Sacrament of Baptism: Baptisms are celebrated on the third Sunday of the month at 12:15 pm. A preparation for parents and godparents will take place on the second Wednesday of the month at 7:00 PM at the Rectory. Please contact the Parish Office to arrange a baptism.

Matrimony: Please contact the Parish Office at least six months in advance to arrange for the celebration of your wedding.

Home Visitation: We are happy to visit for confession, holy communion, anointing of the sick, or with anyone who is unable to come to church. Please contact the Parish Office.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is for anyone who is seriously ill, in a weakened condition, facing surgery, entering hospice care, or near death. Please contact the Parish Office for this sacrament to be celebrated.

OUR MISSION

Sainte Anne Parish is a faith community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We see ourselves as a local expression of the universal Church, the People of God, the Body of Christ. Through God's grace we seek to be welcoming and loving. Our life centers on the daily celebration of the Eucharist. We meet Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and are then challenged to bring His love to others.

Announcements

- ◆ Faith Formation classes started on September 25th. We thank parents for responding positively to register their children. Parents who have not yet registered their children are invited to do so by completing the Registration Form on our website or by contacting the Parish Office or Ludger Veer.
- ◆ The next Parish Book Club Meeting will be held on Saturday, October 15th at 5PM in the Rectory. The book we are engaging in is by Peter Kreeft, entitled, "Symbol or Substance?" Let us take advantage of this opportunity to learn more on the Eucharist.
- ◆ The next Parish Pastoral Council Meeting will take place on Saturday, October 8th at 5PM in the Chapel.

Therefore,

I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen,
so that they too
may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus,

together with eternal glory.

2 Timothy 2:10

Imploring Our Blessed Mother to Pray for us Sinners

Dear friends, as we continue to pray the Rosary fervently during this month of October, I would like us to reflect on the role of Mary as "Refuge of Sinners," a title which stands out clearly in the Litany of Loreto, to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Whenever we pray five decades of the Rosary we implore her fifty-three times with the words "pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of death." Do this when we say the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She stands as a safe refuge and intercessor for us sinners, struggling in this valley of tears.

The worst evil that can befall us is unquestionably SIN, which makes us an object of abhorrence in the sight of God. No one could have yearned for the return of sinners as much as Jesus yearns. He died on the Cross for them. Saint John tells us that "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life" (John 3.16). Jesus is our ultimate refuge. God's infinite mercy has not only prepared for us a potent remedy against sin in the merits of Jesus Christ, our Savior, but it has also given us poor sinners a secure refuge in the assistance of Mary, Our Lady refuge of sinners. In the Old Law there were cities of refuge to which the guilty could flee for safety (cf. Joshua 20:7-8); in the New Law, Mary's mantle is for us that citadel of refuge for sinful souls. Our Lady refuge of sinners is thus not merely a pledge of our safety, but by her unrivaled sanctity, she is as earnest of pardon for all sinners who have recourse to her intercession. She not only disarms the just anger of God roused by our sins, but also obtains for her true clients sincere and heartfelt conversion, even at the hour of our death. At the hour of death, Mary shelters her devoted children, driving the Tempter far from us, and encouraging us to fight valiantly to the last gasp. The Holy Church makes us have recourse to her anytime we pray the Hail Mary prayer "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us, sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen."

So, when we give to Our Lady that consoling title, "Refuge of Sinners," we see in Her one who loves the lost sheep, as Jesus loves them. We see Her as the great intercessor with Him, as She prays for them in conformity with the Divine Will. It is in this sense that Our Lady is the "Refuge of Sinners," wanting to save us, pleading with Jesus to save us, ever ready to come to our help, ever ready to cover us with Her mantle of love, a mother's love at that, "our life, our sweetness and our hope." That is what St. John Damascene meant when he said that Mary is not only the refuge of the innocent, but also of the wicked who implore Her protection. St. Bonaventure had the same thought when he said that "Mary embraces with motherly love even such a sinner as is despised by all the world, and ceases not to embrace him until he is reconciled with his Judge."

In a devotion book entitled Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help, the author explains that among men, titles are often more than vain designations that do not correspond to reality. In Mary, on the contrary, titles are always an expression of the most obvious truth. Thus, the blessed Virgin is called, and is truly the perpetual help of all the unfortunate who have recourse to Her.

The poor sinners are one class of the unfortunates for whom the most loving Mother seems to reserve her most tender glances and whom She makes special object of Her most compassionate concern. It is easy to understand the reason behind that predilection. The greater the misfortune of a child, the more maternal love increases. Well then, what greater misfortune is there than that of being separated from Jesus and being chained to the shameful slavery of the devil? The kindest of mothers pours out on Her children, the sinners, all the treasures of the mercy and tenderness of Her maternal Heart in order to win them back to God. She attracts them with the sweetness of her name [Refuge of Sinners]; with the fame of Her miracles and even with her merciful glance.

As we pray the Rosary every day, let us continue to have recourse to Our Blessed Mother, and implore the mercy of God for all sinners and for ourselves.

Have a grace-filled month of the Rosary.

Fr. Casmia

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT ~ EVERY THURSDAY ~ 9:30AM TO 6PM

We encourage everyone to come and spend some quiet time with the Lord, and please tell your friends and neighbors about this wonderful opportunity. We ask you to please use the sign-up sheet at the church entrance. Each time slot must be covered to ensure that the exposed Sacrament is never left alone.

Visiting with Jesus is a great way to grow in friendship with him.

If you feel inspired to spend an hour in the presence of Christ on Thursdays, please let the parish office know by calling 978.744.1930, emailing info@stannesalem.org, or signing up at church. Adoration is open to everyone. We encourage you to try adoration.

October 9th ~ Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A holiday weekend in New England is, of itself, a good reason to give thanks. In spite of summer's drought, causing a less than vibrant array of color, the fall season seems to invite us to acknowledge the variety of ways God has been present and blessing us. It is also good for us to recall with gratitude when God carried you through a difficulty - a sickness, the death of a loved one, employment concerns, or concerns about children. Our gospel today recounts the familiar story of the ten lepers. All were made clean, but only one expressed gratitude. Take a moment today to say thank you to God for the ways God was present with you when times were rough and those times when you were surprised by God's presence and peace. Let's all be like the leper who went back to say thank you, not be like the nine who didn't!

FINANCIAL UPDATE - SUPPORT YOUR PARISH

We wish to thank everyone who supports our parish financially. Your contributions pay for utilities, staff and clergy salaries, property maintenance, supplies, and supports our parish ministries. Everything we do as a parish relies on the offertory collections and other donations. Your continuing generous and sacrificial giving will assist your parish to provide for your spiritual needs and to serve the wider community. Merci and Thank You!

Second Collection - October 16th: Maintenance & Repair

Gratitude

We wish to thank all those who have been supporting our parish by shopping at Grandma's Attic. Our immense gratitude also goes to the volunteers and the coordinators who work tirelessly, making enormous sacrifices to put everything in order. May God in his mercy bless and reward you all.
