Sunday Reflection:

"The effect of the miracle was stupendous. The people, seeing the possibility of prosperity and plenty, sought to make him a king—a foretaste of the kind of king our century seems to want, namely a king who fills bodily wants, whether or not he fills the soul. The attempt to make Jesus a king was something like the temptation of Satan on the Mount, when he invited Jesus to turn the stones into bread and become an economic king. To the people, the filling of gullets and stomachs was the mark of power. But our blessed Lord fled into the mountain alone. He left the multitude. They could not make him a king; he was born a king, and his Kingdom was not of this world."

~Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Quote from the Catechism

The miracles of the multiplication of the loaves, when the Lord says the blessing, breaks and distributes the loaves through his disciples to feed the multitude, prefigure the superabundance of this unique bread of his Eucharist.

-Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1335
