Divine Mercy Sunday

Dear St. Margaret Mary Parishioners,

The word 'mercy' has various meanings. But this Divine Mercy Sunday reminds us of that mercy that comes from God, Divine Mercy. We are also called to mirror it whenever possible in our own lives. In Misericordiae Vultus (The Face of Mercy) Pope Francis wrote about how we can participate in showing mercy at our human level reflecting the mercy of Jesus.

12. "The Church is commissioned to announce the mercy of God, the beating heart of the Gospel, which in its own way must penetrate the heart and mind of every person. The Spouse of Christ must pattern her behaviour after the Son of God who went out to everyone without exception. In the present day, as the Church is charged with the task of the new evangelization, the theme of mercy needs to be proposed again and again with new enthusiasm and renewed pastoral action. It is absolutely essential for the Church and for the credibility of her message that she herself live and testify to mercy. Her language and her gestures must transmit mercy, so as to touch the hearts of all people and inspire them once more to find the road that leads to the Father."

May we always seek to have Divine Mercy in our hearts and for our souls as we continue celebrating with joy the grace of Christ, the Risen Lord!

In the Risen Christ,

Fr. Ed
Pastor

Estimados feligreses de St. Margaret Mary,

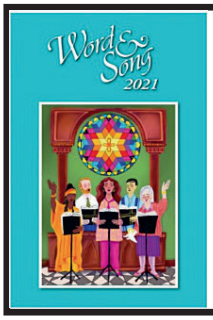
La palabra "misericordia" tiene varios significados. Pero este Domingo de la Divina Misericordia nos recuerda esa misericordia que viene de Dios, la Divina Misericordia. También estamos llamados a reflejarlo siempre que sea posible en nuestras propias vidas. En Misericordiae Vultus (El rostro de la misericordia), el Papa Francisco escribió sobre cómo podemos participar en mostrar misericordia a nuestro nivel humano reflejando la misericordia de Jesús.

12. "La Iglesia tiene la misión de anunciar la misericordia de Dios, corazón palpitante del Evangelio, que por su medio debe alcanzar la mente y el corazón de toda persona. La Esposa de Cristo hace suyo el comportamiento del Hijo de Dios que sale a encontrar a todos, sin excluir ninguno. En nuestro tiempo, en el que la Iglesia está comprometida en la nueva evangelización, el tema de la misericordia exige ser propuesto una vez más con nuevo entusiasmo y con una renovada acción pastoral. Es determinante para la Iglesia y para la credibilidad de su anuncio que ella viva y testimonie en primera persona la misericordia. Su lenguaje y sus gestos deben transmitir misericordia para penetrar en el corazón de las personas y motivarlas a reencontrar el camino de vuelta al Padre."

¡Que siempre busquemos tener la Divina Misericordia en nuestros corazones y para nuestras almas mientras seguimos celebrando con alegría la gracia de Cristo, el Señor Resucitado!

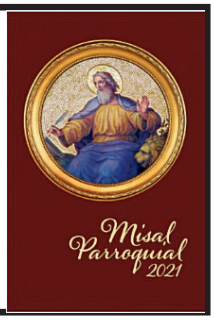
En Cristo resucitado,

P. Ed
Párroco



Information from the Altar Society

The current 2021 Word & Song Missalette and the current Misal Parroquial had previously been offered on a table in the vestibule. Now they will be available only from the church office. A donation of $5.00 per book is suggested.



Divine Mercy Sunday

The Second Sunday of Easter is known as Divine Mercy Sunday. It's a day where we continue to celebrate God's mercy during Easter Time. Please join Fr. Dan in a Eucharistic Procession around the church campus on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 11th at 3 pm. We will begin in the church with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by the recitation of the rosary from the church to the grotto where there will be a benediction. From the grotto, we will process back to the church chanting the Divine Mercy Chaplet and ending with the final benediction and reposition.

