Pentecost Sunday

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
And in our hearts take up thy rest;

Sunday Reflection:

In the name of Christ, the Holy Spirit produces a variety of virtues. He uses the tongue of one person to communicate wisdom, he enlightens the mind of another with the gift of prophecy; on this one he confers the power of casting out demons, and on that one the ability to interpret Sacred Scripture. In one he strengthens temperance; another he teaches all that refers to the works of charity; someone else he instructs in fasting and the ascetical life. He moves this person to scorn material possessions, while he prepares that person for martyrdom.

~St. Cyril of Jerusalem

Ministry Spotlight

Holy Helpers

Holy Helpers is a group of St. Thomas parishioners who provide help for the parish in various ways. They might be called upon to mend prayer books, do some seasonal ground work, vacuum the church, pass out pamphlets etc. They are there to fill a gap where and when needed.

For more information on Holy Helpers, contact Mary Godbout at 208-691-3098.

Quote from the Catechism

Because the Holy Spirit is the anointing of Christ, it is Christ who, as the head of the Body, pours out the Spirit among his members to nourish, heal, and organize them in their mutual functions, to give them life, send them to bear witness, and associate them to his self-offering to the Father and to his intercession for the whole world. Through the Church's sacraments, Christ communicates his Holy and sanctifying Spirit to the members of his Body.

~Catechism of the Catholic Church, 739
