BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel account proclaims two connected miracle stories, one embedded in the other. The story that bookends the account is the healing of Jairus' daughter. A synagogue official such as Jairus would be a man of wealth who supported the synagogue. He was therefore a man of prominence and stature.

This man of wealth and prominence had a serious problem: His daughter had a terminal illness and was, in fact, close to death. It is difficult to imagine the agony he and the child's mother must have been going through. He could have been filled with anger or despair.

But Jairus' response was neither: Instead, it is one of humility and faith before the Lord. Mark writes that seeing Jesus, Jairus fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying ... Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live. Jairus recognized that Jesus had greater stature and authority than he had; he also believed that Jesus could heal his daughter and restore her to life.

Mark then interrupts the conclusion of the story of Jairus with another episode. In this account, we encounter a woman who had been suffering from a hemorrhagic illness for 12 years and had spent all her money seeking help. Mark tells us this woman came to Jesus and touched his cloak, believing that if she did so, she would be healed.

Typically, if an unclean person such as the woman touched someone else, the other person would become unclean as well. But interestingly, this woman believed that the opposite would happen; she believed that Jesus' holiness would make her pure and heal her. This is indeed what happened. She was made pure and healed by Jesus' touch because of her faith. When questioned about the encounter, like Jairus, she fell, in humility, before Jesus.

In today's Gospel, Mark demonstrates how we are to approach Jesus with our petitions. Whether the petitions are for ourselves, or for loved ones, whether we are people of wealth, prestige, or the most inconsequential, seemingly invisible people in the world, we are to come to Christ with faith and humility. And how can we come to have the kind of faith that Jairus and this woman had in Jesus? They seem so confident that Jesus could and would do what they asked, as they needed. Let us strive to have such faith, such confidence in the Lord.

Blessings,
Fr. Tad

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." The assuredness with which the woman in today's Gospel, afflicted with hemorrhages, speaks, is something I aspire to. She is at her wit's end, with nothing to lose and everything to gain, and she simply determines what she will do, bolstered by her faith in Jesus Christ. Notice how she doesn't approach Jesus directly, engage in conversation, or even ask anything of him. And Jesus, for his part, doesn't actively seek her out or call her to him. But the woman knows. "She had heard about Jesus," and she just knows that by simply touching his clothing, not even touching his human flesh, that the power he has within him will cure her. Her actions reflect the virtues of fortitude and hope, but it is her faith that has allowed her to see and understand the divine nature of Jesus – to see the God of healing standing before her. And she is not afraid. She trusts in his promises and compassion, and gives herself over to him with full vulnerability, achieving healing and being granted peace in response. If only we could do the same every time we are at our wit's end ... or maybe even long before we get there.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

If we are to follow Jesus we're instructed to imitate him – giving people hope in situations that can seem hopeless. The promises of Christ are real, and through him God's original order for Creation is restored. Death is defeated. The sick are healed. The kingdom of God, inaugurated by Christ and in which we participate here in this life, will be brought to fullness and fruition in the next. Being people of faith doesn't mean we won't suffer or die, but it does mean that suffering and death don't have the last word with us. When we know and understand this, it affects our whole approach and way of relating to one another. When we know the words of Jesus are the truth, we take them into our hearts, live them in our actions, and share them by our witness.

ACCOMPANIMENT Who around you could use this hope?

Think of someone to whom you might bring the healing power of Christ, through listening and presence. Pray for someone who needs the peace of Christ in his or her life.

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION—July 5, 2024

"Trust all things to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and to Mary Help of Christians and you will see what miracles are." - St. John Bosco

It is a tremendous gift of faith to know Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. While our human eyes see unleavened bread, our faith allows us to see Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. He always waits for us. May we come to Him.

Join us Friday, July 5, at 6:30 PM for Mass. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will begin immediately afterward and last until 7:00 AM the following morning. All are invited to return to the church for the breakfast that will be served after the 7:00 AM Benediction.

CALLING TO BECOME AN ALTAR SERVER

It is time to call upon our children to come to church and to be engaged in the life of the parish by becoming an altar server. All boys and girls who have already received the First Holy Communion are invited to register for this program.

Parents, please, help your children to do so if they express such a desire to become an altar server. PLEASE, submit the names of your children to the Parish Office.

We are aspiring for a life-giving and vibrant liturgy! Your kids will have an important role in it.

CALLING ALL MUSICIANS AND SINGERS

The 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM choirs are looking to recruit more singers and musicians. Please consider sharing your talent and joining us in praising God through music.

Rehearsals for the 8:30 AM Mass are on Tuesdays at 7:00 PM and rehearsals for the 10:30 AM Mass are on Thursdays at 7:00 PM.