El Segundo Domingo de Pascua se conoce como Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Es un día en el que continuamos celebrando la misericordia de Dios durante el tiempo de Pascua. Por favor únase al P. Dan en una Procesión Eucarística alrededor del campus de la iglesia el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, 11 de abril a las 3 pm. Comenzaremos en la iglesia con la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento, seguida del rezo del rosario desde la iglesia hasta la gruta donde habrá una bendición. Desde la gruta, regresaremos a la iglesia cantando la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia y terminando con la bendición final y el reposo del Santísimo Sacramento.

Archbishop's Mass for Divine Mercy Sunday

Pope Saint John Paul II declared that "the Second Sunday of Easter, henceforth throughout the Church will also be called Divine Mercy Sunday." His declaration is in response to Jesus' words and requests to St. Faustina Kowalska. Jesus told her that special graces can be obtained that day. "Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life (Reconciliation and Holy Communion) on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary, #300)

To receive the special graces of Divine Mercy Sunday you should receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation within a reasonable time before or on the Feast (during Lent suffices) and receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday, asking for this special grace.

In St. Faustina's Diary, Jesus also asks that you place complete trust in God's mercy, repent of all your sins, venerate the image of The Divine Mercy, and be merciful to others, by your actions, words, or prayers.

All are invited to attend.

Ask St. Joseph to help you navigate the spiritual life and draw closer to Jesus.

In many ways St. Joseph is seen as a model for living a life of prayer. Scripture doesn't record any words he spoke, and this silence is often seen as an expression of his contemplative spirit.

Joseph was able to watch his son closely and try to imitate his ways, as he had much to learn from Jesus, especially in the spiritual life.

O glorious St. Joseph, master and model of the spiritual life, I ask you, be my guide and conduct me to your divine foster Child, Jesus Christ, that I may learn in your school to know, adore and love Him as my only Lord and God. Amen.

Pídale a San José que lo ayude a navegar por la vida espiritual y a acercarse a Jesús.

En muchos sentidos, se ve a San José como un modelo para vivir una vida de oración. La Escritura no registra ninguna de las palabras que pronunció, y este silencio a menudo se ve como una expresión de su espíritu contemplativo.

José pudo observar a su hijo de cerca y tratar de imitar sus caminos, ya que tenía mucho que aprender de Jesús, especialmente en la vida espiritual.

Oh glorioso San José, maestro y modelo de la vida espiritual, te pido que seas mi guía y me conduzcas a tu divino Hijo adoptivo, Jesucristo, para que pueda aprender en tu escuela a conocerlo, adorarlo y amarlo como mi único hijo. Señor y Dios. Amén.

Ugandan Project for Deacon Clement

Deacon Clement Manjas is from the Archdiocese of Tororo in Uganda. The area he will be ministering in is a rural area, as Uganda is a third world country. His family consists of his grandmother, mother, father and 6 other siblings of which he is the 3rd born.

Deacon Clement Manjas will be returning to Notre Dame Seminary to finish his studies in late October and may be back helping at St. Margaret Mary on some weekends. Deacon Clement will graduate from Notre Dame Seminary in May 2021 and will travel back to Uganda in June to be ordained in July 2021. In preparation for his Priestly Ordination he will have many needs. We would like to help him meet his transportation needs while in Uganda.

Please place donations in an envelope marked Deacon Clement in the collection basket in church or they can be dropped off in the church office.

Donations of any amount would be greatly appreciated!!!

Monthly Explanation of the Mass

The Presence of Christ in the Word

- The proclamation of God's Word at Mass is central to our Eucharistic celebration: "The Church is nourished spiritually at the twofold table of God's word and of the Eucharist…The celebration of Mass in which the Word is heard and the Eucharist is offered and received forms but one single act of divine worship" (Introduction to the Lectionary, 10).
- When the Scripture readings are proclaimed, it is Jesus Christ himself who speaks to us and invites us into dialogue with Him. The Gospel is the high point of the readings – everyone stands (symbolizing the resurrection) and sings the Alleluia (except during Lent), greeting and welcoming Christ who is present with us. God speaks to the Church, the community at large, and to the individual person. Mass is the privileged place where God speaks to us!
- The Church encourages us to prepare for Mass by praying with the Sunday readings throughout the week, so that God's Word might grow and live within us more deeply – thus enabling us to know his voice and hear Him more clearly at Mass and in our daily lives.
