Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus asked Saint Faustina to institute this feast during one of his appearances to her in 1931. On this day, we are encouraged to trust in God's merciful love for us and draw near to him, and also to perform spiritual and corporal works of mercy out of love for God, who redeemed us by his suffering and death.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus shows the disciples his hands and his side. His glorified body still bears the marks of his passion, signs of what he suffered for our sake. It is out of his side that the blood and water flowed when Jesus was pierced with a spear, while he was on the cross. In the Divine Mercy image, we see the rays of red and white pouring from Jesus' heart, representing that blood and water, and symbolizing the graces available to us in the sacraments. We are encouraged to approach him in the sacraments of reconciliation and Eucharist to receive his healing and nourishment.

When Jesus gave the Divine Mercy image to Saint Faustina, he instructed her to include the words, "Jesus, I trust in you." As Jesus told Thomas in today's Gospel, Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed. To be in right relationship with others, we must first be in right relationship with God. As we hear in our second reading, this means loving God and following his commandments. When we go astray, or miss the mark, we can trust that God will forgive us, no matter how great our sins may be.

In today's Gospel, Jesus breathes on the Apostles and says, Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained. It is through this gift of the Holy Spirit, passed on through apostolic succession and priestly ordination, that we can be assured of the gift of God's forgiveness today. Each time we turn back to God, we will find that he is already there, waiting for us with open arms.

When we receive God's mercy, it frees us to see more clearly who we are and how we are to act. Today's feast invites us to perform acts of mercy out of love for God. We are invited to share the truth with others, because we know that Jesus desires to show mercy for their souls, as he has for ours. As children of God, what we are given is meant to be shared. We are called to be forgiving because we have been forgiven, to be merciful as God is merciful.

That is what the Divine Mercy Sunday reminds us of. Let us practice it.

Blessings,

Fr. Tad

APRIL
Is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Every April, the Diocese of San José joins the country in observance of Child Abuse Prevention Month as we continue to help create safer childhoods locally and nationwide. Though we work tirelessly year-round to create safe environments for our children, let us put a special emphasis this April to promote child abuse prevention in our parishes and schools.

April 28th - Blue Sunday National Day of Prayer: Churches of all faiths are asked to join together on this day of prayer to demonstrate support for children and families who have been affected by child abuse. If you would like to participate, we recommend praying the USCCB Prayer for Healing Victims of Abuse (<https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/child-and-youth-protection/resources/upload/Bilingual-PC.pdf>).

April 6th & 7th - Faith Community Wear Blue Weekend:
We are encouraged to wear blue to show solidarity and support while raising awareness.
