OUR MISSION

Sainte Anne Parish is a faith community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We strive to live up to the motto: "We Are Family." We see ourselves as a local expression of the universal Church, the People of God, the Body of Christ. Through God's grace we seek to be welcoming and loving. Our life centers on the daily celebration of the Eucharist. We meet Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and are then challenged to bring His love to others.

PENTECOST REFLECTION

What the Holy Spirit Brings to Us

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, which comes fifty days after Easter, and marks the end of the Easter season. A few days ago, we celebrated the Ascension of the Lord. Before he departed, Jesus had told his disciples not to leave Jerusalem until they received the promised gift of the Father – they were to be baptized with the Holy Spirit. (Acts 1:4-5). In obedience to Jesus's command, they remained in the Upper Room of Jerusalem, where “with one accord [they] devoted themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the Mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.” (Acts 1:14). This promised gift was dramatically poured on them, when “suddenly a sound like a mighty rushing wind [had come] from heaven and filled the whole house where the disciples were sitting. They saw tongues like flames of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.” (Acts 2:2-4). From that time till today the Holy Spirit has been active in the Church unceasingly. It is by the power of the Holy Spirit that men and women come to know and believe in God. “The Spirit prepares men and goes out to them with his grace, in order to draw them to Christ. The Spirit manifests the risen Lord to them, recalls his word to them and opens their minds to the understanding of his Death and Resurrection. He makes present the mystery of Christ, supremely in the Eucharist, in order to reconcile them, to bring them into communion with God, that they may bear much fruit.” (CCC 737). The Spirit also helps us to pray, it is “the master of prayer.” (CCC 741). “The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with sighs too deep for words.” (Rom 8:26).

Belief in the Holy Spirit is an article of our faith that we proclaim every time we profess our creed. Whenever we say, “I believe in the Holy Spirit” we are by this, professing that “the Holy Spirit is one of the persons of the Holy Trinity, consubstantial with the Father and the Son.” (CCC 685). As Christians, our first encounter with the Holy Spirit is usually during our Baptism, when it comes to kindle faith in us. “By virtue of our Baptism, the first sacrament of the faith, the Holy Spirit in the Church communicates to us, intimately and personally, the life that originates in the Father and is offered to us in the Son.” (CCC 683). In the sacrament of Confirmation, we receive “the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit as once granted to the apostles on Pentecost.” (CCC 1302). By this outpouring, the gifts of the Holy Spirit are increased and deepened in us.

The Holy Spirit brings to us seven-fold gifts: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

Wisdom enables us to see God at work in our lives and in the world. For the wise person, the wonders of nature, historical events, and the ups and downs of our lives take on deeper meaning. We see God as our Father and other people with dignity. The gift of Wisdom also strengthens our faith, fortifies hope, perfects charity, and promotes the practice of virtue in the highest degree.

Understanding helps us to comprehend how we need to live as a follower of Christ. A person with understanding is not confused by all the conflicting messages in our culture about the right way to live. Understanding also helps us to grasp the meaning of the truths of our Holy Religion.

Counsel (Right Judgment) endows our soul with supernatural prudence, enabling it to judge and know promptly the difference between right and wrong and choose to do what is right and must be done, especially in difficult circumstances. Counsel is supernatural common sense, a priceless treasure in the quest of salvation. A person with right judgment avoids sin and lives out the values taught by Jesus.

Fortitude (Courage) attains for us the firmness of mind that overcomes fear, we become willing to take risks as a follower of Jesus Christ and are ready to stand up for what is right in the sight of God, even if it means accepting rejection, verbal abuse, or even physical harm and death.

Knowledge enables the soul to evaluate created things at their true worth in their relation to God. Knowledge points out the only true purpose of created things as instruments in the service of God. It shows us the loving care of God even in adversity and directs us to glorify Him in every circumstance of life. Guided by its light, we prize the friendship of God beyond all else.

Piety (Reverence) begets in our hearts a deep sense of respect for God as our most loving Father. It inspires us to love and respect for His sake, all persons and things consecrated to Him, as well as those who are vested with His authority, His Blessed Mother and the Saints, the Church and its visible Head, our parents and superiors, our country and its rulers. He who is filled with the gift of Piety finds the practice of his religion, not a burdensome duty, but a delightful service. CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE...

CONTINUED...

Fear of the Lord (Wonder and Awe) makes us aware of the glory and majesty of God. A person with wonder and awe knows that God is the perfection of all we desire: perfect knowledge, perfect goodness, perfect power, and perfect love. This gift is described by Aquinas as a fear of separating oneself from God. He describes the gift as a "filial fear," like a child's fear of offending his father, rather than a "servile fear," that is, a fear of punishment. Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom (Prov 1:7) because it puts our mindset in its correct location with respect to God: we are the finite, dependent creatures, and He is the infinite, all-powerful Creator.

