16th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me."

- Lk 10:38-40

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish is a welcoming, diverse, urban community of believers, united by our strong Catholic Faith. Through family centered and spirit-filled worship, education, outreach and generous service to the poor and homeless of our community we are called to proclaim and live out the Gospel in our contemporary world.

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

One of the important elements to a strong and healthy church is its hospitality. Often people will tell me that they feel welcomed here at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. They feel there is a sense of warmth and friendliness. Now, no church is perfect but I do feel that we do try to be a welcoming church. I thank God for that quality.

The Scriptures for this Sunday have a lot to do with hospitality. In the Old Testament, Abraham and Sarah offer hospitality to three travelers and later we know they were blessed.

In the Gospel, Martha and Mary offered hospitality to Jesus. Martha with her cooking skills and Mary with her listening to Jesus.

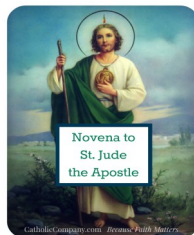

I always thank God for both Martha and Mary. If Martha didn't prepare a terrific meal for Jesus, his visit would have lacked a great homemade meal. Thank God for Mary. Her love to listen was such a blessing.

We need both Martha and Mary in each of us. We want to be good servants but we also need to be good listeners to all we come in contact with in life.

The question is: Are you more Martha or Mary? The spiritual life is made up of both: prayer and service. Let us try to bring both into our life. Finally, thank you for being a hospitable church family here at Our Lady of Guadalupe.

God bless all of you.

Fr. Tony

Summer Novena-Just a reminder to put on your calendar our upcoming Novena from July 26 thru Aug. 3rd. Fr. Richard Sudlik, OMI, a former associate here at Our Lady of Guadalupe will be our guest preacher.

Fr. Richard comes to us from our Retreat House in Minnesota. His theme is: Pilgrims of Hope. What better way to make this summer uplifting for you? Please join us.

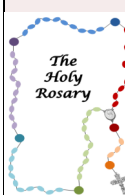

Second Collection this Sunday is for the Black and Native American Fund. This fund also supports projects here at Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Fr. Tony will be away next Sunday for a week in Buffalo, New York. Fr. Richard, who is leading our Summer Novena, will be here as well as Fr. Emanuel.

Baby Bottle Campaign---please return your baby bottles by next week. This campaign supports the Women's Life Center in helping pregnant women prior to the baby's birth and afterwards. Place the baby bottles in the front on the altar steps.

Thanks so much to Joe Casanova. Joe donated this beautiful angel statue. It is a perfect addition to our garden.

Pray the Rosary-in every apparition the Blessed Mother asks that we pray the Rosary for Peace. Today we need peace throughout the world. Prior to each Mass let us pray the rosary for peace during these days.

If you or someone you know in Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish is homebound or hospitalized and would like to receive Holy Communion, please notify Fr. Tony 504 525-1551 .

OCIA-if you or someone you know is interested in finding out more about the Catholic Faith: We begin our Rite of Christian Initiation Sessions once again in September. Please call or see Fr. Tony or Lydwina Hurst (504-650-7172)

Oblate Associates will meet after the 7AM Mass on Saturday, July 26th. Fr. Sudlik will be our guest speaker. Breakfast will be served. All are invited to join the Associates.

Just a reminder: although summer time has come and many will be on vacation, please don't take a vacation from worshipping at Mass. The Church doesn't close during the summer months. Jesus awaits us every Sunday throughout the year.

Our Parish Council and the Scholarship Committee are sponsoring the annual school supply give away here at St. Jude Church. The giveaway will be held the first weekend in August. If you would like to donate please contact Eleanora Bazile-Brooks 504-220-0177 .
