

Sainte Anne Parish

Celebrating 120 Years as a Catholic Community in Salem, MA

“We Are Family”

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

James 1:27

Sainte Anne Parish is a faith community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We strive to live up to the motto: "We Are Family." We see ourselves as a local expression of the universal Church, the People of God, the Body of Christ. Through God's grace we seek to be welcoming and loving. Our life centers on the daily celebration of the Eucharist. We meet Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and are then challenged to bring His love to others.

The Fruits of the Eucharist (Fr. Denis Tameh)

The importance of the Holy Mass in the life of the Church and especially in the life of each individual Christian can be summarized in the words of St. Lawrence Justinian: "No human tongue can enumerate the favors that trace back to the sacrifice of the Mass. The sinner is reconciled with God the just man becomes more upright; sins are wiped away; vices are uprooted; virtue and merit increases; and the devil's schemes are frustrated." Just like all the other sacraments of the Church, the Holy Mass allows us to enjoy the gift of grace as we participate more in the life of God (CCC, 1997).

When we participate at Mass, it augments our union with Christ. Christ says in the Gospel of Jn 6:56: 'He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him.' This expresses that communion with God, our deification or sanctification as we participate more and more in the life of God. For the Mass is as valuable as the death of Jesus on the cross. And by his death, we are made heirs and partakers in his kingdom, by his death we can now dare to call God father. Communion at Mass, therefore, makes us one with God. Just as the bodily food we eat produces life in us, so too with communion, it produces the spiritual life in us. It becomes a communion with the flesh of the risen Christ, a flesh given life and giving life through the Holy Spirit (CCC, 1392). It is the communion with Christ that makes us grow in love and so understand perfectly, the words of dismissal, 'Ite Missa est,' as an invitation to spread the love of God. St. John Mary Vianney said, "When we have been to Holy Communion, the balm of love envelops the soul as the flower envelops the bee." And that love is a result of communion with he who is love himself.

Holy communion separates us from sin. At consecration the priest while raising the bread says that the body is given up for us. And when he raises the chalice, he reminds us that the blood we drink is shed for the many and for the forgiveness of sins. Thus, if we are to be united or in communion with Christ, we have to be free of sin and the Eucharist does that for us. It prepares us, cleanses us from past sins and preserves us from future sins (CCC,1393). St. Augustin said in this regard, "He who devoutly hears Mass will receive a great vigor to enable him to resist the mortal sin, and there shall be pardoned to him all venial sins which he may have committed up to that hour." St. Ambrose explains why Holy Communion forgives us our sins. He writes: "For as often as we eat this bread and drink the cup, we proclaim the death of the Lord. If we proclaim the Lord's death, we proclaim the forgiveness of sins. If, as often as his blood is poured out, it is poured for the forgiveness of sins, I should always receive it, so that it may always forgive my sins. Because I always sin, I should always have a remedy" (CCC, 1393). How does the Mass wipe away venial sins? The Catechism (1394, 1395) explains that the Eucharist strengthens our charity, which tends to be weakened in daily life; and this living charity wipes away venial sins as taught by the Council of Trent. By giving himself to us Christ revives our love and enables us to break our disordered attachments to creatures and root ourselves in him. By token of the same charity, the Eucharist preserves us from future mortal sins. For the more we share in the life of Christ, the more difficult it becomes to break away from him by mortal sin. It should however be noted that the Eucharist is not ordered to the forgiveness of mortal sin; that is proper to the sacrament of confession, rather it acts as a barrier, a prevention from engaging in it because of our closeness to Christ, it is a beautiful fence or line of defense, a safety zone that keeps us far away from the clutches of sin by reminding us of our closeness to God. The words of Pope Benedict XV makes greater sense with this background in mind. He said: "The Holy Mass would be of greater profit if people had it offered in their lifetime, rather than having it celebrated for the relief of their souls after death." If the Mass can forgive our past sins and help prevent future ones, why do we have to wait for death to pray for each other and our loved ones? Why not pray for them when they are still alive and able to receive the benefits of the Mass?

