Celebrating 120 Years as a Catholic Community in Salem, MA
[We Are Family]

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us.”

Mark 9:39-40

Sainte Anne Parish is a faith community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We strive to live up to the motto: "We Are Family." We see ourselves as a local expression of the universal Church, the People of God, the Body of Christ. Through God's grace we seek to be welcoming and loving. Our life centers on the daily celebration of the Eucharist. We meet Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and are then challenged to bring His love to others.

The Celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation (Fr. Denis Tameh)

Having seen what the sacrament of confirmation is, a sacrament of the Holy Spirit and how closely linked it is to the sacrament of baptism, we now turn our attention to the celebration of this sacrament. And we begin our exploration of the celebration of the sacrament by taking a closer look at what Anointing is in the Christian tradition.

Canon 880 states that the sacrament of confirmation is conferred by the anointing of chrism on the forehead, which is done by the imposition of hand and through the words prescribed in the approved liturgical books. The chrism to be used in the sacrament of confirmation must be consecrated by a bishop even if a presbyter administers the sacrament. This canonical statement on confirmation brings out the two essential elements of this sacrament, the imposition of hands and the anointing with oil. These are not two separate actions, but the church understands this to mean that the sacrament of confirmation is conferred through anointing with chrism on the forehead by the laying on of hands and through the words: Be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit (Paul VI, Divinae consortium naturae). In the Eastern Catholic Churches, not only the forehead is anointed with chrism or Myron but also the eyes, nose, ears, lips, breast, back, hands and feet. This is to signify union with Christ, like the union of a wild branch with a fruitful olive and it further gives the strength to fight against sin as in ancient times, the fighters would smear their bodies with oil. This anointing symbolizes the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. In the rite of confirmation, the bishop invokes the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in these words: ‘All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit... send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence...’ Thus the anointing with oil through the laying of hands is to make us mature and filled with these gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Why Anoint with Chrism or Myron? In the Eastern Catholic churches, the name Myron is used for chrism and the sacrament of confirmation is referred to as chrismation. Anointing in biblical and ancient symbolism is rich in meaning. In the Old Testament, Exodus 40: 9-15, we understand that everything that was anointed with oil was considered pure and sanctified. This oil also represented the healing power and presence of God as we realize in Leviticus 14: 14-18, that the priest smeared the oil of a person who was healed with leprosy. This oil signified therefore God’s forgiveness and purification or purging from sin. And these are all symbols which capture what happens in the sacrament of confirmation. In the healing power of the oil of chrism is the presence of the Holy Spirit and in this sacrament, we are strengthened in our Christian faith, healed and called to live a mature Christian life of commitment. The reason why olive oil is used for chrism also has deep biblical symbolism. The chrism oil used is a mixture of olive oil and balsam. Balsam is very fragrant and used in many perfumes. The oil squeezed out of olives was the most transparent, most brightly burning and durable of all oils, and therefore the purest and most perfect for anointing. In this oil, was seen the sign of abundance and joy (Deuteronomy 11:14, Psalm 23:5), it was seen as the oil that cleanses and limbers (anointing of the athletes and wrestlers), an oil that healed since it was used to soothe the bruised and wounded (Isaiah 1:6, Luke 10:34), this oil was used to make radiant with beauty, health and strength. Being anointed meant also being set apart to be used by God. That is why the messiah was referred to as the anointed one. It was also a sign of royalty as kings were anointed with this oil. These are the realities which the church captures in this sacrament with the use of oil in anointing. In confirmation those who are anointed share more completely in the mission of Christ and the fullness of the Holy Spirit with which he is filled so that their life may give off the aroma of Christ (2 Corinthians 2:15).

