HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

PARISH UPDATE FROM FR. CARLO

Dear Parishioners,

I have completed my third month and now I could a little bit say that I am getting settled in the parish. The last two months were full of activities. The month of August, we had our Parish Picnic and Farmer's Market. I wanted to thank those who volunteered and helped us prepare for these events. The proceeds from the Farmer's Market for $1,860.13 will be used to pay our hall loan.

The month of September, we had the opening of our CFF on September 10. I blessed our children before they began their school year. They were so excited to go back to their classrooms to learn more about their faith. We also had our Ministry Potluck on September 12, and a lot of parishioners attended. I came to know the different ministries in our parish. These ministries show that we have an active community. I am looking forward to personally meeting each ministry and learn more about their mission and vision.

I would like to thank our parishioners in Foresthill for preparing a wine and cheese welcome reception last Sunday. Thank you so much for your warm greetings!

Your Brother in Christ

Fr. Carlo Paul G. Tezano
Parochial Administrator

On Monday, September 16th, the Independent Compensation Program (ICP) began accepting registrations. The Diocese of Sacramento is joining those in Los Angeles, Fresno, Orange, San Bernadino and San Diego in a program that brings compensation and justice to those who were sexually abused as minors by diocesan priests. All claims regardless of how long ago they may have occurred, will be considered by the program. The ICP is independent, outside the control of any diocese. For more information, including how to submit a claim, please visit www.CaliforniaDioceseICP.com. Let us always remember to pray for the victims of priest sexual abuse. As their pain is ongoing, so must our prayers for them be.

REFLEXIONES SEMANALES

CÓMO DIOS PRETENDE QUE VIVAMOS

Las lecturas de hoy una vez más están dirigidas a los creyentes, comunidades de fe. Así como la lectura de la semana pasada. Amós nos conforta con una condena de aquellos cuyas vidas están enfocadas en el placer y la auto absorción. El Salmo contrasta ese enfoque con el del Señor: justicia para los oprimidos, alimentos para los hambrientos, libertad para los cautivos, vista para los ciegos, levantar a los agachados, amor al justo, proteger a los extranjeros, huérfanos y las viudas; y al hacerlo, frustrando el camino a los malvados. Timoteo nos insta a la búsqueda de la justicia, la devoción, la fe, el amor, la paciencia y la mansedumbre. Lucas cuenta la historia familiar de un hombre rico y un mendigo en su puerta, que lleva una vida muy diferente en este mundo y en el otro. Una vez más estamos recibiendo indicaciones acerca de cómo Dios quiere que vivamos nuestras vidas.

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY September 29, 2019

On the weekend of September 28 & 29, please help us acknowledge PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY by stopping by the tables outside after Masses to write a note of gratitude and support to Fr. Carlo and/or to sign a spiritual bouquet. Fr. Carlo has given his life to serve Christ by bringing the Holy Sacraments to all of us. We are so very blessed to have him at St. Joseph Parish!

You may want to write out a card ahead of time and bring it with you that weekend; this way you can think in an unrushed way about what you'd really like to say or offer in the way of appreciation, support, and prayer. And please consider sending notes to other priests who have been meaningful in your life.
