Sunday Reflection:

APRIL 24/25, 2021

Jesus was fearless in the face of death in order to save his sheep. Jesus knows the sheep. His knowledge of them, his familiarity with them as he enfolds them in his loving care, reflects the close relationship between the Father and the Son. The image of the shepherd is developed here with an extraordinary richness.

He will bring new members into his fold. The flock of Jesus Christ is not composed only of those who were first called. The mission of the followers of Jesus is limited by no boundaries of race, nation or origin. The unity of all the children of God is the goal of his coming and of his saving death and resurrection.

-Fr Adrian Graffy, Diocese of Brentwood

Catholic Kids Corner

Jesus knows us, His sheep. What is one way that we can get to know know Jesus this week?

APRIL 24/25, 2021

Quote from the Catechism

"This Kingdom shines out before men in the word, in the works and in the presence of Christ.' To welcome Jesus' word is to welcome 'the Kingdom itself.' The seed and beginning of the Kingdom are the 'little flock' of those whom Jesus came to gather around him, the flock whose shepherd he is. They form Jesus' true family. To those whom he thus gathered around him, he taught a new 'way of acting' and a prayer of their own."

Catechism of the Catholic Church, 764
