Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

Once again in the Gospel Jesus teaches His powerful message through a parable. Today He shares the story of a dinner that He was invited to attend. He observed that people wanted places of honor. They wanted to be recognized.

Jesus reminds us that those who exalt themselves will one day be humbled and those who humble themselves will be exalted. He reminds us not to exclude anyone from the supper. In ancient times, the poor, the lame and the blind were excluded from worship in the temple. They would be unacceptable dinner guests for the Pharisees.

Jesus challenges us to be inclusive at the banquet of the Lord. He challenges us to welcome everyone into God's family, especially the poor, the marginalized, the immigrant and refugees.

The question that each of us must ask ourselves is: Do I exclude anyone from my life because they are different from myself? In the family prayer that we recite each week, we pray for an end to racism. Do I work and truly pray for unity among all God's People?

This Labor Day, may the Lord's presence refresh, renew and restore you!

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Tony
