Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

Today's Gospel has always been a difficult one for me. Jesus is speaking to the crowds about those who desire to follow Him. His words seem out of character for Jesus. He tells them that you can't be my follower unless you make Him as our first priority. He uses the word 'Hate'. I was always taught never to use the word hate. In this passage the word really means to love less than.

Jesus is saying, we must love first and foremost His message. What He was reminding them is to look at your priorities: first comes God, then your family and then friends. My Dad always taught us this. If God is number one in our life, everyone else fits in perfectly. Sad to say, many people don't have their priorities in order and even their families suffer because of this. So often people place money, position and possessions above their own families. This can be destructive.

Jesus calls each of us today to evaluate how priorities. Who and what is most important in our life. There is a passage in Scripture: "Where your treasure is, there is your heart." We will always act according to what is most important in our life. May following Jesus be number one in each of our lives.

God bless you,
Fr. Tony

Pre-Cana...Our next Day for the Engaged is October 4th, all couples being married here at Our Lady of Guadalupe are required to attend one of the Days for the Engaged. Please call Fr. Tony to register for more information .

This Monday, Sept. 8th is the Feast of the Birth of the Blessed Mother. We are truly blessed to have Fr. Pedro Nunez here for a special Mass at 3PM in the Church. We will celebrate Our Lady of Charity. In the beginnings of our church many immigrants arrived from Cuba. They lived in Iberville Projects. They worshiped here and contributed one of the stained-glass windows in our church. Recently a statue of Our Lady of Charity, their patron, was donated by the Arredondo Family in memory of their parents who came from Cuba. This statue will be blessed at this Mass. Please join us for this special Mass and get the word out to everyone you know.

God of love, We thank you for our wonderful grandparents. They bring such joy and happiness into our lives. Thank you for all the special times that we have with them. Please watch over them, protect them and care for them now. May they know your goodness and love always.
