4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear Parishioners,

When Jesus and the disciples come to Capernaum in today's Gospel, the people in the synagogue are astonished. His teaching is different from that of the scribes: Jesus taught as one having authority. The word authority comes from roots implying self-doing or even self-being. One acting with authority acts with his own power.

The rabbis, Pharisees, and scribes would have carefully and consistently explained that their teaching stood on the foundation of the word of God in the prophets. Their teaching had power only to exhort, and only because it pointed beyond themselves back to the very power of God. They had no authority themselves; they were not authors, only teachers pointing back to what God had already said.

But Jesus taught as one having authority – having power of his own. Not only is this different from the teaching of the scribes, but this is also different from the teaching of the prophets themselves. Moses, speaking for God, tells the people in the first reading: I will raise up for them a prophet ... and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. The prophets speak the words of God, not their own. Even to prophesy in this way was a great risk. Anyone who dared to speak in the name of the Lord something that God did not command risked death for blasphemy – a penalty imposed by God himself through Moses in today's first reading.

And so, Jesus' teaching with authority is astonishing indeed! Everything changes with Jesus' entry into human history. When Jesus speaks, God acts. This is a reversal of the action from the era of the prophets. With the prophets, it was God who spoke first, and the prophet then acted on God's command – often speaking God's words to the people. But, in Jesus, we have God's word present in human flesh. And when he teaches, his words themselves have power to act. The command of Jesus to the unclean spirit is no mere exhortation, it is not a request or an appeal to some higher authority. The words of Jesus, Quiet! Come out of him! actually cause the spirit to come out.

This is true of all the words of Jesus. In other Gospel passages Jesus says, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be (Jn 14:3); and Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest (Mt 11:28). These are not empty promises; they have authority. Let us then put our trust in him – in the God who so loves us that he sent his only Son to speak and act on our behalf, on behalf of our salvation. We can then be free of anxieties about things of this world because when Jesus speaks, God acts. This is astonishing indeed.

Blessings,

Fr. Tad

Discover the Beauty and Riches of the Mass this Lent

Join other St. Anthony parishioners this Lent as we view and discuss the 30-minute videos from A Biblical Walk Through the Mass.

The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist.

The words, the gestures, and the rituals of the Mass are rich in meaning. Everything we say and do in the Liturgy is steeped in biblical language. A Biblical Walk Through the Mass explores the extraordinary biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveals what it all means and why it all matters. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

You can attend the 3 pm or 7 pm sessions being held over five Wednesdays beginning on February 21 and ending on March 20. There will be no homework and no cost to participate. More information is coming. Save the dates and invite a friend!
