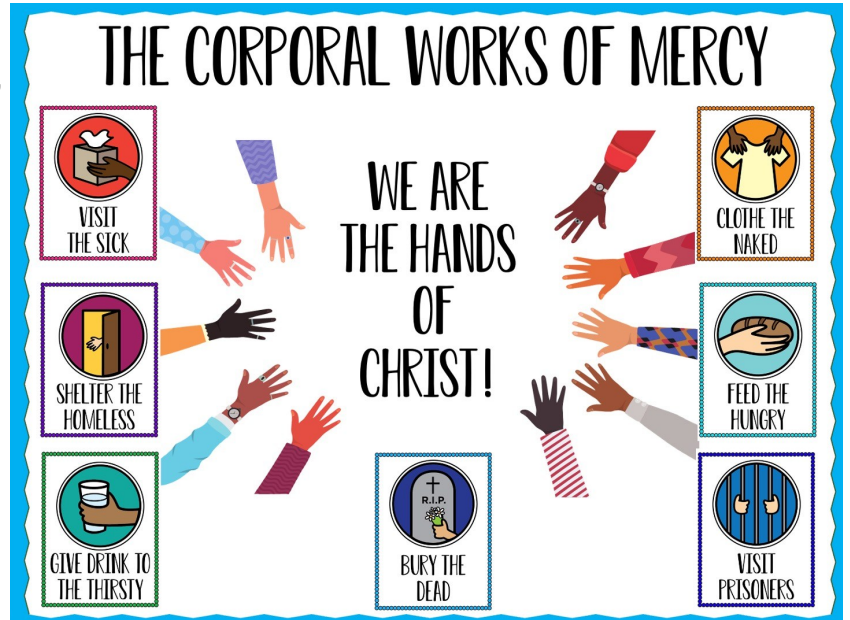

Our Works of Mercy also extend through a broad Social Ministry outreach that accompanies parishioners who are homebound, living in nursing homes, or facing significant hardship. Volunteers visit, pray with, and support those who cannot be physically present at church, ensuring they remain connected to the life of the parish.

2026 STRATEGIC PLAN

This ministry also provides practical assistance to our most vulnerable parishioners—those navigating illness, isolation, financial strain, or unexpected crises. In these quiet encounters, the parish becomes a lifeline of companionship, stability, and hope.

As these ministries grow, so does our responsibility. We are called to deepen our volunteer base, strengthen our partnerships, and continue building a parish culture where service is woven into the fabric of our identity. We are also working to integrate the Works of Mercy more intentionally into formation, liturgy, and community life so that every parishioner—children, teens, adults, and families—can find a meaningful way to put mercy into action.

In the weeks ahead, you'll see new opportunities to serve, new ways to get involved, and new invitations to live the Gospel in concrete, practical ways. Thank you for being a parish that cares deeply and acts boldly. Together, we can make mercy a defining mark of our parish life.

5) Sustainment

Leader: Joe Caruso

Every vibrant parish rests on a foundation that must be cared for with intention. Sustainment is one of the five pillars of our parish mission, and it focuses on the systems, structures, and practices that keep our parish strong, accountable, and able to grow. While much of this work happens behind the scenes, it is essential to the health of every ministry we offer.

Sustainment includes supporting ministry leaders with clear expectations, building processes that prevent burnout, and ensuring that our operations align with diocesan standards. It is about perseverance—making sure that what we build today can endure tomorrow.

A key part of this pillar is financial sustainment. Our parish's ability to serve, teach, welcome, and worship depends on the generosity of parishioners and the responsible stewardship of those resources. Financial sustainment is not simply about "keeping the lights on." It is about ensuring that:

- Ministries have what they need to flourish
- Outreach efforts can grow to meet real community needs
- Facilities remain safe, accessible, and welcoming
- Staff and volunteers are supported in their work
- Long-term planning is possible, not reactive

Financial transparency and accountability are central to this effort. As we strengthen this pillar, we will continue to communicate clearly about parish needs, priorities, and progress. Our goal is a parish where every family understands how their support—whether through time, talent, or treasure—directly fuels the mission.

This is quiet work, but it is holy work. Sustainment allows everything else—formation, liturgy, service, and hospitality—to thrive. Thank you for your continued dedication to our parish and for helping build a community that is not only active and prayerful, but also stable, responsible, and ready for the future.

WE ARE CALLED TO SHARE OUR TREASURE WITH OTHERS.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Lent is a special season in the Church when we turn our hearts back to God. It is a time to reflect, to grow, and to renew the promises made at our Baptism. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus meets the Samaritan woman at the well. Their conversation about water reminds us of the life-giving water of Baptism. Just as the woman was changed by her encounter with Jesus and went out to share the Good News, we too are called through our Baptism to know Jesus and share His love with others.

Take some time this week to talk about Baptism as a family. If you have photos, baptismal candles, garments, or other special mementos, bring them out and share memories of that joyful day. Talk about why Baptism is important and what it means to belong to God's family.

You may wish to create a small prayer space in your home with these items and a bowl of holy water. After your conversation, read together Gospel of John 4:5-42. Discuss how Jesus' meeting with the woman at the well is similar to Baptism:

- Jesus knows us completely and loves us.
- Jesus forgives our sins.
- We come to know Jesus as our Savior.
We are sent to share the Good News with others.

Church Walk is back!

We are excited to bring back the Holy Thursday Church Walk. This is a beautiful devotional tradition that takes place after the 7pm. Mass of the Lord's Supper in Monongahela. This prayerful pilgrimage will begin with prayer in Monongahela and continue with visits to our churches in Charleroi and Donora, and we'll also go visit churches in Belle Vernon and Monessen. We will spend some time in quiet prayer and reflection before the Blessed Sacrament at each location. Bus transportation will be provided. If you are interested in participating, please email Kathy Miller by March 27th at kmiller@saintandrewmidmon.org.
