"Believing in White Pine County for Over a Century"

As Catholics, we believe the Eucharist is the Presence of Christ and is therefore sacred. Eucharistic Adoration is time spent with Christ in the form of the Blessed Sacrament. It is time spent in serenity, in the warmth and love of His presence. It is time for experiencing the quiet and peace of praying before our Lord.

Whether the Eucharist is reposed inside the tabernacle or exposed – visible – in the monstrance, Adoration allows for placing ourselves in the presence of our Lord, a time set aside to worship either privately or in communion with others. The Real Presence of Christ is there before us and with us always. “The Eucharist is a priceless treasure: by not only celebrating it but also by praying before it outside of Mass we are enabled to make contact with the very wellspring of grace.”

POPE FRANCIS AT INTERNATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS: ‘LET’S MAKE TIME FOR ADORATION’

Pope Francis encouraged Catholics at the International Eucharistic Congress in Budapest to spend more time in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament to become more like Christ.

“Dear brothers and sisters, let us allow our encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist to transform us, just as it transformed the great and courageous saints you venerate,” Pope Francis said in his homily in Hungary on Sept. 12.

“We do well to spend time in adoration before the Eucharist in order to contemplate God’s weakness. Let’s make time for adoration,” the pope said.

Pope Francis is the first pope Eucharistic Congress since the live-streamed closing thousands gathered in “The Eucharist is here to re-not do so just in words, but God as bread broken, as love pope said.

“Today, as in the past, the tractive,” he said. “Yet it ing before the crucified Lord, rior struggle, a bitter conflict does’ and ‘thinking as hu-

The pope said that God’s ent from “the wisdom of the self-importance and power, success.”

“There is God’s side and the world’ side. The difference is not between who is religious or not, but ultimately between the true God and the ‘god of self,’ he said

“How different is Christ, who presents himself with love alone, from all the powerful and winning messiahs worshiped by the world. Jesus unsettles us; he is not satisfied with declarations of faith, but asks us to purify our religiosity before his cross, before the Eucharist.”

Pope Francis said that prayer in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament can be transformative.

“Let us allow Jesus the Loving Bread to heal us of our self-absorption, open our hearts to self-giving, liberate us from our rigidity and self-concern, free us from the paralyzing slavery of defending our image, and inspire us to follow him wherever he would lead us,” he said.
