Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

Once again on this Sunday, the core of today's readings calls us to look at the way we treat our sisters and brothers, especially the poor.

In the Book of Amos, we hear the Lord saying: "Woe to you who eat, drink and are merry, and forget those around you who are starving and less fortunate." Woe means shame on you.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the Pharisees the story of Lazarus, the poor man lying at the door of a rich man. The rich man everyday would walk over Lazarus while leaving his home. The rich man never abused Lazarus. He never harmed him. What was his greatest sin is that he just ignored the poor man.

In the end, Lazarus is now in Heaven and the rich man never makes it. He wants the Lord to remind his brothers, who are still on earth, not to ignore those in need.

Our city is filled with many like Lazarus. Just look outside our church and throughout the city. Alone we can't solve the homeless situation. We can't go on a guilt trip every time we see someone homeless. But let us never ignore the problem. What can I do to support efforts to provide housing, mental health centers and addiction programs that are so desperately needed in our city?

St. Jude is the Saint for the Hopeless. May our Patron Saint guide us in our efforts to touch the many, like Lazarus, we see each day.

Have a Blessed Week,
Fr. Tony

The Knights of Peter Claver Ladies Auxiliary, will be selling cold cups, hotdogs and baked goods after the 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Masses today. Please support our efforts as the Ladies are raising funds to upgrade the dining room in the Rectory. Thank you.

Confirmation Preparation for all Juniors and Seniors in High School: Our next session will be on Sunday, Oct. 5th after the 9:30AM Mass in the Rectory. Confirmation is the Sacrament that gives us the strength of the Holy Spirit. Today, more than ever, we need the gifts of the Holy Spirit to guide and protect us.

Pre-Cana...Our next Day for the Engaged is October 4th, all couples being married here at Our Lady of Guadalupe are required to attend one of the Days for the Engaged. Please call Fr. Tony to register for more information.

ESL Classes- once again classes in English as a Second language will begin on Sundays after the 1:30PM Spanish Mass in the St. Jude Hall. We are looking for more volunteers as well as anyone interested in taking ESL Class. Please contact Ingrid or Fr. Tony for more information.

Ordination—On Saturday, Nov. 8th, Bro. Henry Zayamore, OMI, will be ordained to the priesthood. Bro. Henry was with us for his year of internship. He will be ordained in Buffalo, NY at his home parish. We are planning on attending. If anyone is interested in joining us, please let Fr. Tony know. We are in the process of finding out prices for travel and hotel. Bro. Henry will celebrate a Mass here a few weeks after his ordination. Keep him in prayer.
