Sainte Anne Parish

Sainte Anne Parish is a faith community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We strive to live up to the motto: "We Are Family." We see ourselves as a local expression of the universal Church, the People of God, the Body of Christ. Through God's grace we seek to be welcoming and loving. Our life centers on the daily celebration of the Eucharist. We meet Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and are then challenged to bring His love to others.

Dear Holy People of God,

Praise be Jesus Christ, Now and Forever, Amen!

I wish to continue our Catechesis on Prayer. Last Sunday, we ended with the Scene of Meeting or the Scene of Encounter in Contemplative Prayer, wherein, I am caught by the gaze of the Lord. Now, this might be a difficult moment to sustain in Contemplative Prayer, for the obvious reason that we are not used to allowing ourselves to be caught by the gaze of the Lord. Oftentimes when we go into prayer, we say things to the Lord, we express ourselves to the Lord. This is essentially what constitutes Vocal Prayer, which, in my opinion, is the first grade of prayer. But as I have pointed out in these writings on prayer, Vocal Prayer, though foundational, should not be the end of our experience of prayer. Like other things in life that develop, so should prayer be - always developing.

The Moment of Gaze, when the Lord's gaze catches ours and ours catches his, is the moment of identity and recognition. The Lord is looking at me; I am looking at the Lord. I am not just a nameless person in the crowd. This is important, in that it points to something special about the Christian faith, namely, that Jesus is interested in saving every singular person. I am not lost in the crowd. I might be sitting in a crowded space, but I am not just an insignificant presence. At this point, I am reminded of the parable of the man who finds a treasure in a field and goes and sells all he has to buy that field. Each human being is a treasure that God seeks to buy. Even if God had created only you alone, God would have still sent his Son Jesus Christ, to save you. I am likewise reminded of the woman who misplaces a coin, sweeps clean her whole house in search of the coin, and when she finds it, invites the neighbors to celebrate, because the coin she lost has been found. In many ways, most of us are lost coins that the Lord is searching for, and the season of Lent details this out for us: the Lord searches for us, a search that leads him to the hill of Calvary. In addition, I am also reminded of the Good Shepherd that leaves behind the ninety-nine sheep in search of the one lost sheep. Is he not risking more by leaving behind the ninety-nine for the one lost sheep? Perhaps many of us are that lost sheep, and the Lord shows us the true measure of his love for us, the measure of God's love, which is to love without measure.

Dear Holy People of God, the Moment of Gaze might be discomfoting for some of us, perhaps, for many of us. My experience of Contemplative Prayer has been such that at this point, I feel naked before the gaze of the Lord. I know that the Lord looks at me and sees through me. There is nothing I can hide from him. Let's assume that the Moment of Gaze takes place just after Jesus has restored Simon Peter's mother-in-law to health. I have placed myself at the home of Simon. I have seen the healing. Jesus has been going round the sitting room greeting people. And Jesus comes to me. Jesus stops. He looks at me. I am looking at him. I can see immediately that Jesus is able to see through me. Perhaps I am feeling uneasy about Jesus' gaze, for I recognize that I am unable to conceal anything from Jesus. I can conceal things from my wife, husband, father, mother, children, friends, etc., but something in me tells me that I cannot conceal anything from Jesus. I can even conceal things from myself by pretending that it never happened, and that all is fine with me. But I cannot conceal it from God, for God knows all and God sees all.

This is what is peculiar about the Moment of Gaze, in Contemplative Prayer, and that is, the Moment of Gaze turns to the Moment of Truth. As human beings, we have the tendency to live in denial of the facts of our lives. Denial, in many cases, is a survival mechanism. Denial can be a safety net. Denial shields us from uncomfortable situations. As kids, sometimes even before Mom or Dad asked who did this, we quickly said, "not I, Mom, not I, Dad." Even Simon Peter employed denial as a survival strategy: "I do not know the man," Peter said, when told he too was a disciple of Jesus. But it served him only for a portion of the night! To be honest with you, I too have employed denial severally to save myself from embarrassing situations, especially growing up under the watchful eyes of a mom who was such a disciplinarian, with a cane kept under her bed for corporal discipline. But here am I, at this point, facing this Rabbi, this famous man of God, who is looking at me with eyes that tell me that I should give up living in denial, that denial might have served me in the past, but I need to grow up, and part of growing up is facing the music of my life, confronting the hard facts of life, not running away, not pretending that they are not there, not turning a blind eye. Life can be tough. I don't know about you. I can't pretend to know about you. But speaking for myself, there are days I get into bed tired and get up tired. There are days the challenges I have to face and the problems I have to solve, just don't give me the energy to get out of bed. And it can be easier to say: this is not happening. But the reality is, it is happening. The reality is that I do not always get what I want, that life doesn't always go the way I would love it to, that bad things happen to good people, and that, sometimes, and many times, life is what happens to me when I am busy planning about life. Isn't it ironic that we spend so much time planning about life that we do not have the time to live life?

Therefore, in Contemplative Prayer, the Moment of Gaze that turns into the Moment of Truth becomes the Moment of Help, as, for the first time, I hear Jesus say to me: What do you want me to do for you? At this point, a realization begins to consume me: The Gaze of the Lord, the Moment of Gaze, was not accusatory, judgmental or condemnatory. Jesus does not look at me to condemn me. The Moment of Gaze that becomes the Moment of Truth that changes into the Moment of Help is, in the final analysis, the Moment of Mercy and Love. Dear Holy People of God, at this point, our prayer moment starts to make sense to us, starts to reveal something to us, that we might have overlooked before now. (To be continued, Fr. Maurice).

