Advanced giving is open now and Giving Tuesday is November 29.

St. Margaret Mary Church Mission Statement

Embrace and share the Good News of the life, love, and ministry of Jesus.

Dear Parishioners of St. Margaret Mary

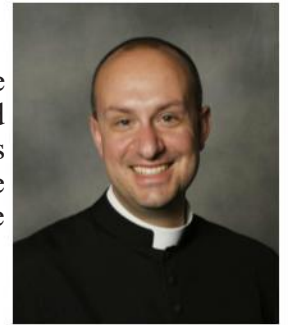

We now find ourselves in a new liturgical season, a new liturgical cycle (Year A if you're wondering), and a familiar liturgical color. Our kids in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program will enthusiastically tell you that "purple is for preparation." During this season of Advent, we begin preparing for the Incarnation, the Word became Flesh, the birth of the Christ child. As each candle of the Advent wreath is lit every Sunday, may we feel the excitement of the true meaning behind the Christmas season.

Wishing you all God's blessings, I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Dan Darmanin
Pastor

Altar Society

Altar Society Collection

Altar Society members will be collecting for Christmas flowers after all Masses on December 3 & 4.

In addition to the flowers, your donations provide for church vessels, altar linens, house blessing chalk packets, banners, and other items to enhance our liturgical experience. One of our recently completed projects is the display in the Evangelization Building of all the priests who have served here at St. Margaret Mary over the years.

Your support is greatly appreciated!
