Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

Today we welcome Fr. Jude, a Claretian Missionary that will speak at all the Masses. The second collection will bless the Missions that are served by the Claretian Fathers. Please be generous.

In today's Gospel Jesus says to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!" He goes on to tell us that, when one follows Him, there may be divisions even within their own families.

These words of Jesus are so true today. When one is on fire with their faith and wanting to follow Jesus completely, there is often conflict with the world we live. The values of Jesus are often in conflict with the values and morals that we see around us. This is truly a challenge to anyone who takes their faith seriously.

Jesus calls us not to be afraid----- be faithful and true to His message. He knows the challenges that we will face, but the grace and power of the Holy Spirit will be with us. We hear the statement: "Be true to yourself". True peace comes to us when we follow the truth and Jesus is the TRUTH.

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Tony

As we pray for a safe Hurricane Season, we remember the twentieth Anniversary of Katrina on Aug. 29th. Join us at Mass on Friday, Aug. 29th to ask for a protection from Hurricanes.