RESOURCES FOR LENT

Looking for resources to grow in your faith this Lent? Visit our website at <https://stannesalem.org/resources-for-lent> for links and information on various ways to prepare for the Lenten season. There are weekly reflections from Bishop Barron, free Lenten streaming events such as Dr. Scott Hahn's Scripture study - Parousia - The Bible and the Mass, the Saint John's Seminary's virtual Lenten Retreat - Journey with St. Joseph, Our Spiritual Father, videos from Ascension Press, and more, including:

- ◆ Hallow - Catholic prayer app offering some free resources for users
- ◆ Options for streaming Virtual Adoration
- ◆ Resources for Prayer and Faith Formation at Home
- ◆ How to Go to Confession

- ◆ Lenten Calendars
- ◆ Fasting and Abstinence Guidance

Additionally, Cardinal Sean will again be offering a Lenten retreat from March 22-26, which will air on CatholicTV. More information to come.

Our Lenten Parish Retreat begins on Sunday, February 28, 2021. The retreat will take place in the church from 7-8PM and will include Vespers, Scripture, Reflection and Benediction (Tool: Ste. Anne's Book of Prayers). We hope you will join us as we share our Lenten journey together.

CATHOLIC APPEAL

Next weekend, parishes across the Archdiocese will launch the annual Catholic Appeal, which provides necessary funding for the more than 50 ministries that serve our parishes, schools, and communities, helping us all live our faith together. This is our Church, and when you support the Catholic Appeal, you are directly supporting our parish and all those who turn to our Church for assistance. Visit bostoncatholicappeal.org to learn more or make a donation.

Pledges to date: $1,625.

FY2021 Ste. Anne's Faith Formation - the CORI Process for Parishes

Who needs a CORI check? The Archdiocese of Boston requires that all clergy, including those not serving in a parish, and all parish staff (full and part-time), together with all volunteers (18 years of age and older) who minister to or have the potential for unmonitored access to children, youth, elderly, or the disabled, undergo a CORI check. A "CORI check" is an individual's submission of his/her completed CORI Request Form to the Parish Coordinator in accordance with this policy. Examples of those ministries that must undergo a CORI check include, but are not limited to, ministries to the dying, music ministry, religious education, parish health care, youth ministry, and parish-chartered Boy Scouts/Girl Scouts. The CORI check is done yearly. Forms will be included in the bulletin, on the table at the Cleveland Street entrance to the church. All completed forms must be left in the mailbox at the Pastoral Center (school) by March 5th. Please contact Charlene Carrier at 978.744.1930 ext 201 or email Charlene.carrier25@gmail.com with any questions. Thank you for your cooperation.

Support the Church around the World

This week's second collection will support the Church in those underdeveloped areas of the world where there are insufficient resources for evangelization and formation, and help to restore the Church and build the future in more than 25 countries still struggling to recover from former communist rule. Catholic Relief Services (CRS), the Church in Africa and in Central and Eastern Europe, and three important national Catholic missions: the Military Archdiocese, Home Missions, and the Black and Indian Missions. Your generosity to this collection will help fund the spiritual, educational and humanitarian needs of the Church around the world. For more information about each of these organizations go to their websites.

*Please note: if you currently use weekly Offertory envelopes, please disregard the envelope attached to the bulletin for the second collection. The Catholic Relief Services Collection is included on the Second Collection envelope. The envelope attached to the bulletin is meant for people who do not have weekly envelopes. Thank you.

Ste. Anne's Parish Pastoral Council

On Saturday, February 13, 2021, Ste. Anne's Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) held a closed meeting via Zoom. Here are the highlights of the meeting:

- The PPC acknowledged the nomination of Judy Ware, by Fr. Maurice, to serve as the new Chairperson of the Finance Council from February 1, 2021, as well as the nomination of John Paul Bossé to replace Judy Ware on the PPC. Fr. Casmir Bello, a resident priest and student at Boston College, was welcomed by the PPC.
- The PPC expressed its profound gratitude to Judy Ware for all the services she rendered as Secretary of the PPC for more than one year. The PPC looks forward to collaborating with the Finance Council to advance our pastoral activities.
- John Paul Bossé was elected as the new Secretary of the PPC.
- On other matters, the PPC was given updates of the plan to upgrade and modernize an audiovisual system for the main church; approved the Parish Lenten Program; reviewed a draft of a new Welcome Booklet for Sainte Anne's Church; and endorsed plans to invite heads of ministries, groups, or communities to make presentations to the PPC bimonthly meetings to help promote and encourage new volunteers.
- The next Pastoral Council Meeting is scheduled for Saturday, April 10, 2021. The agenda will include a discussion of Religious Education in our parish.

Easter Flowers and Decorations

It's that time again, we ask you to make a donation in memory of a loved one so that we can purchase the necessary flowers and decorations. The names of your loved ones will be listed in a bulletin insert and we ask that they be remembered in all our prayers. Please mark an envelope Flower Donation. Drop the envelope in the collection basket or bring it to the Parish Center. Easter donation in memory of:
