17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 24, 2022

PASTOR'S CORNER

Time and again, Jesus steps away from the crowds to pray. The communion between Jesus and his Father inspires the disciples to ask him to teach them to pray. He instructs them to call on God as Father. Jesus offers us a participation in his Sonship; through him we gain access to his Father and ours. Of course, we Catholics can pray traditional formulas from memory, such as the Lord's Prayer. At the same time, we can pray to our heavenly Father by speaking on our lips whatever wells up from within our hearts.

Jesus teaches that God is a good Father. While even good earthly fathers are imperfect, our heavenly Father is perfect. Our earthly fathers may disappoint us in some way, but God will never let us down. He does not withhold good gifts from his children. In fact, the gift the Father never tires of giving us is the Holy Spirit. By the gift of the Spirit, the Father fills us with joy overflowing for the life of the world.

This weekend, we welcome to our parish Fr. Shaun Addinall from the Diocese of Cape Town, South Africa for the annual Missionary Cooperative Plan. We will take-up a second collection after the distribution of Holy Communion today to support the Church's missionary efforts. I thank you in advance for your generosity in ensuring that the Good News of Jesus Christ is spread to all nations.

- Fr. John-Paul

CATECHISM on the EUCHARIST

Finally, by the Eucharistic celebration we already unite ourselves with the heavenly liturgy and anticipate eternal life, when God will be all in all. (1326)

SECOND COLLECTION TODAY

This weekend we are taking-up a second collection for the Missionary Cooperative Plan. The Pontifical Mission Societies in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles accepts requests from Mission Dioceses, Religious Orders, and Lay Organizations working in the missions to preach at a parish for the purpose of making an appeal for financial support. This annual appeal is one that helps unite the Archdiocese of Los Angeles with the Universal Church and to emanate mission awareness among the people of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. The generous response, which is traditional amongst the people of Los Angeles, is a reflection of the ongoing awareness and concern for the people of the world. We encourage you to listen to the missionary preaching at all Masses this weekend about the enormous challenges the mission groups are facing during these extraordinary times. They need your prayers and financial support as they continue to be the light and hope for the vulnerable communities throughout the world. Checks can be made payable to "Society for the Propagation of the Faith." Please use the Missionary Cooperative Plan blue envelopes in the pews for the second collection or scan the QR code in the pew to donate to the second collection.

Bible Study on the Eucharist

The Eucharistic Revival invites us to understand the true meaning of the Eucharist. Fr. John-Paul will be conducting a bible study to help participants see the essential connection between the Eucharist and the Scriptures, and through reflection and discussion learn to apply this in your own life. The bible study will be conducted in six sessions meeting on Tuesdays beginning August 2 and concluding September 13 from 7:00p.m. – 9:00p.m. in the parish office. We will be using Fr. Mitch Pacwa's "The Eucharist: A Bible Study Guide for Catholics" (OSV Publishing). Participants should bring their own bible, notebook and pen. To register for the bible study, please e-mail: saintvictorparish@saintvictor.org or call the parish office (310) 652-6477
