Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

Alleluia! After this past Lent we finally say loudly and clearly----Alleluia! Jesus is Risen! Jesus has conquered sin and death and has brought us new life.

Today is a day for HOPE. St. Paul tells us that 'if Jesus did not rise from the dead, our faith is in vain'. We live at a time where many have a sense of hopelessness. We are surrounded by bad news with the wars going on in the world. Many of us have our own fears and worries. We feel like we are going through a continual Good Friday.

Jesus came to lead us from Good Friday to Easter Sunday. Our faith and trust in the Lord will bring us strength and hope during these difficult times. St. Paul also tells us that: "Hope never disappoints".

My prayer for all of us this Easter is that we never lose Hope. Hope keeps us going each day. Easter brings our world HOPE.....may we never stop saying ---- Alleluia!

God bless all of you,
Fr. Tony

Please welcome all those who will become full members of our church family this Easter—
