Pope Francis' Intention for August

The Maritime World. We pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.

How can I pray?

Normally, the classic method of experiencing the loving God and His providence for you takes four forms. The first is the recalling of some mystery of grace, which can either be found in Scripture, in the lives of the saints, or in a spiritual or theological book. This is reading (lectio). Once you place some mystery of grace before the eyes of your heart, then you apply it to your own life in some trouble or weakness you are experiencing. If you are not concentrating on weakness, then apply this mystery to some gift of God's goodness you have received either in yourself, from another, or from Him. This is meditation (meditation). You yourself respond to this desire for healing or knowledge of gifts received by a sighing of the heart, which may or may not be put into words. This is prayer (oratio). Finally, you rest in the goodness of God with the knowledge that God loves you so much to aid you in healing of shower you with His blessing. This is contemplation (contemplation).
