"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?"

- Lk 16:10-11

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish is a welcoming, diverse, urban community of believers, united by our strong Catholic Faith. Through family centered and spirit-filled worship, education, outreach and generous service to the poor and homeless of our community we are called to proclaim and live out the Gospel in our contemporary world.

September 21, 2025

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

The Gospel for this weekend is about Honesty and Trust. When I share with couples preparing for marriage, I always share that one thing that is important is that you both have the same values. If you value honesty and trust and your partner lacks that value, you are in trouble.

Honesty and trust is the foundation for a strong, healthy relationship. Today we hear about the dishonest steward. Jesus reminds us that the person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones. Likewise, the person who is dishonest in very small matters is dishonest in great ones.

In the world we live in, we meet many people who are not as honest and trustworthy. Oftentimes, money and power blind their value system. Jesus ends today's Gospel by saying: "You cannot serve both God and money." The question for each of us is: Whom do you and I serve? This will make the difference in how we live and treat others.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Tony
