THE BARRIERS THAT SEPARATE US

We live in a society that has many technological avenues for stimulation and entertainment, one in which the urban population exceeds the non-urban. It is curious that loneliness is a prevalent malady. It is easy to reach out and touch someone, we are told. But—in truth—it is not all that easy, and statistics from the mental health field will reinforce that opinion. Today's readings are about the ways in which we can authentically reach out: God touches Adam to create a mate and end his solitude; God-in-Jesus takes on human flesh and death in order that we might come to glory; Jesus reaches out to the children whom the disciples had tried to keep away, showing us the manner in which we must approach the loving embrace that awaits us in heaven. Until that day, however, we must remember that ours is a sacramental church, a church of signs of the love of God. And so we are called to reach out continually to ease the loneliness and the barriers that separate us from one another and, therefore, from the love of Christ.

FEAST OF FAITH
The Sign of Peace

"Greet one another with a holy kiss," wrote Saint Paul to the Corinthians (1 Corinthians 16:20), and he said the same thing to other communities as well. The holy kiss, the sign of peace, has been a hallmark of Christians from the very beginning. In giving and receiving the sign of peace, we are not giving something of our own, but something that Christ has given to us. "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you," Jesus told his disciples (John 14:27). Jesus comes to us when we gather together in community. We celebrate the Eucharist not just to receive spiritual nourishment to help us on our solitary way to salvation, but to be transformed into one body, the Body of Christ in the world. As we receive the Eucharist, we are not only united to Christ; we are united to each other. It is never easy to live in community, and we hurt each other on the way. So we need to turn to each other in a sign of reconciliation and forgiveness, to look into each other's eyes, and give and receive the peace that is not ours, but Christ's.

EVENING ROSARY WITH KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Do you feel the weight of our times?
Do you feel like the world has gone insane?
Whether it is the state of country, this pandemic, the election or the state of the world, you may feel that there is nothing that you can do. But there is:
You can come & pray with the Knights of Columbus.

When: Every Sunday in at 8:00pm-9pm
Where: Online
Joining info: Join with Google Meet

meet.google.com/wwf-hkmt-owk

During difficult times our faith tells us that we need to come together in prayer and pray to our Blessed Lord as one people. In accordance with that tradition, I would like to invite everyone to come and share in the Prayer of the Gospels with us online every Sunday evening at 8:00pm. Given the time of the year we will include the Litany of the Saints. This prayer can be accessed with the following link:

https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/devotions/litany-of-the-saints-250

Leo Tolstoy said "Give me faith, Lord, and let me help others find it."

KofC Auburn Council 6149 would like to offer this rosary publicly to help others find their faith and come together in common prayer. The rosary is our expression of faith, and we would like to offer this as a service to the Christian community and to those of like mind to come together and pray for the common good.

We are open to questions, comments and feedback in an attempt to make this a more spirituality fulfilling experience. Comments can be addressed to me at kofc6149@gmail.com.

"If I had an army to say the Rosary, I could conquer the world."
Blessed Pope Piux IX
I hope to see everyone there!

RCIA
A JOURNEY IN FAITH

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) exists to prepare adults (and those in their late teen years) for active participation in the Faith. We welcome all those who are interested in inquiring about the Catholic Faith, or coming into full communion with the Catholic Church. These classes are also open to those who are already Catholic and want a deeper understanding of their faith, or for Catholic adults who need to be confirmed.
Please call Lila Ruiz at the office (530) 885-2956 or our RCIA Director Karen Sheehan (916) 812-3737 or email Cactusjack223@gmail.com if you are interested in registering for this program.

El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos (RICA) existe para preparar a los adultos (y aquellos en sus últimos años de adolescencia) para la participación activa en la Fe. Damos la bienvenida a todos aquellos que estén interesados en indagar sobre la fe católica o entrar en plena comunión con la Iglesia católica. Estas clases también están abiertas a aquellos que ya son católicos pero necesitan ser confirmados.
Las clases han comenzado y se reúnen los martes en Santa Teresa de Ávila en el Salón de las Bienaventuranzas. Por favor llame a nuestra Directora de RICA en español, Letitia Aceves, (530) 613-4302 si está interesado en unirse a las clases.

LAS BARRERAS QUE NOS SEPARAN

.Vivimos en una sociedad que tiene muchas posibilidades tecnológicas para la estimulación y el entretenimiento, en que la población urbana supera la no urbana. Es curioso que la soledad sea un mal prevalente. Es fácil de alcanzar y tocar a alguien, se nos dice. Pero, en verdad, no es tan fácil, y las estadísticas de salud mental refuerzan esa opinión. Las lecturas de hoy son las formas en las que auténticamente podemos acercarnos a otros: Dios toca a Adán para crearle una compañera y poner fin a su soledad, Dios en Jesús asume forma humana y la muerte con el fin de que podamos llegar a la gloria; Jesús se acerca a los niños que los discípulos habían tratado de alejar, mostrándonos así cómo aceptar el abrazo amoroso que nos espera en el cielo. Hasta ese día, sin embargo, debemos recordar que la nuestra es una Iglesia sacramental, una Iglesia de signos del amor de Dios. Y así estamos llamados a acercarnos a otros continuamente para aliviar la soledad y derribar las barreras que nos separan unos de otros y, por tanto, del amor de Cristo.

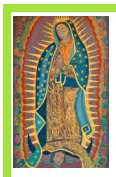
FIESTA DE LA FE
Comunión bajo las dos especies



Lo común es que las primeras generaciones de emigrantes tengan en su experiencia litúrgica la sagrada comunión solamente bajo la especie del pan. La han recibido bajo las dos especies sólo en circunstancias extraordinarias. Aunque la teología más tradicional nos ha enseñado que al comulgar el pan solamente (la hostia), comulgamos también la Sangre del Señor, el comulgar bajo las dos especies tiene mucho sentido, no porque Jesús esté incompleto al comulgar sólo alguna de las formas, sino porque Cristo se nos da plenamente y nosotros nos unimos plenamente a él. El pan, en la tradición judía, solía suplir al cordero pascual que les recordaba la liberación de Egipto; asimismo, el vino les recordaba la alianza que Dios había establecido con ellos. Para nosotros, los cristianos, el pan es el Cuerpo de Cristo, en plenitud, que se nos da, como se nos dio en la Última Cena y también en la cruz. El cáliz, que tiene la sangre de la alianza "nueva y eterna", representa nuestro deseo de "beber el mismo cáliz" que Jesús bebió, seguirlo hasta las últimas consecuencias. Al beberlo confesamos públicamente no sólo nuestra fe en Cristo, sino nuestro deseo de compartir su suerte, la de la cruz.

Are you interested in being part of a

SACRED MUSIC CHOIR?

There is a small group of parishioners hoping to form a Sacred Music Choir to provide occasional Mass music here at St. Joseph Church. The type of music we are envisioning would involve a combination of Gregorian chant and traditional hymns (sung in parts), as appropriate for the liturgy being conducted.

Please do not be intimidated by the formal sound of 'a Sacred Music Choir'! If you have a desire to praise God in this way (and can sing on key), then we want you. The commitment would be for a rehearsal time of one evening per week and additional time just before Mass. The rehearsal day and time is yet to be determined, as are Mass times.

If you are interested in joining this choir, or would like more information, please contact Gary Beckwith at garyb444wavecable.com or Doreen Wood
