THE ALTAR

A minute in the Church
The Mass, Gus Lloyd

Walk into any Catholic church and you'll notice that the focal point of the church is the altar. The altar is a large table, usually made of wood or stone or a combination thereof, where the sacrifice of the Mass is offered. In the old covenant animals were sacrificed on an altar. But in the New Covenant, the sacrifice of Christ is made present at every Mass on the altar.

In the early days of the Christian Church, altars were built over the final resting places of martyrs and saints. The Church wanted to keep a connection with those who had gone before in faith. Even today you'll still find many churches built over the tombs of martyrs and saints, including perhaps the most famous of all, St. Peter's in Rome.

As the Church grew and spread, this practice became all but impossible. But the connection with heroes of the faith and the altar continues. In the Latin rite, every fixed altar very well may contain a relic is contained within or under that altar, which is dedicated by a bishop.

For further study:

The altar is more than just a table. It is the table of the Lord!

WHAT IS A DEACON AND WHAT DOES HE DO?

2007, Rev. Michael A. Van Sloun

<https://www.archspm.org/faith-and-discipleship/catholic-faith/what-is-a-deacon-and-what-does-he-do/>

The word "deacon" is derived from the Greek words diakonia, service, and diakonos, variously translated as servant, helper, attendant, or minister. Phil 1:1 acknowledges the evolving concept of diaconal ministry in the early Church, and 1 Tim 3:8-10,12-13 lists the necessary qualifications for the office of deacon once it had become more formally established.

The diaconate, deacon, is conferred by a bishop by the laying on of hands, and it is one of the three degrees of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. The other two degrees are the Presbyterate, priesthood, and the episcopate, bishop. The diaconate is a degree of service, while the presbyterate and the episcopate are degrees of priesthood. Deacons, then, are ordained clergy who are not priests, and their special role is to assist priests.

A deacon assists the priest at Mass when he offers the invocations of the Penitential Rite, proclaims the Gospel, preaches the homily occasionally, reads the petitions of the General Intercessions, receives the gifts, prepares the altar, assists with incensing, gives instructions regarding posture and movement, distributes Holy Communion, and dismisses the Assembly.

A deacon assists the priest outside of Mass when he administers the Sacrament of Baptism; brings Viaticum to the dying; presides for prayer services; officiates at wakes, funerals, and burial services; and witnesses marriages. Deacons are able to bless religious articles.

As ministers of service, there are many options for deacons to perform charitable good works: outreach to the poor; the visitation of the sick, either at home, in nursing homes, or in hospitals; the care of inmates in prisons and jails; the teaching of sacramental preparation and religious education classes; and various administrative duties; just to name some of the major roles.

A permanent deacon must be at least thirty-five years of age, have completed his Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation), been installed as a Lector and an Acolyte, and completed a thorough formation program. If a candidate for the diaconate is married, he must receive the consent of his wife before he is eligible for ordination. Once ordained, if the deacon's wife should die, the deacon is not eligible for remarriage.