Thus, by this anointing at confirmation, the confirmandi receives the mark, the seal of the Holy Spirit. A seal which signifies that he or she has been claimed by God. For in ancient times soldiers were marked with their leader’s seal and slaves with their master’s. Confirmation therefore marks us as publicly belonging to God for all the world to see. Just as Christ was marked with his Father’s seal (John 6:27) so are we too Christians, for it is God who establishes us with you in Christ and has commissioned us; he has put his seal on us and given us his spirit in our hearts as a guarantee (2 Cor 1:21-22). Thus, the Rite summarizes the importance of the oil as such: “The chrism is a sign that Christians, incorporated by baptism into the paschal mystery of Christ, dying, buried and rising with him, are sharers in his kingly and prophetic priesthood and that by confirmation, they receive the spiritual anointing of the Spirit who is given to them.”

Given therefore the importance and rich symbolism of chrism and what it does to the Christian at confirmation, the Church reserves its consecration to the diocesan bishop. At the Chrism Mass, which is celebrated once a year on Holy Thursday, the bishop surrounded by his priests consecrates the oils to be used in the diocese including the oil of chrism, catechumenate and oil of the sick. The words of the consecration of the oil of chrism gives us already the deep theological meaning. In the Syriac liturgy of the Eastern Catholic Church, the patriarch who consecrates the oil prays as follows: ‘Father...send your Holy Spirit on us and on this oil which is before us and consecrate it, so that it may be for all who are anointed and marked with it holy Myron, priestly myron, royal Myron, anointing with gladness, clothing with light, a cloak of salvation, a spiritual gift, the sanctification of souls and bodies, imperishable happiness, the indelible seal, a buckler of faith and fearsome helmet against all the works of the adversary.’ In this prayer is a summary of the significance of the symbolism of oil in the Christian tradition. And with this in mind we understand why it is used at confirmation. Each priest, as a sign of that communion with the diocesan bishop carries the chrism consecrated by the bishop to use for the sacraments in his parish. In that way, the communion of the whole church is preserved.

Grandma's Attic (GA)

GOD is truly good to His faithful people at Ste. Anne's Parish. He bestowed his blessings upon us with decent weather, 356 shoppers, 44 volunteers who also shopped, an opening prayer and blessing by Fr. Maurice, and pre-sales of $1,026.50. Add that to sales on Saturday, September 18th of $5,864.50, totaling $6,891, providing merchandise from great donors, helping the community (university students, new residents in the neighborhood acquiring furniture and more people looking for a buy for themselves, or someone they love, some shop for less fortunate going from homeless into housing, a woman buying for a family member in a nursing home where clothing disappears, teachers gathering school supplies/crafting items and books, or yes even the "resellers" who use the phone apps to research and then buy at our LOW prices and resell online to make a profit for themselves). Just a few examples. ALL IS GOOD that comes from GOD. Grandma's Attic volunteers were off the week after the sale for a well deserved rest and will resume every Tuesday morning/Wednesday evening for the next 5 weeks to prepare for our last 2021 sale on Saturday, November 6th. Consider becoming involved. Make new friends, make an impact on the local community. Won't you help your parish? Let's work together to raise money to help with needed repairs to the House of the Lord. Thank you for all of our GA volunteers, Alma Pelleter 978.314.7344.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A college professor was frustrated with the pile of administrative paperwork that was required for a new project he was undertaking. He said that with his luck, he would find a cure for a dreaded disease and no one would look at it until he filled out the right forms and got all the necessary committee approvals. At times, red tape can halt the wheels of progress.

A man is using the Lord's name to cast out demons, but he is not one of the Apostles and they try to stop him, apparently without success. When they report to Jesus, He once again changes the focus. No one can do what the man does without believing in Jesus. His works reveal his faith and his faith is in the Lord. There is no class to take nor is faith an exclusive club. Anyone, and everyone, can proclaim, practice and witness to faith.

We can learn the lessons of faith from people we least expect and at times that seem most unlikely. If we reject the message because we do not like the messenger, we create our own red tape that halts the progress of faith. God never said you had to be perfect, good-looking, educated, rich, kind, faultless or ordained to carry the message of faith. The only requirement is to believe in Him.
