Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JUNE 27/28, 2020

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus. -ROMANS 6:8-11

Join our St. Thomas family: Register online or fill out a registration form in the back of the church. God bless you!

Sunday Reflection:

"In our second reading for this week, St. Paul reminds the Christian community in Rome that baptism means an immersion into the dying of the Lord. In his first letter to the Corinthians, he had similarly told his followers that every eucharist is a participation in the dying of Christ. Why this preoccupation with death? Because it is only through this journey into Christ's death and resurrection that we can effectively conquer the fear of death, which tends to cramp us spiritually. Once we have died with Jesus, we can walk "in newness of life."" - Bishop Robert Barron
