Adoration of the Mystic Lamb by Hubert Eyck and Jan van Eyck

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OCTOBER 10/11, 2020

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

"May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call."

- Ephesians 1:17-18

Sunday Reflection:

"Many devout believers find the parable of the wedding feast in the Gospel of Matthew difficult to understand. The story is meant to stir us up with its exaggeration, to signal the spiritual destruction that follows from refusing the divine invitation. We are meant to see how valuable an invitation we have received and how odd it is that we would choose to reject it. ... One of the most powerful and enduring symbols of God's intention toward the world is the sacred banquet. God wants his life to flow into us and through us to one another. The result of this is life and life to the full. The question posed by the Gospel is this: when the invitation to this banquet comes, do we answer yes or no?" - Bishop Robert Barron

Purposefully Catholic / Faith Formation

Maddie Dobrowski Ph. 208-664-9259 x.5 faithformation@stthomascda.org

Please welcome our new Faith Formation Coordinator, Maddie Dobrowski! She began her role at St. Thomas on Oct. 1st and we are already so grateful to have her. Stay tuned for faith formation details. Purposefully Catholic is our new lense by which we approach faith formation and catechesis for all ages and stages in life! This is a community-wide effort as we begin to work on a united front with Pope St. Pius the X to support a life that's 'Purposefully Catholic.'
