Sunday Reflection:

"One of the most mysterious and yet practically applicable of Jesus' parables is at the heart of today's Gospel. The wheat and the weeds are allowed to grow together until the harvest, just as, strangely, good and evil are allowed to exist side-by-side in the affairs of the world. ... How rich and inexhaustible in meaning are these three parables! Take some time to read and contemplate them in light of your own suffering and faith as we seek the Kingdom of God."
- Bishop Robert Barron

Saint Quote for the Week:

"Grant, O Lord of life,…when the moment of our definitive 'passage' comes, that we may face it with serenity, without regret for what we shall leave behind. For in meeting you, after having sought you for so long, we shall find once more every authentic good which we have known here on earth, in the company of all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith and hope….Amen." - Pope St. John Paul II