The Eucharist makes the unity of the Mystical Body. The words of St. Paul in his first letter to the Corinthians make us understand the link between the participant in communion and the Church. He asks: "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread." (1 Cor 10: 16-17) When we receive the Eucharist, we are more united with Christ and through that unity, Christ now unites all who partake of that Eucharist in one body, the Church. Thus, we can say that the Eucharist makes the church (CCC, 1396). In the Eucharist, the union with Christ attained at baptism is renewed, deepened and strengthened. Therefore, whenever we receive the body of Christ, it is in the bosom of the Church. Saint Augustin reflected: "If you are the body and members of Christ, then it is your sacrament that is placed on the table of the Lord; it is your sacrament that you receive. To that which you are you respond 'Amen' (yes, it is true) and by responding to it, you assent to it. For you hear the words, 'the Body of Christ' and respond 'Amen'. Be then a member of the Body of Christ that your Amen may be true." (Sermo, 272). In this way the Church becomes a concrete reality built around the table of the Eucharist where all of us participate in the body of Christ. If the Eucharist makes us sharers in the one body, therefore we ought to see each other as brothers and sisters including the poor. It commits us to each other because to receive in truth his body and blood given up for us, we must recognize him in the poor by being merciful (CCC,1397).

With these fruits of the Mass, we should approach Mass then with a newfound joy as the saints did. John Vianney would say: 'If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy.' And he was right because in the Mass we have the most perfect prayer, the greatest gift God has given to mankind and it would be easier for the world to survive without the sun than to do without Holy Mass (St. Padre Pio). In this timeless prayer we are not just remembering his death and resurrection, we are reliving it, entering into it and witnessing the pouring out of salvific graces on the world.

Dear Holy People of God,

Please join us the weekend of September 4, 2021 to hear Rev. Robert W. Vujs speak at all of the Masses about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Father Vujs will share personal witness about Food For The Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another. Fr. Vujs was ordained on June 10, 1961 for the Maryknolls. Before joining Food For The Poor, Fr. Bob served over 40 years in Africa. Please join me in welcoming Father Vujs.

Parish Survey

Dear Holy People of God,

As we strengthen the mission of our parish, it would be appreciated if you could spend some time answering the questions in our Parish Survey. The survey is anonymous. Copies of the survey are available in church and on our website at www.stannesalem.org. Please take a moment to answer the survey and drop it in the box at church, return it to the Parish Office at 11 Cleveland Street, Salem, MA 01970 or send it via email to: stannesbulletin@gmail.com. Your opinion matters, please help us. Thank you, Fr. Maurice

Prayer to Begin a School Year

Back to School
Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart; you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways. At the beginning of this new school year we implore your mercy: bless our students, teachers, and staff, that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love as we learn from you and each other how to follow your Son Jesus. Expand the horizons of our minds, that we may grow in wisdom, understanding, and knowledge; deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways; and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need. Glory and praise to you, Lord God, in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever. Amen. [Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers, Revised Edition (Washington, DC: USCCB, 2007), USCCB 300.]

We Need Your Pictures!

The 120th Anniversary Committee is working on a photo montage of Ste. Anne's from its inception to the present day. We hope to incorporate important milestones that have occurred over the last 120 years, but we need your help!

We'd love to collect photos of the following events:

- ◆ Pictures of the original church building (built in 1901);
- ◆ Priests through the years;
- ◆ Pictures of any of the old buildings (Convent, Derby School, St. Anne's school, etc.);
- ◆ Pictures of the Sisters of St. Chretienne;
- ◆ Activities such as plays, ceremonies, banquets;
- ◆ Baptisms, First Communions, Confirmations, Graduations, Weddings;

- ◆ Pictures of the first Cameroon Mass at Ste. Anne's and other special events in the Cameroon community;
- ◆ Pictures of the first Congolese Mass at Ste. Anne's;
- ◆ Pictures from special feast days or celebrations in the various communities.

Our plan is to produce high quality digital images for presentation in a photo montage for the History Evening on November 12th. All pictures will be returned (please put your name on the back of the pictures and include an address for mailing them back). There will be a box in the back of church where you can leave your pictures, or you can mail them to Connie Kirby at 41 Sable Road, Salem, MA 01970 or email them to stannesbulletin@gmail.com (only high resolution pictures; not pictures of pictures). Please reach out to Connie Kirby with any questions (stannesbulletin@gmail.com).

Deadline for submission of pictures: October 10th

Inspiration for the week

What makes a person wise and intelligent? Certainly it is not the ability to memorize facts or minute details about a situation. What makes a person wise and intelligent is when their words and actions harmoniously unite and produce virtue. A person can know many facts and even do the right actions but still have a grave flaw in their character. We sometimes want to delude ourselves into thinking that as long as we are "doing" everything correctly, we are automatically in right relationship with all. Such is sadly not the case in the kingdom of God. We are called not to be just hearers of the Word, but doers as well. That means getting to the heart of what laws and rituals are meant to signify and nurture. If we do not bring the actions home, where they belong, and allow them to speak of the goodness, mercy, compassion, and love of God, then they are simply empty worthless gestures. Welcome the Word that has been planted within you so that you can be a truly wise and intelligent disciple of Jesus Christ. ©LPi
