Announcements

The Annual All Souls Novena will take place beginning Monday, October 25th and concluding on All Souls Day, November 2nd. A memorial table will be set up for pictures of your loved ones. Please bring a picture of your loved one, no larger than a 5 x 7 inches to be displayed on the memorial table. There is a basket on the bulletin table you may place your pictures in. Please make sure your name is on the back of the picture. Special Novena envelopes are on the bulletin table in the vestibule. You may place the names of your loved ones to be remembered on the envelope and place them on the altar.

Monday, November 1st is All Saints Day and a Holy Day of Obligation. There will be two Masses offered, 9:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

Attention Lector's and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion: Please take a moment and sign-up for either of the two masses offered on All Saints Day. Sign-up sheets are in the sacristy. Thank you.

The Second Collection this weekend is for World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering the revitalizing mission at the heart of our Christian Faith – to bring the Gospel to all! The Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity. Special envelopes are on the bulletin table.

We are scheduling Mass requests for 2022. Please call or stop by the office if you would like to schedule a mass for friends or family member.

World Mission Sunday - Second Collection

Please read and/or publish in conjunction with the World Mission Sunday Second Collection on October 23 & 24, 2021

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This October 23 & 24, we celebrate World Mission Sunday, within this Month of the Missions. It is an opportunity for all of us in the Diocese of Las Vegas to show our cooperation and solidarity with the mission Churches throughout the world. Our second collection on that Sunday, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, is a great sign of our Catholicity and of our common responsibility for the evangelization of the world.

This year, World Mission Sunday also marks our Diocese's liturgical celebration inaugurating preparation for the upcoming Synod of Bishops "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission". We are reminded that, as a synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, we are journeying together in mission.

We are all called through our Baptism to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, to plant, as we hear in the Holy Gospel today, the holy faith on the earth (Luke 18:8).

I thank you for your prayers, your most treasured gift to the missions. And thank you for your help and charity on this World Mission Sunday, supporting mission priests, religious sisters and brothers, and lay catechists, Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of his healing, love, and peace.

May the Lord bless you and your families for living, faithfully and generously, your vocation as baptized Catholics, loving Jesus and His Church.

Sincerely yours in the Risen Lord,

+ George Leo Thomas

Blessed Bonaventure of Potenza

DATES: 1651-1711 | FEAST DAY: OCTOBER 26

Carlo Antonio Lavagna, born in Potenza in the Kingdom of Naples, took the name Bonaventure when he joined the Conventual Friars Minor. Some of his actions, done in exact obedience to the friars' rule, were seen as miracles. Of his assignments, the most fruitful was eight years in Amalfi, where he focused on pastoral care and educating youths. Humility kept him from positions of authority within his community, except for master of novices. Especially devoted to the Immaculate Conception, he died at Ravello with Mary's name on his lips. He was beatified in 1775, and is among saints from the Neapolitan region whose blood has liquefied after death.