Our Blessed Mother took part in the prayers for the Spirit's coming. John Paul II expressed that in that prayer with Mary, we perceive her special mediation deriving from the fullness of the gifts of the Holy Spirit in her - she was already a "temple of the Holy Spirit" (LG 53) by her fullness of grace and by her divine motherhood. She thus cooperated "in the regeneration and formation" of the "brethren" of Christ, with her motherly love. Let us continue to seek her intercession as we desire the gifts and manifestation of the Holy Spirit in our lives, our families, our parish community, the universal and Church, and the world at large.

Come Holy Spirit, fill our hearts with your gifts and enkindle in us the fire of your love.

Happy Pentecost!! (Fr. Casmia Bello)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

June 5 ~ Pentecost Sunday

Each Pentecost, we hear the story of the Holy Spirit descending on the disciples and Peter's powerful speech witnessing to Christ. The scripture readings remind us that Pentecost is an event not just of the past but also of the present. We received the Holy Spirit at Baptism and Confirmation, when the Spirit poured out on us a variety of gifts to put at the service of others. The message is as clear and as relevant today as it was for Peter. Jesus is sending us to share the good news! If you are worried about what to say - rely on the Holy Spirit, who promises to give us what we need. "Come Holy Spirit; fill the hearts of your faithful!"

Our Sunday Family Meal

Year of the EUCHARIST At the request of Cardinal Seán, the closing of the Year of the Eucharist comprises four parts: 1) Jesus is Here for Youth and Young Adults on Friday, June 17th at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross; 2) Jesus is Here, Archdiocese of Boston's Eucharistic Congress, on Saturday, June 18th at the Tsongas Arena in Lowell, MA; 3) Celebration of the Sunday Eucharist for the Feast of Corpus Christi on Sunday, June 19th in your parish; and 4) Our Sunday Family Meal prayer service in your homes - having been nourished by the Eucharist at Mass, families are then encouraged to come together to share a meal and celebrate the gift of faith in Jesus we share in our family. We invite your family to participate in Our Sunday Family Meal Prayer at www.evangelizeboston.com/our-sunday-family-meal. It comes complete with activities for children of all ages and is available in 4 languages.

Dear Holy People of God,

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to you all for making my send forth Mass and reception thereafter. I also wish to thank you for the beautiful reception accorded Fr. Casmia on his graduation day last Monday, May 23rd, from Boston College. It was beautiful to see Joe Stella dance. And likewise Fr. Jim Morris. Thank you so much for everything, for your generosity, your spiritual and material support, the company, the laughter, the joy, the love and the encouragement. May the Good Lord reward you all. God is Good, all the time, and all the time, God is Good. Fr. Maurice

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

St. Josemaria Escriva tell us, "To live according to the Holy Spirit means to live by faith and hope and charity. To allow God to take possession of our lives and to change our hearts, to make us resemble him more and more." Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given freely by God to us. The Holy Spirit is the very breath of God and the true source of our power and strength. When we accept that God is the beginning and the end of all things, we open ourselves to receiving this powerful presence. The Holy Spirit alone is the one who teaches us how to pray, who stirs us to lift our eyes to heaven in search of our Creator and opens them to recognize the wonderful gifts of faith, hope, and love God gives us. The Holy Spirit is the one who teaches us how to understand ourselves, God, others, and the world. When we allow God's Own breath to truly take possession of us, we realize that we are meant to become like God and know Him as He really is. This ultimate helper lifts our eyes from what is below to what is above and empowers us to live life with joy and keener vision!

Grand Annual Appeal

Dear Holy People of God,

Once again, thank you for everything. I just wish to continue to call our attention to our parish Grand Annual Appeal. This summer, we have to continue the repairs of the externals of our church building. I thank all that have contributed thus far, enabling us to complete the repairs of the heating system of our church building, and other items. Now, we have to focus on the externals. Again, I wish I didn't have to turn to you for money! I am appealing to you to kindly consider giving a little extra. If each family or household in our parish gave to the Grand Annual something in the amount of $300, we will meet our target of $55,000 and be able to complete the repairs of the lighting and externals of our church building. As you plan for the summer vacation, kindly include Ste. Anne's in your budget. Also, you might consider giving online with your credit card, through our parish website at the following link <https://stannesalem.org/online-giving> or by using the Ste. Anne's QR Code above. Thank you very much for your generosity.

Fr. Maurice

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The disciples must have missed spending time with Jesus after he went back to heaven. But they knew that the Holy Spirit would always be with them, helping them remember what Jesus taught them. The disciples kept learning about God and kept growing closer to him. The Holy Spirit will help you remember Jesus, too.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for sending the Holy Spirit.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Pray to the Holy Spirit. Ask him to help you learn more about Jesus.
