Sainte Anne Parish

Sainte Anne Parish is a faith community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We strive to live up to the motto: "We Are Family." We see ourselves as a local expression of the universal Church, the People of God, the Body of Christ. Through God's grace we seek to be welcoming and loving. Our life centers on the weekend celebration of the Eucharist. We meet Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and are then challenged to bring His love to others.

His Mercy Endures: Scott Hahn Reflects on Divine Mercy Sunday

Readings:

Acts 2:42–47

Psalm 118:2–4, 13–15, 22–24

1 Peter 1:3–9

John 20:19–31

We are children of Jesus' Resurrection from the dead. Through this wondrous sign of His great mercy, the Father of Jesus has given us new birth, as we hear in today's Epistle.

Today's First Reading sketches the "family life" of our first ancestors in the household of God (see 1 Peter 4:17). We see them doing what we still do—devoting themselves to the Apostles' teaching, meeting daily to pray and celebrate "the breaking of the bread."

The Apostles saw the Lord. He stood in their midst, showed them His hands and sides. They heard His blessing and received His commission—to extend the Father's mercy to all peoples through the power and Spirit He conferred upon them.

We must walk by faith and not by sight, must believe and love what we have not seen (see 2 Corinthians 5:7). Yet the invisible realities are made present for us through the devotions the Apostles handed on.

Notice the experience of the risen Lord in today's Gospel is described in a way that evokes the Mass.

Both appearances take place on a Sunday. The Lord comes to be with His disciples. They rejoice, listen to His Word, receive the gift of His forgiveness and peace. He offers His wounded body to them in remembrance of His Passion. And they know and worship Him as their Lord and their God.

Thomas' confession is a vow of faith in the new covenant. As promised long before, in the blood of Jesus we can now know the Lord as our God and be known as His people (see Hosea 2:20–25).

This confession is sung in the heavenly liturgy (see Revelation 4:11). And in every Mass on earth we renew our covenant and receive the blessings Jesus promised for those who have not seen but have believed.

In the Mass, God's mercy endures forever, as we sing in today's Psalm. This is the day the Lord has made—when the victory of Easter is again made wonderful in our eyes.

Then let us feast this Easter Day on Christ, the bread of heaven.
The word of grace has purged away the old and evil leaven.
In Christ alone our souls will feed; faith lives upon no other! Alleluia!

Martin Luther, Sixteenth century

Due to the Covid-19 outbreak, we have postponed the 500 Club drawings for March and April. We will restart the drawings when the church opens up again and will make up all missed drawings at that time. Thanks for your patience during this pandemic.

God bless you all,

GRATITUDE TO ALL

Dear Holy People of God, I wish to take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude to all who, in spite of the physical shutdown of the Church doors, have made it a point of duty to continue to drop off or mail their weekly contributions to our parish family. These contributions prevent us from permanently shutting our doors!

From the bottom of my heart, I say, thank you. Thank you for your love for our beloved parish family, which urges you to continue to support our family in these very difficult and challenging times for our world and our Church-family. Please continue to think of us, especially as without the weekly offertory, we cannot exist, and hence, going without offertory these weeks, is leaving us in a very challenging state regarding the payment of bills and salaries, even with a reduction in working hours. - Fr. Maurice
